Announcement Made at Meeting of Chairmen and Majors

The United War Fund Campaign in Newton will open this year on September 27th, Chairman Lawrence B. Damon announced at the dinner for Chairmen and Majors held at the Brae Burn Country Club last Tuesday evening, May 1st.

FRANKLIN K. HOYT

Risks Life for Survivors; Commended by Adm. Stark

For risking his life to rescue survivors of a landing craft that was sunk off the coast of England, Lt. John J. Waters, 29, of 25 Irving street, Newton Centre, has received a commendation from Admiral Harold R. Stark, Commander of the United States Naval Forces in Europe.

LT. JOHN J. WATERS

Lt. Waters is a graduate of Newton High School and Penn State where he was a star athlete. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Waters, of 25 Irving street. The commendation reads as follows:

Named President of Mass. Dental Society

Lt.-Col. Alexander Standish Now Col.

Word has just been received that Alexander Standish of Newton Highlands had been promoted to the rank of Colonel. Colonel Standish was commissioned as a captain when he entered the service in June 1942 and has successfully been advanced as major and lieutenant colonel to full colonelcy.

Newton Churches To Observe V-E Day

The Protestant churches of the city of Newton will observe V-E Day with their houses of worship open all day for prayer and meditation and also with gatherings for prayer. Some churches will have more than one service during the day, if the announcement comes in the evening, services will be held on the following day. Each church is making its own announcements, and the ministers will be glad to give information to any who inquire.

RANDOLPH S. MERRILL, President.

Business Men To Hold Benefit Dance

Newton Center business men are sponsoring a dance at Totem Pole Ballroom, Thursday, May 10, to benefit the family of a Newton military substitute police officer who died recently.

Being a substitute officer, his family cannot receive any benefits from the usual police fund.

'Aeroquiz' Helicopter Over Newton This Friday

The "Aeroquiz" Show given by Newtonville Group, Boy Scouts of America, will be presented at Newton High School Auditorium, Friday evening at 8 p.m., May 4. The school gymnasium also will be the scene of a colorful display of professional airplane models, posters, maps and charts, lent by the commercial airlines and by several private collectors.

This Friday, the day of the show, a helicopter is scheduled to fly over Newtonville between the hours of 11:30 a.m. and 1:00 p.m. to symbolize the show which features Aviation Week in Greater Boston.

Celebrate Golden Wedding

On Friday evening, April 27, Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Severson of 142 Islington road, Auburndale, were at home to their friends and relatives on the occasion of the celebration of their golden wedding.

The party was given at the home of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert N. McGill, and over a hundred guests participated in a most enjoyable evening. During the course of the evening a huge bouquet was presented to the bride and groom of fifty years by Mr. Herbert N. McGill—consisting of yellow carnations and yellow snapdragons made in the form of a bride's bouquet with small yellow ribbons hanging from it.

After a most enjoyable collation the party was concluded with delightful piano solos and songs by Mr. William P. Helms, with the crowd later joining in a grand finale of "Should Auld Acquaintance be Forgotten."

All of Mr. and Mrs. Severson's immediate family were present including Mr. and Mrs. Martin Severson, of Wellesley Hills, Mrs. Ira Dean and two daughters, Jacqueline and Lorraine, of Wellesley, as well as Mrs. Herbert N. McGill and her son, Herbert N., Jr., and daughter, Marilyn.

Hospital Aid Coffee and Gift Shop Popular at Newton Hospital

by Irene Neal Railsback For the past twenty months volunteer members of the Newton Hospital Aid Association, in their own Coffee and Gift shop, have been serving salads, sandwiches, and all kinds of ice cream desserts to doctors, nurses, internes, relatives of patients and the staff of the hospital. Here fifteen volunteers a day, on four hour shifts from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m., jerk sodas and serve the attractive "special", a real meal in itself, and other delightful dishes prepared in the conveniently equipped and ably staffed kitchen which is just back of the fountain room. Mrs. Theron B. Walker, of Newton Highlands, president of the aid association, stresses the fact that though contribution has not been needed additional volunteers are always welcome.

Located in five rooms of the old operating building near Founders, and reached through corridors from the first floor of the main hospital building, the Coffee Shop is a gay place, attractively decorated and furnished. The volunteer waitresses, or floaters, and fountain workers, dressed in cotton dresses, light colored or white, wear regulation aprons of white with blue trim jauntily tied behind. These volunteers vie with each other only in efficiency and smiling service. The fact of the matter is that no matter how strenuous (Continued on Page 4)

Red Cross Stresses Need For Additional Blood Donors

Notwithstanding the response to Newton Red Cross call for blood donors, there are still open appointments during Newton week, April 30 through May 5, at the Blood Center, when Newton men and women may contribute their blood to be sent overseas in the form of plasma.

Major General Paul R. Hawley, chief surgeon of the European Theatre of Operations, makes the staggering statement that a blood transfusion is needed for every two wounded men. Flown, shipped, carried by natives, dropped by parachute, blood plasma carries an A-AA-1 priority right up to the front lines. It is the foremost lifesaver of the war and its use is largely responsible for the fact that ninety-seven out of the every one hundred of our wounded men are being saved.

RATION BOARD BULLETIN

TIRES—Tires carry more freight and passenger traffic today than ever before in history. Passenger car tires carry four out of five workers to their jobs. Local buses carry five passengers out of seven formerly they carried three.

During 1944, OPA rationed more than 17,000,000 new passenger car tires. But for the month of January 1945 the quota had to be reduced 200,000 under the quota for December 1944. There is a large backlog of civilian truck tire applications which have been approved but for which no purchase certificates could be issued because there are not enough rationed tires for all who need them.

The Government asks all car owners to drive carefully, to keep tires properly inflated, to join car pools and to recap worn tires. General Eisenhower has said, "The war will be needlessly extended unless we extract every possible mile from our tires."

The public is much concerned about the tire situation. Reports indicate that regardless of the possibility that A and B gas rations will be increased after V-E day, there will be little or no change in the civilian supply of tires for many months. Any slack in military demand will have to go to make up a serious bus and truck tire deficit in order to keep public transportation systems rolling.

GASOLINE—Effective May 1st an amendment to the gas regulations will make extensive revisions in the rules for preferred mileage allowances.

The provisions covering preferred mileage will be tightened and clarified and a new classification of semi-preferred mileage will be added.

The amendment will accomplish two purposes:

1. It will reduce total issuance by removing from the preferred group certain applicants whose use of gasoline is not sufficiently essential to merit preferred treatment.
2. It will bring together in the semi-preferred group some formerly preferred users and some non-preferred users whose activities should be treated substantially alike.

The new provisions will also help solve the problem of the technician who renders necessary services to essential establishments but whose work is in part of a "promotional" nature.

Such applicants are eligible under certain circumstances, for semi-preferred mileage.

SUGAR—Allotments of sugar for canning this year will be less than in 1944 because:

1. Military needs are high. Each soldier actually consumes twice as much sugar a year as the average civilian now receives.
2. Ships which otherwise might be bringing sugar into the United States are hauling supplies to the battle front.
3. Manpower is scarce at sugar refineries and shipping ports.
4. Beet sugar production last year was 500,000 tons short, making the stock of sugar smaller for this year.
5. Last year many people over-applied for canning sugar. So much sugar was used that stocks at the beginning of the year were abnormally low.

Applications for canning sugar may be left at or mailed to the Ration Board Office. Under no circumstances will coupons be delivered to applicant over the counter, but will be mailed to the applicant's home address. In 1944 each person was allowed 20 pounds for canning plus 5 pounds on coupon No. 40.

It is predicted that this year sugar allowed for canning purposes will be substantially less than in 1944, and a limit will be set on the amount allowed per family unit.

Politics With Color

by P. W. C.

(The opinions expressed in this column are the writer's own, and do not necessarily reflect the opinions or policy of this newspaper—Editor's Note).

San Francisco Conference

It is most unfortunate that the grand climax of the war in Europe coincides with the conference of the United Nations in San Francisco. Presumably, when the date for this vital meeting was set, it was anticipated that V-E day would be some distance ahead. Now we have a bad situation confronting the delegates. Their minds are anywhere but in Frisco. Furthermore, it is obvious that diplomats like Eden and Molotov will be unable to stay in this country for an indefinite period. They will be needed at home. What effect will their departure have on the conference? I assume that it will be small. The war will be won, the weightier problems have been settled prior to their departure, it will not matter so much, even though the prestige of the conference will suffer.

Speaking frankly, it seems to me that one of the disturbing features of the meeting to date has been the apparent division among the delegates on the basis of the Russian position on important fundamentals. I may be wrong, but my feeling is that some of these controversial matters are going to be settled, NOT on the basis of the merits of the question but on the basis of the attitude of the delegates toward the Soviet Union. That would be exceedingly unfortunate, even though quite understandable.

Now, if we are to understand the current situation, we must remember that it is not so many years since many of us were prone to eye with the Russians and all that its government appeared to stand for. We did not like their attitude toward religion; neither did we care for their theories on government or economics. Way down deep, we still do not see eye to eye with the Russians. Furthermore, it is not so many years ago that Russia was unable to secure recognition for her self among many important nations, including the United States. Perhaps we have forgotten all this; Russia has not. Accordingly, she is now cashing in on her obvious rights as a leading partner in World War 2. Without her assistance, it is hard to judge how long it would have been before Germany would have been crushed. Let us remember that, in common fairness to Stalin and Molotov.

Finally, it seems to me that the attitude of the average radio commentator and newspaper man when these experts expressed their keen regret that the delegates had rushed through recognition of Argentina, despite Molotov's earnest and repeated requests that the matter be delayed for further study. So far as this columnist is concerned, the government of Argentina, though reformed ON THE SURFACE, is not worthy to be accorded a seat at this time. It should be made to prove itself over a reasonable period of time. Anybody can give lip-service, especially under pressure. Deeds, not words, are what count.

Our New Councilor

The late Governor's Councilor, Frank A. Brooks of West Concord has been succeeded by Rep. Carl A. Sheridan of Framingham, an influential member of the lower branch of our Legislature. Sheridan has been House Chairman of the important Committee on Election Laws, where our own Newton Corner Representative, George E. Rawson, serves as Clerk. Adhering to Frank A. Brooks will be assured by Rep. Rawson that the Legislature made a wise choice.

It was indeed unfortunate that, in the mad scramble of certain politicians to gain the honor of succeeding Councilor Brooks, one of them should have so far forgotten ethics and good taste that he solicited the support of each and every member of the Legislature on the night of the very day that killed the gentleman's chance. He is a fine man and a gentleman. I cannot understand why he did it.

The Legislature

The gossip on Beacon Hill is that this will be a long session of the Legislature. The bulk of the really important measures up for consideration and disposal are still pending. Consider a few figures which I have just drawn off from the April 16 Bulletin of the Committee Work, an official document. The important Committee on Public Health, (Rep. Leslie B. Cutler of Needham, Clerk) has a tremendously heavy schedule — 92 bills — and has so far disposed of only 44. That is a bit less than one-half, but the Legislature has been in session four full months. Among the vital bills not yet reported out of committee is a petition of former State Senator Laurence Curtis of Boston for legislation to control and prevent pollution of the waterways of the Commonwealth by the establishment of the water pollution commission. This directly affects residents of Newton, inasmuch as the Charles River runs through Newton and there has been considerable pollution of this river for a good many years.

Next week I shall discuss briefly the situation in the Committees on Education and Election Laws. Rep. Margaret Spear of Newton (Clerk of the former committee, which has had 58 bills to consider and has disposed of 24 to date, Rep. Rawson of Newton is Clerk of Election Laws, which has had the staggering total of 95 bills before it and has so far disposed of 58. A little addition will show you that these three committees have had 245 bills before them. Of this figure, 126 have been taken care of and 119 are still pending. No wonder the experts look for a long session.

TEEN-AGE

and LEE TYLER

The Newton Student Canteen has recently appointed an Entertainment Committee which consists of three boys and three girls. The duty of the new committee is to furnish entertainment to Canteen members every Friday night. This coming Friday night they will hold a Spot Dance, with unknown prizes to the lucky winners . . . "Scottie" Donnelly and Joe Vespa have informed us that they have their hair waved at Beautyland . . . The recent Nation-wide Clothing Drive proves that Newton High students will always come through in a pinch. The drive which lasted only four days proved to be one of the most successful drives held at N.H.S. in recent years . . . More than 700 students attended N.H.S. gay and colorful Senior Prom . . . Newton High pupils were among the first to see the Zimbar Quartet of the Boston Symphony Orchestra at a High School assembly, last Friday . . . Nicky Buonato, Newton's ace pitcher is really going to town as he is credited with both of N.H.S. victories . . . The Newton Rotary Club has contributed the sum of $80 for books for the High School Library . . . Lieutenant Betty Wright, former N.H.S. graduate, is home on leave after three years on active duty in the China, Burma, India front . . . The help situation in the N.H.S. cafeteria has become so acute that volunteer students are now working on the serving counters with the faculty . . . The 15 Up Club has beaten the best teams in Brookline, Brighton and Dorchester they now want a game with the best team in Newton . . . Communicate with Justin Mamis, LAs. 5666 . . . Well, the weekend of April 27 was certainly fast and furious with all the proms going around town, not only Newton High but private schools and colleges too. We even know of one Newton girl who was lucky enough to be asked to the Andover Prom Friday night and the Newton Senior Prom Saturday night. (What did you do Sunday, Barbry Henderson, sleep all day?) This being prom weekend also brought the usual accidents on slippery dance floors. More than one new evening dress torn as a result of graceful(?) falls . . . After the by the Seniors and Uppers (Juniors) that she had been selected their Andover Prom Friday night Miss Carol Reed of N.H.S. was notified "Lauren Bacall of 1945-1946." Hollywood, take notice . . . Saw the three makers of last year's senior class (N.H.S.), Hattie Abbott, Jim Crafts, and Thurgood Ricker together on a recent Friday evening. They looked a little exhausted from their adventures in Boston, whatever they had been doing . . . Monday, April 30, was a sad day when report cards were handed out. Some pupils, though, had happy surprises . . . If you ever witnessed a meeting between the Youth Committee and Adult Advisers of the Canteen your head would be spinning. How many different problems could arise surprised us . . . How long it takes them to reach a decision! The main problems brought up at the meeting were how to raise more funds and how to limit guests. I never did find out their final decisions on these subjects for after hearing them deliberate for two and a half hours, I felt rather sleepy! I shouldn't say that, but my parents told me always to tell the truth, so I see you next week! Having a tea, a bridge party? drop us a line if you want publicity about it . . .

Newtonville Sgt.'s Unit Given Citation

A NINTH AIR FORCE P-47 THUNDERBOLT BASE, France (special to the Newton Graphic)—Master Sergeant Charles C. Duff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alan D. Duff, of Lowell avenue, Newtonville, Mass., is now entitled to wear the coveted Presidential Unit Citation, a blue, gold-framed ribbon over his right chest.

The citation was recently awarded the crack 382nd Fighter Group known as "The Maulers" and commanded by Colonel Joseph L. "Uncle Joe" Laughlin of Omaha, Neb. The sergeant is serving his 18th month overseas and is in charge of vital communications of this Ninth Air Force P-47 Thunderbolt fighter-bomber group. He was recently decorated with the Bronze Star medal by Major General O. P. Wayland, commanding the 19th Tactical Air Command, for maintaining communications open under enemy shell fire during the Normandy campaign.

He has seen service in the Pacific theater.

All members of "The Maulers" wear Presidential Unit Citation ribbons for action last August 25th when Col. Laughlin led his group in dive-bombing German naval forces in Brest. The group intended anti-aircraft fire from the ships and coastal batteries. The Thunderbolts sank a cruiser, damaged another and left 12 merchant vessels aflame.

In one year of combat, ending last February 8, "The Maulers" destroyed and damaged 202 German aircraft, 7,732 trucks, 483 tanks and armored cars and 2,309 railroad cars. In one day alone, January 22, the group sighted German columns retreating from the Ardennes salient, destroying and damaging trucks, half-trucks, 10 tanks, and 65 light and heavy field guns.

Currently spearheading American armored drives beyond the Rhine, "The Maulers" are dive-bombing and strafing railroads, troops concentrations and engaging the Luftwaffe.

Capt. Stevens Speaks to Newton State Guard

Third Company, 23d Infantry, Mass. State Guard of Newton, was honored on Monday evening, April 30 by the presence of Capt. George Stevens, Corps of Engineers, U. S. Army, and brother of the company's first sergeant, who gave a very interesting talk on his experiences in connection with salvage operations in the Amphibious group to which he is connected and praised the company on its fine appearance and training.

Also present during the evening were Sgt. Sullivan, U. S. Army Paratrooper, recently returned home on leave after twenty-four months of overseas duty and Pfc. Bill Arduino, USMC, home on leave and expects probable overseas assignment upon return to his station. Both these men are former members of 3d Company.

Capt. J. Edward Hays, recently appointed commanding officer of the company, is very enthusiastic over the splendid showing the company is making and has worked out a very fine training program for the company.

Capt. Hays is very anxious to bring the company up to full strength and would be pleased to interview any men between the ages of 17 and 51 on any Monday evening during the regular drill period of the company.

Women's Society To Hear Airline Stewardess Supervisor

Miss Lillian R. Fletcher, supervisor of stewardesses for Northeast Airlines will be guest speaker at a meeting of the Women's Society of the Newton Methodist church on Tuesday evening, May 8, at 8:00 p.m.

Few women are better qualified to discuss air travel and passenger service than Miss Fletcher who has flown more than a half a million miles around the country.

A graduate of both the National Park Seminary in Washington and the Massachusetts General Hospital in Boston, Miss Fletcher has been active in aviation for the past five and a half years. She was a stewardess for one of the country's leading airlines before taking over her present duties with Northeast Airlines early in 1943.

As an ardent aviation enthusiast ever since her first flight, she enjoys nothing better than to encourage air-mindedness among New Englanders. In her current talks, she not only discusses her many first hand experiences in air travel, but also gives her views on England's promising air future. Her topic will be "An Airline Looks at Human Nature."

Newton Traffic Head Kiwanis Club Speaker

Stressing the fact that speeding and carelessness are the two major causes of motor vehicle accidents, Sergeant William Dowling, head of the Newton Traffic Bureau, told members of the Newton Kiwanis Club, at the Y. M. C. A., last Wednesday that "SAFETY IN THE HIGHWAYS" has been the theme and the watchword of the Traffic Bureau since it was established in 1938.

A veteran of 25 years on the police motorcycle squad, Dowling asserted that accidents don't just happen. "There's always a reason," he said, and during the past 8 years, the Traffic Bureau's efforts in discovering the cause and cure, has resulted in Newton's winning the state safety award three times in 1941, '42 and '44.

In 1940, bicycle riding increased, the majority of riders were juveniles, and, according to Sergeant Dowling, it was then decided that all bicycles be registered, so that riders could be identified in case of accident and the vehicles, also, in case of theft.

Of an estimated 10,000 bicycles, 8,500 have been registered at the offices of the Traffic Bureau in Police Headquarters, he added.

In conclusion, the speaker answered questions concerning the motor vehicle laws and explained that consideration is given every report of a traffic violation before the case is taken to court by the Bureau. Adding that Judge Mayberry and James Gallagher, clerk of court, have done much in making Newton the safest city in Massachusetts.

Dr. F. H. Paul Jr. was presented the Kiwanis Pin for 19 years of perfect attendance. Dr. E. A. Marcoux reported on Kiwanis Pops Night which will be held at Symphony Hall, Clarence Hutchings was reported ailing at the Newton Hospital and Arthur Kelly, ill at home, $2,790 lbs. of clothing has been shipped on its way to Europe's needy. 599 Kiwanians helped send it on its way. The Board of Directors will meet at the Newton Savings Bank next Wednesday night. Major Stow of the Army Intelligence, will address next week's meeting. Guests at the meeting were Carl Meesberger and Richard Touhey.

Comm. Club-

Miss Aldrich presented a check to Mrs. Black for $25.00 to go towards the work the Community Club, War Services Division, has done in equipping a room at the Chelsea Naval Hospital.

At the luncheon which followed the meeting, Miss Ball brought greetings from the Newton Federation of Women's Clubs, following which a program entitled "Tapestries" was presented by Marjorie Shepherd, narrator and monologist; Rhode Joann, pianist and composer, and Mary Nevery, dramatic soprano.

This program proved a worthy sequel to the many diversified presentations that the club has enjoyed this year through the efforts of the program committee with Mrs. Kenneth Backman and Mrs. Thompson Stone as co-chairmen and Mrs. Burdette P. Mansfield who is also to be the program chairman for next year.

The newly elected officers for 1945-46 are: Mrs. David Black, president; Mrs. Richard H. Smith, first vice-president; Mrs. Edgar M. Home, second vice-president; Mrs. Fred T. Field, third vice-president; Mrs. Fletcher B. Coffin, recording secretary; Mrs. George A. Sienkiewicz, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Harold E. Wilson, treasurer; Mrs. William W. Burnett, auditor; Mrs. Kenneth B. Backman and Miss Miriam Drury, directors until 1946; Mrs. Maurice W. Dennison and Mrs. George R. Standberg, directors until 1947; Harold L. Higgins, directors until 1948; nominating committee, Mrs. Leonard H. Abbott, chairman; Miss Margaret S. Ball, Mrs. Leo E. Davidson, Mrs. Beverly G. Secord and Mrs. George R. Standberg.

Newton Junior Community Club

The annual dinner and election of officers of the Newton Junior Community Club will again take place in the Green Room of the Hotel Puritan, Boston, on Monday, May 7.

Guests at the meeting will be Miss Adelaide B. Ball, President of the Newton Federation of Women's Clubs; Mrs. David Black, President of the Newton Community Club; and Mrs. John L. MacNeil, founder of the Junior Club which is sponsored by the Community Club.

The officers for the 1944-45 season whose term ends with the meeting are: Ruth W. Aldrich, President; Jane Mansfield, Vice-President; Mrs. Raymond Garon, Recording Secretary; Lydia H. Mattis, Corresponding Secretary; and Mrs. Gertrude H. Hanney, Treasurer. The Advisory Committee consists of Mrs. Herbert B. Dwight, Chairman; Mrs. Arthur H. Lord, and Mrs. George A. Sampson.

Miss Alice N. Andersen, Mrs. Myron P. Brown and Mrs. Marjorie S. Bassett will present the slate of officers to be voted upon for the ensuing year.

Frank A. Day
Junior High SchoolThe pupils of the Frank A. Day Junior High School saw a movie on modern China and her years of struggle during the assembly period last Wednesday. Virginia Toppin was general chairman and Dominic Ruggeri and James Piselli, both of Grade Eight, were on lights and machine. Before the movie Louis McMurrer of Grade 7 played a piano solo, Gypsy Rondo, by Haydn. One of our girls, Jacqueline Russo also of Grade 7, had received an authentic Hawaiian costume from one of her relatives now in the Pacific. Jacqueline showed us how the graceful Hawaiian dancing is done.

Outdoor activities have been somewhat held up by the recent spell of not good weather. The regular baseball season opens next week with Day playing Warren at Cabot Park on May 10.

Various items of school news include the finished work of the V-E Day committee under the chairmanship of Kenneth McKusick. The group is waiting only the fateful hour when they will run our convened assembly. James Coletti and Gerard Terenzio, Navy and Army respectively, dropped in the other day. Both were on furlough after having seen plenty of action at opposite ends of the earth. A number of our boys have been taking tests recently for application to the Newton Trade School. Our Minute Man flag for buying of bonds and stamps 100% has added another star for our buying. We now have twenty-five. Some girls are going to get a little tennis instruction soon. It does seem, however, that tennis and golf have received terrific setbacks in this country owing to wartime restrictions.

street, Newtonville, and make up a splendid exhibit. The famous Boston cartoonist, Dahl, will judge the best two posters, for which prizes will be awarded to the winning boys.

The stage performance by the Cub Scouts, which will be a part of the "Aeroquiz" Show, will feature the Cub Pack No. 3 orchestra under direction of Alvin Parker. A new feature has just been announced, the "Scout Troop 16 Boys' Chorus," consisting of twenty boys, whose singing made such a hit at the Troop 16 show given last autumn at St. John's Church Parish Hall.

A great deal of interest is being taken in the unusual show and exhibit by Scouts, parents and aviation enthusiasts from all over Greater Boston. Mayor Paul M. Goddard of Newton will open the show at 8:00 o'clock with an appropriate to Aviation Week, and Scouting's participation in this fast growing development.

sent out to interested parents and friends. Mr. Helms, chairman of housing, reported the co-operation and interest of the Newton School Committee in the matter of providing adequate space in school buildings for the work of the Music School.

Many interesting reports were given which showed the year of 1944 to have been outstanding in every way. A total of 409 individuals received music instruction, while during the year, there was an attendance of over 12000 in the various activities—individual lessons, theory classes, orchestras, ensemble training, musicianship class, recitals, and concerts.

Announcement was made of several interesting events coming before the close of the Music School in June, the most important being the Annual Faculty Concert on Friday, May 4, the Student Recital on Monday, June 4, both to be held at the Newtonville Woman's Club at 8 o'clock, and the Annual Spring Concert on Wednesday, May 23, at the Newton High School at 7:45 p.m. It was emphasized that these musicals would be free and open to the general public as usual, and a cordial invitation was extended to all to attend.

Those present at the meeting included Mrs. George V. Abbott, Mrs. Ernest Cobb, Miss Mabel Eager, Mrs. Ray A. Eusden, Mrs. George H. Fernald, Mrs. William L. Garrison, Jr., Mrs. A. Philip Guiles, Mrs. Ernest A. Hale, Mrs. B. Alden Thresher, Ernest G. Angevine, John C. Jones, Jr., William P. Helms, Quincy W. Wales, all of the board; the Misses Marion Chidsey, Irene Forte, Lillian West, Mrs. Wm. C. Worth of the staff, and Miss Elizabeth Effe, Founder and Director Emerita.

Plasma—

"Complete surrender by Germany is imminent," says Mrs. C. Terry Collins, chairman, Newton Red Cross Blood Donor Service, "but the need for blood plasma has not lessened. Men who fall in battle just around the corner from Berlin need life-saving plasma just as much as those who fell when Germany seemed to be ahead."

Mrs. Collins continues: "The cost in casualties in the Pacific area is terrific, and soon fighting will be intensified, creating a greater demand for plasma than ever. Mount Suribachi on Iwo Jima is now being called Mount Plasma because so much plasma was used there by the Marines. Official figures have not been released as yet as to the actual amount of whole blood and plasma used on Iwo and Okinawa, but perhaps some guess can be made as to the amount required when we recall that on Tarawa, where casualties were much less, it was said that six thousand units of plasma went ashore and four thousand came back in the veins of wounded Marines. Can we afford NOT to give our blood now?"

There will be Motor Corps trips to and from the Boston Collection Center every day during Newton Week at 9 and 11:30 in the morning—and groups will be transported at an time during the day. Make your appointment now by LAsell 6000.

Companions of

Hold Class Initiation

Echo Circle 961, Companions of the Foresters of America, were hostesses to a class initiation of new candidates of five circles of the Order, at Odd Fellows Hall, Newton Highlands on Sunday, April 29, at 2:30 p.m.

Chief Companion Louise Hoyt of Echo Circle 961 welcomed the guests and presented the scroll of 8 candidates for her lodge, Mrs. Eleanor Bohan, Mrs. Edna F. Mills, Mrs. C. H. Thompson, Mrs. Irene Ravinsky, Miss Irene M. Lavin, Miss Edna T. Hoyt, Mrs. Dorothy A. Waugh and Mrs. Florence L. Osborn.

Chief Companion Mary Garafalo of Columbia Circle 1382, Newton, presented a scroll of 26 candidates. Chief Companion Adelaide Murphy of Regis Circle 1655, presented a scroll of 14 candidates.

The scrolls were presented to Grand Chief Companion Miss Rose LaMontagne, of Lawrence, who led the impressive grand officers' march.

The Grand Financial Secretary Evelyn Sawyer of Dorchester, gave an Historical Sketch of the organization which was founded in California in June 1885.

Companion Lucille Brady of Regis Circle 1655 of Watertown, soloist, accompanied by Companion Christine Schmitt of Columbia Circle 1382, Newton, sang "We Love You Truly" and "Boy of Mine."

Grand outer guard Helen Gentile, chairman of the program, assisted by a committee of 3 members of each circle participating, served refreshments during a social hour.

Newton Lions Club

Theodore O. Brewster, Traffic Representative of the American Airlines was the guest speaker at the Newton Lions Club, speaking on Air Transportation, its Present and Future.

Mr. Brewster, until quite recently was a Major in the U.S.M.C. and while on active duty saw service in the Pacific Area.

The present picture as far as Commercial Aviation is concerned, said Mr. Brewster, is pretty much concentrated on serving the Armed Forces and in the prosecution of the entire War Effort although there is limited space available for commercial traveling on all the major internal routes, such as the Boston to New York hop which is becoming increasingly popular.

Continuing, he mentioned that tremendously valuable information and experiences which would be valuable in commercial transatlantic flights being made daily in A. A. planes by A. A. personnel which will be translated into efficient peace time schedules from Boston, New York and Chicago to London, Paris and other European cities. Yes, he said, Boston is definitely on the Aviation Route of tomorrow.

Speaking of the future planes, Mr. Brewster asserted that as a starter he could cite that his company would be using large 40 passenger ships instead of the present ones seating 21 on the Boston-New York hop. This change will be put into effect almost immediately after the war is won. Other even larger planes will be in use in a comparatively short time and with these flying queens will come very much lower rates and even faster service.

When asked how much the fare to London would be, Mr. Brewster replied about $235.00, but as a much more realistic answer to the present low cost of flying, he mentioned that the cost to New York is now only $9.25 for the 75 minute hop. This, he said, showed how inexpensive air travel in the future is going to be. With New York only 75 minutes away, they're really a suburb of Newton.

King Lion Dick Fennelly presided and in the course of his remarks thanked the many Lions who had been helping with the United Clothing Drive in addition to their many other activities.

War Fund—

organization in the Newton villages," stated Mr. Hoyt, "and it is with much gratification that I announce tonight the complete enrollment of this entire group."

Chairman Hoyt pointed out that the campaign will start five weeks earlier than a year ago, so as to complete the entire work of solicitation before the E-Bond Drive of the 8th War Loan which will start about October 15th. He stated that, due to the fact that worker meetings will have to be planned for early September, enrollment of Captains and workers will have to be completed before the summer vacation period sets in. Inasmuch as the organization through Majors, now completed, is three months ahead of a year ago, the balance of the organization can meet the early schedule if the Majors would follow the lead of the Chairmen in getting their Captains appointed immediately and seeing that the Captains follow promptly in enrolling the volunteer workers.

Frederick H. Knight, Newton Chairman of the Publicity Committee, announced the new theme for the coming campaign, "Now is the Time—GIVE." He announced that with this theme many slogans can be developed and complemented Mr. Hoyt's suggestion of early enrollment by stating that the theme "Now is the Time" applies also to worker enrollment because without a full complement of workers, solicitation can not successfully take place.

Thomas E. Shirley, President of the Newton Community Chest, expressed great confidence in the success of the coming campaign and complimented Chairman Hoyt on the caliber of his splendid organization and for the speed with which he has built it.

"Never on May 1st," stated Mr. Shirley, "have we had our full enrollment of top leaders in the Residential Division and never at any time of the year have we had such a high percentage of leaders attending the first organization meeting."

In addition to Messrs. Shirley, President and 1945 Campaign Chairman; Damon, 1946 Campaign Chairman; and Knight, Publicity Chairman; other guests to meet with the Residential leaders were Charles B. Floyd, 1944 Campaign Chairman and now Chairman of the Metropolitan Division of the Greater Boston United War Fund which includes 53 cities and towns in the metropolitan area; Miss Adelaide B. Ball, Chairman of the Educational Division; and Neil Leonard, 1943 Campaign Chairman.

In addition to the Village Chairmen, there were present the following: Auburndale, Majors Ralph G. Hillman, Mrs. Richard L. Kenney, Fred J. Cartier, Harry Thompson; Newton, Assistant Chairmen Howard L. Rich, H. K. Dean, Clarence B. Mease; Majors J. Vincent Morrison, Robert P. Waller, Ralph S. Angier, H. M. Hallett, George R. Keep the Home Fires Burning . . .

There was sound advice in that song of World War One 27 years ago—it's just as sound today.

The home-front defense fires must burn brightly "Til the boys come home"—industrial forge fires and fires of American unity and will to win. Our men are in there slugging. We're backing them everlastingly here at home, each in his own way, with war-work, war-bonds and war-conservation of commodities and materials.

Hospital Aid—

ous their shift may be, no matter how busy the rush hours, each one has a good time doing her particular job. And this feeling is apparent to all who enter the shop. Mr. Gerard Hartman, administrator of the hospital, said recently: "The Coffee Shop, in its 18 and more months of existence, has been a boon to the hospital and its genial atmosphere and splendid service has proved one of the best of morale builders."

Sitting on cream colored chairs at neatly set tables, or on cream cushioned stools at the red-topped counter, one may see any day except Sunday, beside members of the hospital staff, nurses' aides, gray ladies, and Red Cross workers of other groups in their familiar uniforms. The nurses just entering training school, wearing street suits or sweaters, some with bobby socks and saddle shoes, seem very young to some of the mothers and grandmothers who serve them.

Here they may have a late breakfast, lunch or dinner or just a snack or soda. If the shop is not too crowded they may even sit and chat with friends over a mere coke or cigarette. Here may be seen an expectant father who has possibly spent some time in the bright cheerful room which the Aid Association established some months ago on the fifth floor of the hospital for the obstetrical department. His worries disappear as he is served hot food or cooling drinks at a table or across the fountain. His return to the "waiting room" is in a more confident frame of mind. Worried relatives, waiting word of results of an operation on a member of the family, seem more light hearted as they leave the shop, better able to cope with anxious moments.

The Aid Association gives full credit for the birth of the Coffee Shop to Mrs. Walter L. McGill of Newton Centre, who at the time was secretary of the association. To her fell the task of making a study of coffee shops in general and of the Salem hospital shop in particular. Through her study efforts the Salem shop became the parent of the Newton shop, and because of the Salem shop's success our hospital association was willing to undertake the project. It was begun at a most opportune time as the purchase of needed equipment for the fountain and kitchen would have been out of the question even a few months later.

Members of the Coffee Shop executive committee, with Mrs. McGill as general chairman, are Mrs. Walker, ex-officio member, 1st vice chairman, and Mrs. Charles B. Floyd, of Auburndale as 2nd vice-chairman. Mrs. Floyd was president of the Aid at the time the association voted to undertake the project and it was during her administration that most of the preliminary plans were made. Miss Florence Marble, of Newton Highlands, is treasurer of the committee. Miss Maida Flanders, of Newton Centre, assistant treasurer; Mrs. Edward W. Pride, of West Newton, secretary. Mrs. Edward J. Sawyer, of Newton, is chairman of the Gift Shop run in conjunction with the Coffee Shop and her assistants are Mrs. G. W. Armstrong, of Auburndale, and Mrs. Francis F. Munroe, of Waban. Other members of the committee are Mrs. David P. Voelein, Wellesley; Mrs. Walter Marston, Chestnut Hill, and Mrs. Gordon Wilkes, of Newton Centre. Mrs. McGill reports on the Coffee Shop at each monthly meeting of the Aid Association and her constant enthusiasm has been a contributing feature of the shop's success.

Mrs. Joseph D. Hayes, of Newtonville, chairman of volunteers, is at the Coffee Shop each week-day and aside from staffing the shop she is of assistance in many ways. Each village has a chairman working under Mrs. Hayes. Monday is Newton Centre day and volunteers are from that village with Miss Marguerite Flanders as chairman; Tuesday, Newton Day, Miss Dorothy Simpson is chairman; Wednesday, West Newton and Auburndale, Mrs. Edward Pride, chairman; Thursday, Newtonville, Mrs. Carl G. Johnson, chairman; Friday, Wellesley, Mrs. David P. Voelein, chairman; Saturday, Newton Highlands and Waban, Mrs. Ralph Thompson, chairman. Students of Pine Manor, Wellesley, frequently serve on Saturdays.

Food manager is Mrs. Thomas M. Stevenson, of Needham, and her "specials" are most appetizing and attractive. She is assisted by Mrs. Charles F. Hooper, of Newtonville. Miss Mary Black, of Wellesley, is in charge of the evening service, assisted by Mrs. Harold C. Noden, of Watertown, and her sister, Mrs. C. A. Snow, of Newtonville. Supplies are of the best in fresh foods and there is always a stock of supplementary goods on hand. Two weeks' supply of fountain syrups, sauces, juices of all kinds, packaged cookies, nabs and candy. Home baked goods come to the shop each day and these are always popular. One of the favorites is a slice of chocolate frosted chocolate layer cake, topped with a small scoop of vanilla ice cream and a spoonful of chocolate fudge sauce. Other favorites among the desserts are chosen from six ice creams and sherberts. Newports, fruit ice cream sodas and frappes, hot apple pie with or without ice cream top the list.

The Gift Shop, charmaned by Mrs. Sawyer, is also staffed by volunteers. Here customers may buy something for the new baby, and other gifts of all types and prices: books, stationery, gift cards, wrappings, handkerchiefs, linens, jewelry, and leather articles.

All profit from the Coffee and Gift Shop go in to the association treasury and because of the Shop the association gifts to the hospital have increased in number and scope. The Benefit Shop, which Mrs. D. Brewer Eddy and Mrs. Ralph W. Conant of Newtonville are co-chairmen and Mrs. Francis H. Williams of Newton Centre, is manager, has been a source of steady income for many years. But the Coffee Shop, which is serving 30,000 customers a year and averages over 20,000 volunteer working hours has made possible the fulfillment of several cherished plans of the Aid for the hospital. The other ways by which the Aid finances its gifts to the hospital are by the annual desert bridge, which will be held this year on Tuesday, May 8th, in the nurses' home of the hospital; and dues from the more than 1400 annual members.

Newton Smith Club Treasure Sale

Plans are proceeding for the Treasure Sale which Newton Smith Club will hold on Wednesday afternoon, May 16, from 2 to 5 o'clock.

Mrs. Richard B. Cottell, president of the club, will open her spacious gardens at 87 Highland street, West Newton, for the occasion and in the event of rain the sale will be held indoors. The proceeds will benefit the club's scholarship fund which contributes substantially to the expenses of a freshman year at Smith College for some outstanding Newton girl.

All sorts of household "treasures" including furniture, silver, bric-a-brac, and china, new and second-hand, will be on sale. There will also be an attractive food table and an array of spring plants and seedlings. Children's apparel and toys will be featured. Afternoon tea will be served.

Mrs. Alfred H. Stafford of Dhwinda road, Waban, is general chairman.

Red Cross and Hospital Committee Has Active Month

Mrs. Edward J. Cannon, chairman, Camp and Hospital Committee for Newton Red Cross, announces that "Open House" at Cushing General Hospital on Saturday May 5th, will be sponsored by "The Scoops" of Second Congregational Church, West Newton.

Phyllis Johnson, chairman, Mrs. N. H. Wentworth, Vice-Chairman, Camp and Hospital Committee, is in charge of the entertainment and will accompany the group.

Mrs. Cannon states that fifty recreation chests are completed for shipment overseas. Contents include—one hundred and fifty tennis balls from Mr. Albert H. Stitt, Longwood Tennis Club; three dozen baseballs from the Boston Braves and one dozen from the Red Sox.

Thirty-eight hundred magazines were delivered to the Navy during the month of April through the Camp and Hospital Committee, and ten book cases have been sent to the Waves at the Hotel Lincolnshire.

Newton Centre Garden Club

On Monday morning, May 7th Mrs. Austin Benton of Monadnock road, Chestnut Hill, president of the Newton Centre Garden Club will preside at the regular monthly meeting. Coffee will be served at 10 a.m. by Mrs. Alden H. Speare and Mrs. Vincent P. Maloney, co-chairmen of the Hospitality Committee. At 10:30 Mrs. Chester Cook will talk on "Flower Arrangement". It will be a practical lesson with demonstration, and should be of definite interest to members and guests who do not as yet aspire to Horticultural Show entries.

Guests are always welcome. The usual guest fee helps to support the Garden Club Service at the Marine Hospital in Brighton for which the Newton Centre Garden Club supplies its share of flowers the year round.

Newton Women on Crosscup-Pishon Post Sale Committee

Four Newton matrons are among the leading committee chairmen on the executive board in charge of the 8th annual Crosscup-Pishon Post rummage sale, Legionnaire child-welfare project, to be held Tuesday, May 22, in Horticultural Hall, Boston.

They are Mrs. Levo F. Baldwin and Mrs. Louis M. Marks of Newton, Mrs. John H. Reddy of West Newton and Mrs. Arthur J. Fleming of Newton Highlands. Mrs. Thomas A. Fitzgerald of Park, Dorchester, is general chairman.

Originators of the annual "Bundles for Boston" campaign to collect donations of useable and repairable goods of all kinds for departmentalized display at "New England's biggest annual rummage sale," the women's committee of the advertising men's Legion post postponed their 1945 sale until May 22 to give fullest possible leeway to the United Nations clothing collection. Now, according to these Newtonites, friends of underprivileged little children in the homes of men in service and returned veterans are being urged to contribute not only clothing, furs, hats and furberies for people of all ages but household goods, kitchenware, costume jewelry, furniture, shoes, toys, games and bric-a-brac—anything useable or repairable. Proceeds of the May 22 sale in Horticultural Hall will be used to provide summer-camp vacations for service-connected children at the Salvation Army's Camp Wonderland, Sharon, next summer when city bricks are hottest in the more crowded urban areas.

YMCA Women's Auxiliary To Hold Luncheon

The Annual Luncheon Meeting of the Women's Auxiliary to the Newton YMCA, will be held on Wed., May 9, at 12:30 in the Y Auditorium. Mrs. Arnold Barker and her committee will be in charge of the Luncheon.

Mr. Clarence Mease, General Secretary of the YMCA, will speak on "Our Opportunities for Growth in the Community."

The Bigelow Junior High Boys Glee Club of 55 members, under the direction of Miss Julia Hubbard will sing.

Reservations may be made with Miss Marjorie Aldrich at the Y. All women interested in Y work are cordially invited.

Newton Girls on Wheelock College May Day Committee

Major Wentworth Tells of Conditions in Germany

The following interesting letter was written by Major Nathan H. Wentworth to his family. His wife and daughter reside at 88 Annawan road, Waban. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Wentworth, 221 Woodland road, Auburndale. Major Wentworth is serving with the Intelligence Division somewhere in Germany.

2 April '45

Dear Folks:
Yesterday was Easter but it was one of the strangest I have experienced. To begin with, I drove up to a city that had been captured the day before to check up on the death and final disposition of one of my best officers—a captain, and one of my bravest E.M.—a marine sgt. That business in itself wasn't the most pleasant job in the world for an Easter morning—I had laughed and joked with them both two days before and had remarked how well I expected they would do and how much I counted on the papers and personal effects he sent their families, each word came back like an echo from a tomb. As one of the gang put it, it just makes you want to keep on hitting harder. However, the going was in keeping with the grim business. As I drove along the road, strewn on both sides with the debris of battle, wrecked guns and tanks and trucks and wagons—dead horses, swollen in death, military and personal effects scattered about and blown in some cases, high into the shattered trees, in the worst convey destruction I have seen since the Rhine valley last September, I had cause to meditate—but not in the spirit of Easter. On through large cities—but shattered so they were hardly identifiable—resembling scenes of the Prisco earthquake—but everywhere.

Strangest of all, was the reaction of the people, ranging from cool but not sullen to actually gay and half-welcoming. Particularly in the bigger and more heavily bombed cities the people stood and gaped at the passing show of American power and scientific efficiency. During the hours when civilians are permitted on the streets one saw mainly women, children and old or crippled men. The women varied from half shyly coy to others who seemed a wee bit fearful of the personal life which they knew might befall them if we behaved as soldiers in the German warlike tradition were acknowledged to behave. Their fears, if any, have been ill-founded to date except in rare instances. Most of the women are not attractive nor appealing as in France and, in fact, many of the younger and prettier ones have been evacuated to save them from us (!) or to work in factories or to keep up German soldier morale. The children, like kids the world over, failed to grasp the significance of it all and called at the passing troops or smiled—though few waved because they had not been taught to do so as in France. The troops are behaving well and reasonably disinterestedly in accordance with the order for non-fraternization but it won't remain like that—American soldiers being the cordial extroverts that they are besides with children and women (to say nothing of myriads of non-German refugees who are not subject to non-fraternization)—what can you expect! The old men generally merely stand and stare—beaten down by the shocks and hardships of recent years. When asked a direction or information they jump forward and proffer it in a manner to be expected from men long accustomed to both discipline and fearful respect of the military or man in uniform—regardless of nationality.

Saddest perhaps are the old women, poking about in the ruins of the neighborhoods they once knew, seeking some shred of their former existence to which to tie their wavering sanity, or the children—I saw one blonde little thing about Linda's age—running after her companions with one little stump where a hand used to be—another hobbling out on a tiny crutch to peer in wonderment—no hatred—at the monster of war that had shattered in part their existence even as it was being born, and was now rolling on over and around them. Frequently, despite my self-imposed hardness toward my male opponents, I found a sinking feeling come over me as I saw these kids which could have as well have been my own and who, in another environment on another soil, could have been growing up in peace and cleanliness of heart just as some of their cousins are in fact today. I refused to think of the countless others who lay somewhere beneath the sodden wreckage of whole districts where no attempt had been made to more than clear a path through the streets after bombings of months ago or shelling of yesterdays. Then suddenly I would remember—it was on Easter that Mussolini struck defenseless Albania—it was on Sundays that Hitler, in his day of power, was wont to strike, and the parents of these children—oblivious of the day of atonement which is now upon them, applauded or rationalized, the sinking sensation of the heart would turn by stages to one of ice—self-imposed to be sure—but without which one cannot go on with the job which must be done. I looked up at the fleecy studied sky and thought of other days to come—it was better like that.

When my work was done I pushed on to another liberated spot which had once rung to our own laughter: mother's, Vin's, Ginn's and mine. This place had been spared in large measure and there was a look of relief on the faces of the many inhabitants who were emerging from their shelters and watching the 'endless stream of their conquerors. There was no laughter, however, with them or us. More work to do. Unfortunately, I had no time to climb the hill to the old castle or view the monstrous barrel which we had once found so impressive to our touristic eyes. Nor could I tip an elbow nor sing a ribald song (not that I recall having sung any in Mother's presence!) I hurried home for today we must move again—a step closer

Annual Communion Breakfast

The Guild of Saint Francis of Newton will hold its eleventh annual communion breakfast on Sunday, May 6, at the Sacred Heart School Hall, Newton Centre, immediately following the 8:30 mass at the Sacred Heart church. Mrs. John E. Ferguson, president, has appointed Mrs. Edwin B. Crowley, vice president, as general chairman and Mrs. John H. Lee will assist. The Very Rev. Eric F. MacKenzie, pastor of the Sacred Heart church, will be the speaker.

to the finish—and return home! Faintly, I could hear the ghostly singing of the Lorelei and oddly enough it was the strain of Lohengrin's "Soldier's Chorus"—homeward bound. The rumble and rattle of the pontoon bridge, erected like many others by perhaps the most amazing worker-fighters of the war, the engineers, drowned out the closing strains—or maybe I had merely fancied it (!) and we continued our trip back to base.

THE FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST
The subject of the lesson-sermon to be read in the Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston and in all of its branches, on Sunday, May 6, will be "Everlasting Punishment."
The golden text, "Have I any pleasure at all that the wicked should die? saith the Lord God: and not that he should return from his ways, and live?" is from Ezekiel 18:23. Other Bible citations include, "Knowest thou what this is, since man was placed upon earth, that the triumphing of the wicked is short, and the joy of the hypocrite but for a moment?" (Job 20:4, 5).
The lesson-sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "The way to escape the misery of sin is to cease sinning. There is no other way. . . . To the physical senses, the strict demands of Christian Science seem perplexing; but mortals are hastening to learn that Life is God, good, and that evil has in reality neither place nor power in the human or the divine economy" (p. 327).

Marriages

Howard - Cahill

A recent wedding which took place in the Church of Our Lady, Newton, was that of Miss Helen V. Cahill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Cahill of 7 Beacon street, Newton, who became the bride of Frederick Hoyt Howard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Howard of San Francisco, California. The ceremony was performed at a nuptial mass celebrated by the Rev. John H. Quinlan on Saturday, April 7. Miss Margaret Earls, of Newton, was the soloist at the ten o'clock service which was followed by a reception at the Hotel Sheraton, Boston.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of eggshell satin. Her fingertip length veil of nylon net fell from a tiara of seed pearls, and she carried a bouquet of gardenias. Miss Geraldine Cahill was maid of honor for her sister. She wore furciosa taffeta and her bouquet combined white stock and blue iris, which matched her headpiece. The bridesmaids were Miss Agnes N. Earls and Miss Dorothea Sullivan, both of Newton. Miss Geraldine Fitzgerald of Somerville and Mrs. John Connelley of Dedham. They wore gowns of white silk jersey and their matching headresses and bouquets were also of blue iris and white stock. Mrs. Cahill chose a gown of turquoise crepe with a corsage of carnations.

John White, U. S. N., of Allston was the best man for Mr. Howard and the ushers were Edward Geary of Dedham, Lt. Charles Edwards of Waltham, John Brennan of Brighton and John Quinn of Allston.
Mrs. Howard graduated from Our Lady's High School and Regis College. Mr. Howard graduated from the Worcester Trade School. Mr. and Mrs. Howard, who have returned from a wedding trip in New York, will make their home in Newton.

25th Wedding Anniversary

Among the guests were the bride attendants, James V. Kelly of Waltham who served as best man and Mrs. Agnes (Bryson) Nolan who was the bridesmaid. Other guests included Rev. John H. Quinlan of Our Lady's Church and Rev. Charles Bryson of the Church of the Most Precious Blood, Hyde Park.
Mr. and Mrs. Kelly have six children, Gertrude, Agnes, Margaret, Mary, Regina and Joseph Kelly, Jr. Patrolman Kelly has been a member of the Newton Police Department for 24 years and is at present stationed at Newton Corner.

Fisher - Dana

The marriage of Miss Mary Anne Dana, daughter of Comdr. George Hume Dana, U.S.N., and Mrs. Dana, to Ensign Clark Wadsworth Fisher, U.S.N.R., son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick George Fisher, of 22 Agawam road, Waban, took place April 7 in the Church of the Good Shepherd, Meadowbrook, Virginia. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. George Purnell Gunn.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Frank Johnstone Dana, of Columbia, S. C. She wore a wedding gown of white slipper satin fashioned with high neckline, deep round yoke of imported marquisette edged with crystal bead embroidery and long sleeves. The gathered skirt extended from a scalloped bodice and formed a sweeping train. Her full length veil of imported illusion fell from a Juliet cap or crystal beads, and she carried a cascade bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis.

Miss Nancy Hume Dana was maid of honor for her sister. She wore a gown of peach chiffon over taffeta, an arrangement of matching fresh flowers in her hair and carried a cascade bouquet of delphinium and pale pink gladioli flowers.

The bridesmaids, Misses Emily Magree Collins, Patricia Rudgard Wigg and Susan Coke Hogard, in gowns of aqua chiffon over taffeta, wore matching fresh flowers in their hair and carried cascade bouquets of gladioli flowers.

Miss Margaret Graves, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a gown of peach taffeta and carried an old-fashioned bouquet of delphinium and gladioli flowers.

Donald Fisher was his brother's best man and the ushers were Champe Fisher, also a brother of the bridegroom; Lieut. Roy Michaels, U.S.N.R.; Lieut. Warren Kratzer, U.S.N.R.; Lieut. Jig Paul Hen, U.S.N.R.; and Warren Gray, of Greensboro, N. C.
Mrs. Dana wore a gown of chartruse crepe and a corsage of gardenias, with a gardenia in her hair. Mrs. Fisher wore a white silk jersey print, with pink hat and a corsage of gardenias.

V-E Commemoration Services To Be Held By Sherman Products

Sherman Paper Products of Newton Upper Falls have announced that their plants and offices will remain open on V-E day and that special commemoration services will be held on that day. Every worker is being asked to pledge his continued support of the war against Japan by working on V-E day. Special pledge cards are being given to every worker.

A musical commemoration service will be held in the plant for all workers, to celebrate the ending of the European phase of the war, and to pledge continued loyalty to the great task of winning the Japanese war. The Service will be directed by local leaders in the Protestant and Catholic churches, and will include devotional and patriotic music.

In his letter to the workers, announcing the plan, Mr. Sherman, head of the organization, stated: "When materials of war are so badly needed for the tremendous task of winning the war against the Japanese, and when so many of our men in the services must still die before complete victory is won, we cannot justify taking time off to celebrate the passing of the half-way mark. Many of the 250 former Sherman co-workers, who are now in the services, are fighting on the Pacific on V-E day. We cannot do less than back them up by producing more materials for them on that day."

Lt. Col. Joseph E. Gill Promoted to Colonel

Lt. Col. Joseph E. Gill, son of Mrs. Elizabeth G. Gill of 51 Warwick road, West Newton, and deputy engineer in the Channel Base Section in England, has been promoted to the rank of colonel. Col. Gill attended Boston College for two years before entering West Point. Following his graduation from West Point he was commissioned in June 1942. After receiving a master's degree in science at the University of Michigan he was ordered to the Savannah Ordnance Depot in Georgia, where he was in charge of the construction of a bomb loading plant which served as model for similar installations throughout the country. In Dec. 1941 he was transferred to the Corps of Engineers. He served as assistant engineer for the Louisville, Ky. district; as district engineer at Cincinnati, Ohio and Miami, Fla.; and as engineer for the United States in the Caribbean, Central American and western parts of South America. His last assignment in the United States before going overseas in March 1944 was that of commanding officer of the 1315th Engineer General Service Regiment.

Newton Rotary Club

Newton Rotarians listened to a thrilling account of German Nazi brutality at their Friday noon meeting at Brae Burn Golf Club when Dr. Robert Goffin of Belgium spoke on the subject: "From the Blitzkrieg to the Underground." Dr. Goffin, a gifted speaker who draws on a vast fund of first-hand experiences, came to Newton Rotary through the courtesy of Albert E. Navez, Belgian Consul at Boston.

The speaker recited his travels in pre-war Germany during which he saw Naziism in the making. In Berlin in 1934, when he observed the indignities heaped upon Jews at the Anti-Jewish Museum; and in Munich in 1938, when he saw German children being indoctrinated with the Nazi principles of "Masters of the World."

When the Nazi blitz came to Belgium in May, 1940, it was disclosed that the pre-invasion Fifth Column activities in Belgium had been headed by a South American diplomat enjoying diplomatic immunity. This Fifth Columnist was sent to New York by Dr. Goffin, and denounced.

The speaker gave a graphic recital of the blitz invasion: airplanes, paratroopers, his flight as a refugee accompanied by his sick wife requiring an operation, always just a few miles ahead of the Nazi armies to Paris, to Bordeaux, and finally to United States. He concluded with the recital of horrifying Nazi brutality upon the Belgian civil population, including the execution of the Governor of Rotary, Camille Bague.

Dr. Goffin has recently published "The White Brigade," a story of the Belgian underground movement, and it has been published as a serial in the New York newspaper PM. His diversity of talent is evidenced by his latest book "The Congo to the Congo to the Congo," 100,000 copies of which have been issued by the U. S. Army troops as a morale builder.

The speakers closed with the sentiment that America has brought liberation to Belgium, and with a plea for Allied solidarity: "Solidarity is the Basis of Peace."

President Orville C. Clapper presided, and reported that the Newton UNRRA clothing drive had packed 47,725 pounds of clothing in 1002 cartons and bales, entailing 523 manhours of labor.

Archbishop Cushing To Speak to Jewish War Veterans
Archbishop Richard J. Cushing will be the principal speaker at the annual luncheon of the Auxiliary of the Newton Post, Jewish War Veterans, to be held Monday, May 14, in the Copley Plaza Hotel.

Mrs. Mary Hoffman, president, will conduct the meeting and Mrs. Harold A. Leventhal, general chairman of the arrangement committee, will introduce Archbishop Cushing. The invocation will be offered by Mrs. Cecil Brandt, chaplain.

CAPT. DANIEL J. HERLIHY
Funeral services for Capt. Daniel J. Herlihy of the Newton Fire Department were held Saturday morning from his home, 724 Watertown street, Newtonville. A solemn mass of requiem was celebrated in St. Bernard's Church by Rev. John J. Crane, S. T. L., pastor, assisted by Rev. John A. Saunders, deacon and Rev. Francis P. Sullivan, sub-deacon. Seated in the sanctuary were Rev. Daniel J. Taglino of the Church of Our Lady, Newton and Rev. Joseph Tobin, O. F. M., of the Franciscan Friary. A delegation of nuns of the Sisters of Charity from the Academy of the Assumption were present at the mass led by the Mother General.

A large detail of members of the Fire Department was led by Mayor Paul M. Goddard. Fire Chief John L. Keating and Deputy Chiefs John L. Corcoran and Francis J. Lincham, serving as pallbearers were Captains Fred Perkins and Thomas Eneegess of the Fire Department, Lts. John Marchant and Joseph Coakley and Firemen William Lavioie and Christopher Keating of Engine 4. Among others attending the services were Acting Chief Nicholas Veducchio of the Newton Police Department, Lt. Daniel E. Crowley, Sgts. Richard L. Bannon, Andrew E. Moran, William H. Dowling and Motorcycle Officer William L. Whelan; Herbert W. Boothby, retired deputy chief of the Fire Department and Lt. Edward Burke, retired; several Newton city officials and officials of neighboring fire departments.

Burial was in Calvary Cemetery, Waltham, with prayers by Fr. Sullivan.

Capt. Herlihy died on Wednesday, April 25, following a short illness. He was in his 60th year and had been a member of the Newton Fire Department for 37 years. He was appointed a substitute call man Feb. 2, 1908 and a permanent member October 1, 1910. He was promoted to lieutenant May 15, 1924, and became a captain Jan. 1, 1938. He had been attached to Engine 4, Newtonville.

He was a member of the Newton Firemen's Relief Association, the Newton Firemen's Welfare Association, the Massachusetts Permanent Firemen's Association, the Massachusetts State Firemen's Association and Newton Lodge of Elks.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Catherine (Lucy) Herlihy, a daughter, Mrs. Catherine T. Butler, and two sons, Sgts. Daniel J. Herlihy in the Army in the Pacific; Robert A. and Daniel Herlihy; two brothers, Michael J. and Edward F. Herlihy, and five sisters, Sister Catherine Gerard and Sister Marie Paula of the Sisters of Charity, Halifax, N. S.; Daniel J. Welch, Mrs. John Connelly and Mrs. Albert Smith; also by three grandchildren.

MRS. SANFORD E. THOMPSON
Mrs. Stella A. C. Thompson, 71, passed away peacefully last Friday morning, April 27, at her home, 1090 Walnut street, Newton Highlands.

Mrs. Thompson, a lifelong resident of Newton Highlands, was the wife of Col. Sanford E. Thompson, consulting engineer, president of Thompson & Lichtner Co., Inc. of Boston, and former expert consultant to the Secretary of War.

She was graduated from Boston University with the class of 1896. She served two terms as regent of Lydia Partridge Whiting Chapter, D. A. R., and had been president of the Woman's Association of the Newton Highlands Congregational Church.

Mrs. Thompson leaves her husband, a son, Col. Sanford E. Thompson, consulting engineer, president of Thompson & Lichtner Co., Inc. of Boston, and former expert consultant to the Secretary of War.

She was graduated from Boston University with the class of 1896. She served two terms as regent of Lydia Partridge Whiting Chapter, D. A. R., and had been president of the Woman's Association of the Newton Highlands Congregational Church.

Funeral services were held at her late home Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Rev. Ben Roberts of the Newton Highlands Congregational Church officiated. Burial was in the Newton Cemetery.

"Let us strive to finish the work we are in . . . to do all which may achieve and cherish a just and lasting peace among ourselves and all nations."--- Abraham Lincoln

EVERY WEEK somewhere in Newton groups of Girl Scouts gather about a nutritionist from the Newton Nutrition Center as she tells absorbing stories about food and how it serves the body.

"Gee," breathed one eager Scout as she heard the story of Vitamin D, "it sure is lucky for us we had this talk."

The Brownies in Newton Highlands fairly dance in anticipation to hear "Mrs. Calcium" as they dub their teacher, Mrs. Jean Eastman.

When the interest is so keen we know the girls are learning lessons they will remember. This year about 250 girls have participated in this cooperative program of the Newton Girl Scouts and the Newton Nutrition Center.

Pro-burial Mass For Pfc. Bontempo

A solemn pro-burial mass was celebrated in the Church of Our Lady, Newton on Thursday morning, May 5, for Pfc. Peter A. Bontempo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Bontempo of 26 Cook street, Newton who was killed in action in Italy on April 14.

The Rev. John Quinlan celebrated the mass assisted by Rev. Joseph Slattery, deacon and Rev. James Dickson, sub-deacon. Arrangements for the mass were made by the Newton Post, American Legion under the direction of Commander J. Edward Theriault. Also present at the mass was a representation from Newton Post, Italian-American War Veterans.

Pfc. Bontempo was 23 years of age. He entered the Army on November 29, 1942 and had been in Italy for eight months. He was recently awarded the Combat Infantryman's Badge.

Besides his parents he leaves three brothers, Pfc. Domenic, who is in Europe, Shipfitter 3-C Alexander in the South Pacific, and Pfc. Nicholas, Jr., and five sisters, Mrs. Theresa Wallace of South Boston, Lena, Jennie, Gloria and Joseph Bontempo, all of Newton.

Boudrot Elected President of City Employees Union

Clifford T. Boudrot was unanimously elected president of the Newton Local, City Employees Union, A. F. of L., at the annual meeting.

Other officers chosen for the coming year are as follows: Primo Olivigni, vice-president; Joseph A. Burke, treasurer; John Yerardi, recording secretary; Peter Marchant, sergeant-at-arms; John Nagle, Thomas Ryan and John Murphy, trustees.

The officers will be installed by John Ward, State president of the Civil Service Employees Union, A. F. of L., on Thursday, June 7.

The next collection will take place July 17.

The decision to omit the May and June collections was made because of the scarcity of help and the added burden of spraying trees and other foliage that the Forestry Division bears at this season of the year.

Rawson Appointed On Election Laws Chairman of Comm.

Speaker Willis of the House of Representatives has appointed Rep. George E. Rawson of Newton to be chairman of the Committee on Election Laws, succeeding Hon. Carl A. Sheridan of Framingham, who was recently elected to the Governor's Council.

Rep. Rawson has been serving as clerk of the committee in Election Laws since he entered the House in 1943.

Newton Community Club Sponsors Luncheon, Bridge

The Community Service Division of the Newton Community Club will sponsor a luncheon and bridge to be held Wednesday, May 16th, at the Home Craft Demonstration Shop, 711 Boylston street, Boston, the proceeds of which will be for the Philanthropic Fund. Luncheon will be served at 12:30 p.m. Tickets may be obtained from the chairman, Mrs. Samuel Nash, 250 Fuller street, West Newton, (Tel. Big 3906) or from Mrs. Ronald Jones, 103 Hunnewell avenue (Las. 5748). Guests should bring their own cards and talley and it is hoped many tables will be made up among friends.

Among the hostesses who have opened their home for the last two meetings were Mrs. Charles M. Foster, 40 Converse avenue, Newton, with Mrs. Harry A. Davis of 31 Park Drive, Boston, as co-hostess and Mrs. Bruce Galloway of 35 Huntington road, Newton with Mrs. Harold P. Fuller as co-hostess. Much credit is due this active and patriotic group of women who have worked together harmoniously to bring joy and comfort not only to our boys overseas, but to the Veterans of the Hospitals of World War I. Among the many other worthwhile interest is work for the Peabody Home for Crippled Children and the Mother's Rest Home.

Here Is One Grocer Who Likes Price Control

We don't suppose that you could find a government agency more generally cursed and attacked than the OPA. It is the target of all kinds of abuse and it is blamed for most of our home front troubles.

Imagine our surprise, then, to hear a grocer say a good word for the OPA.

Said he:
"Listen, the OPA has driven me nuts with regulations, book-keeping and all that sort of business. The OPA has kept the people in the food business with their noses to the grindstone, but on the other hand the OPA has done a good job for the consumer."

"If you don't believe it, just take a look at the way prices have been kept down in this war compared with 1919. My figures show the difference.

"I go out to buy food for people in ordinary circumstances. Dry beans, for instance, are popular with folks having a moderate income. In 1919, I had to pay $9.30 a 100 pounds wholesale for dry beans, but today I pay $6.25.

"Or take a lot of other stuff. I used to pay $5.45 for a dozen large cans of peaches and I can buy the same produce today, the same size can, same grade and same manufacturer for $2.22.

"Lard is an interesting item. It had gotten up to $35.80 for 100 pounds in 1919 but today I can buy it for $13.80 a hundred. Raisins were 19 cents a pound in 1919 and we pay 7 7/8 cents a pound today; rice was 14 7/8 cents a pound and it is 6 1/2 today, and sugar was $16 a hundred in 1919 and today it's $5.60.

"Remember, of course, this is for carload lots at point of origin. But remember, too, that anyone is a sucker to pay black market prices for food when the OPA is doing such a good job in keeping prices at a fair level.

"If the public would cooperate with the OPA and refuse to pay black market prices, the task of the OPA and the merchants who refuse to violate OPA regulations would be much simpler.

"Now you may wonder why I am so enthused about the OPA when it has caused me so many headaches. Well, I'll tell you. I am a food buyer. I have been all my life. In the last war period, I had an inventory of $500,000 worth of merchandise on hand and when the price structure collapsed, my inventory had dropped in value to $250,000. Today I am still a food buyer and once again I have a $500,000 inventory. But I can go to sleep nights now and not worry that tomorrow the props will be knocked out from under me. I may be selfish about this thing, but it seems like good business sense. The American people get a break from the OPA with the regulation of prices; I get a break because I know that the market has been stabilized. You may not like the OPA and all its red tape but you still have to give it credit for accomplishing these two great services for the American purchaser and the American businessman."

Be A Time Buyer

It has been estimated that during this year the war is costing the United States $2854 per second.

A $100 War Bond costs the investor $75. Thirty-eight such investors are financing their country's share of the war approximately one second.

But look at it this way:
When 38 persons each purchase a $100 Bond they are shortening the war by one tick of the clock.

While the clock ticks once, a great many young Americans can be killed or wounded. Shortening the war by even one second may be the means of saving many young lives.

Monday, the "Mighty Seventh" War Loan opens. For your sake and for the sake of American youth, buy some time—time off the war's duration. Shorten the war by one thirty-eighth of a second at least. Better still, buy a $50 War Bond in addition to the extra $100 Bond, and the war will be approximately one twenty-third of a second shorter.

If Massachusetts meets its quota of $700,000,000 in the 7th War Loan nearly three whole days will be knocked off the war. Now is the time to take stock of your income and make up your mind that you'll do your share between May 14 and the 30th of June.

Politics With Color

V-E Day

This column is being written on V-E Day. For the second time in less than a month the people of all the world have been so profoundly stirred that any discussion of politics per se is utterly out of order. The mood of the day, as the Herald editorial writer so cogently stated, should be one of exaltation and dedication rather than one of exultation and gratification.

How different everything is from the situation on Nov. 11, 1918. Then even edgy Bostonians thronged the streets and celebrated exuberantly far, far into the night. Those of us who were allowed to leave Camp Devens roamed through the city for a few brief hours and got much of our enjoyment from watching the antics of the civilian celebrators. Today the vast majority of civilians ate breakfast and then tuned in their radio to hear President Truman's official proclamation of the termination of the European war. Those of us who could kept the radio on an hour or so longer in order to hear the reports of the reaction of various cities throughout the country. More interesting than that, however, was the obvious attitude of our fighting men in the Pacific. These gallant men had neither the time nor the facilities to stage a celebration. That made a difference, however. Their attitude appears to be that one-half of this global war has been terminated but that the toughest half remains to be fought. They merely pause for a brief breathing spell, congratulate their brother GI Joe and then go back to the task in hand.

Now, what is our own task here at home? President Truman has asked us all to stand by our posts, keep our belts tightened, and continue all phases of our civilian assistance to the end that Japan may be crushed at the earliest possible moment. That is undoubtedly the reason why most of us are taking V-E Day in stride, with a few exceptions. The mighty God that the first phase of this horrible war has been brought to a successful conclusion.

If anybody required any argument for a continuation of our war effort, the words of the supreme allied Commander, General Eisenhower, supplied it. In the European theatre alone we have lost 80,000 men, killed, and there are another 400,000 men who have been wounded, many very seriously. Furthermore, there were 100,000 men who were taken prisoner and who, in many instances, lived a miserable existence. Consequently we have in our midst thousands of broken homes and other thousands which will from now on include broken and heart-sick men whose lives will never be the same. What the cost will be before Japan is conquered is problematical. Many fear that the cost will be terrific, unless, perchance, the Japanese come to a realization of the fact that their empire is already doomed and that their home-land will inevitably be laid waste just like Germany.

Now, what are some of the problems immediately ahead of the allies, apart from the prosecution of the Japanese war? First and foremost, of course, is the stupendous problem of averting starvation and intense human suffering among the people of Europe. Next comes the problem of setting up stable governments in Germany and other liberated areas. Unfortunately, this will require large armies of occupation for a considerable period. The AMG will now take over. Our own public servant, Rep. Douglass B. Francis is even now in Europe and up to his neck in the most important work he has ever undertaken. The same holds true of Rep. Loomis Patrick, currently serving in an important capacity in the Philippines. I deliberately give these men their official title because it is generally understood that the men now serving in their places on Beacon Hill are merely military substitutes for the duration.

Another serious problem which may be with us for some little time yet centres about the prisoner-of-war situation. There are millions of these men and a substantial number are right here in the United States. My information to date is that practically all these men are definitely unregenerate. They are confirmed Nazis, who know no other way of life and appear to refuse to even consider any other way. This poses a tremendous problem for our authorities, especially in war-torn Europe. Of course, if Marshal Stalin has his way, the great majority of these prisoners will be put to work rebuilding Russia. If, however, the other allies do not agree with Stalin, what then?

Next comes the question of keeping our own people up to the same pitch of enthusiasm until Japan is finally defeated. The other half of the war is so far removed from the mind of the people that it may prove difficult at first to concentrate on it properly. However, there will still be so many homes involved and so much continued war-plant activity that the right kind of propaganda emanating from Washington may do the trick. Let us hope so.

One more word. President Truman has come through with flying colors so far. He has done a splendid job under the most trying circumstances for the world, with the shadow of our late President hanging over him constantly. Let's stand by him resolutely from now on.

NEWTON In The Past

55 Year Ago

Newton Graphic, April 25, 1890

The new annex of the Woodland Park Hotel is an added ornament to the beautiful buildings, comprising one of the most convenient and well constructed suburban hostels in this country. The new portion rises from the summit of a natural hill, west from Washington street and connected by a long corridor with the main building.

Rumor says Cousen's block will be moved to a location opposite the depot some time in the near future, and the land upon which it now stands, laid out as a square, all through the instrumentality of the live Newton Centre Improvement Association, whose constant efforts are making this place one of the pleasantest of Newton's many villages.

It is possible that some definite action will be taken by the Boston & Albany railroad corporation, as regards the new depot in Newton Centre, as soon as the new street is finished.

50 Years Ago

Newton Graphic, April 26, 1895

The State organizer of the A. F. L. delivered chapters, Monday night, to the following newly organized unions at Newton: Horse Nail Joiners, 6510, and Horse Nail Assorters 6511. Both meetings were largely attended.

Summer came yesterday with great fervor and the mercury went up to nearly 90 in the shade. The buds on the trees came out in a great hurry to welcome the warm weather. Severe thunder storms prevailed all around Newton, but no rain fell here.

Patriots' day, Newtonville square was thronged with cyclists and many passed through bound for various points, Concord and Lexington being a quite common destination. Many from this city went over on their wheels.

25 Years Ago

Newton Graphic, April 23, 1920

The aldermen had one of its old fashioned meetings on Tuesday night, giving a hearing of nearly three hours on the question of accepting the act of the Legislature allowing Sunday sports.

The State Armory at West Newton was the center of attraction last week for it housed the great Thrift Exposition arranged under the auspices of the Newton Federation of Women's Clubs and made possible by the cooperation not only of the clubs, but of all the social betterment organizations of the city, the mills, the Public Schools, the City Fathers and many of the public-spirited men of all the Newtons.

The presidential primary in this city brought out a total vote of about 3000 from a registration of over 4000, indicating that the people of Newton are not greatly concerned over the various candidates for President.

Little time yet centres about the prisoner-of-war situation. There are millions of these men and a substantial number are right here in the United States. # VICTORY

The eagle is the symbol of a militant America. When his rights are violated he fights (consciously or unconsciously) with every ounce of his tremendous strength. The symbol has been justified in the light of our victory over an unscrupulous foe.

Protector of Liberty. The American eagle wishes Liberty for all people. He has fought and will continue to fight until the last foe of democracy has been removed.

Dining With Jane and Bill

Bill—You know Jane, I guess the success we had last year with our garden has set me up as an authority here on the street. Jane—Well, you certainly are being deluged with questions. I looked out the kitchen window a couple of times this evening and I saw Sam, and later Tom talking with you.

Bill—Yes, Sam is especially out for advice. His garden didn't amount to much last year and now with the twins getting to be pretty good sizes he's got several mouths to feed.

Jane—What did he want to know this evening?

Bill—You should have been out to answer one of his questions. He asked me what I thought were the most important vegetables to plant.

Jane—You mean from the point of view of nutrition?

Bill—Yes, well, I told him that

Tomatoes Cabbage
Carrots Winter Squash
Broccoli Green Beans

and

Greens - such as

Swiss Chard, New Zealand Spinach and Beet or Turnip Tops would probably be the best investment for him. Is that what you'd say?

Jane—Why yes—that selection will supply excellent amounts of vitamins A and C for his family.

Merry-Go-Round -

of them quit until the whistle blew, and as this department gets over toward the bus terminal, the same gals are climbing aboard the early morning busses, as the town clock strikes six. They're all pretty proud of the part they played in helping lick Hitler and now they're anxious to help Hirohito on his way to join Adolph.

Newton's all nite restaurant no longer serves ham or butter or many other things. Bologna is the standby these days with eggs the runner-up. Returned soldiers are dropping in with five and six service stripes on their sleeves. Three years is a long time to be away from home. The brown-out is over since V-E Day. It seems odd to see the blazing lights up the town's business center again. Wonder what the youngsters in Europe, who've never seen the lights go on, will think when the switch is thrown for the first time?

Paul James, out of the Army and driving a taxi cab in Newton Corner again, bought himself one of those midsize cars, a Crosley, recently. He put six gallons of gasoline in it about April 10th, drove the little piddle jumper every day, and was very surprised when the tank went dry on May 6th. The salesman told him 'twould run a month on one filling'.

The Seventh War Loan drive is scheduled to begin Monday, May 14th. This one will be for the purpose of crushing the Japs. Each bond sold will bring V-J Day a bit nearer and there will be plenty of them go over the counters. Gasoline is expected to be more plentiful, now that Germany has folded. Many patriotic citizens of Newton haven't used the family automobile since gasoline rationing went into effect.

The Circus comes to Boston, May 22nd. The first night's performance will be attended free, by purchasers of war bonds. Yesterday the War Department officially notified the 343,000 German prisoners of war in this country that Germany had surrendered. The prisoners will not be sent home immediately, shipping space being needed to carry on the war against Japan. The men will be used to work on farms here.

Gals who've been working on war jobs are really turning out to be healthy, rugged citizens. One gent we know, took his little woman, a defense worker, up to his employer's house the other night, so's to give her a peek at the big shot and his family, and as they were entering, he playfully tickled the little lady. She turned, and with the big boss looking on, started one from away back, slugging her beloved mate right in the eye! He's been sporting a beard of a shiner for the past two weeks as a result. Yea, times have changed, gent! They're fast, shifty and pack a wallop these days. If you have ideas when you come home and kind of absent-

tiated, has resigned from this post. Ben is a very modest fellow and we hesitate to apply it too thick lest he would doubt our sincerity. However, he has actually done more than his share to make "What's Cookin'" a success and it is only fair to pay tribute to his efforts.

From the birth of WCIN in December 1943, the overseas mailing list has grown from 300 to 1200 names and at the present rate of increase, it should reach 1500 names before the end of 1945. Of course, WCIN also appears in the Newton Graphic in such form that it can be clipped and mailed by relatives and friends to Newtonites serving in this country.

By the way, don't believe you've met our writing staff yet, so let's make you acquainted with Bill Sullivan, our sports columnist. He's manager of H. P. Hood's local Mercury, and although he admits journalism is never in his school curriculum, he's a regular fanatic when it comes to baseball and perhaps this accounts for the great job he's doing.

Paul Considine, author of the Merry-Go-Round, who runs a taxi business on the side, needs no introduction to most of the boys around town, especially those who frequent the Corner. Paul seems to have that friendly touch that enables you to visualize familiar spots and friends in the old town and seems to bring it and them just a little closer.

Phil Ahlin, our Editor, is the fellow responsible for gathering all the material, selecting and condensing news items and is the incentive to pledge that WCIN is a newspaper man, it's a real man's job.

The Mail Bag, for which our Secretary, Ruth Aldrich of the Graphic and your General Chairman are responsible, results from the many letters of acknowledgment and gratitude which are received and which give us such a personal sense of satisfaction to read. They come from most every part of the World and furnish us the incentive to pledge that WCIN will continue to be published until the last veteran comes home, which, please God, will be soon.

Walter A. Hood.

RETURNING PERSONNEL INSTRICTED ADDRESSING THEIR MAIL

In a statement prepared for the press, Postmaster Patrick J. Connelly, Boston, has explained the method by which Army Postal Authorities will handle mail received for personnel being returned to the United States:

1. A soldier returning to the United States from overseas is instructed to furnish Army Postal officials overseas with his home or other non-military address to which mail may be forwarded. Mail received overseas after departure of the addressee is endorsed, "Returning to U. S." and forwarded to the address furnished. If a soldier does not furnish a non-military forwarding address, mail received for him after departure is endorsed "Returning to U. S., Left No Address" and such mail will be returned to the sender.

2. A soldier usually returns from overseas by ship. The mail forwarded to him after departure is ordinarily sent to the United States by air. In many instances, therefore, it has and will be found that the mail arrives at the forwarding address before the addressee and often prior to receipt of information by the persons at that address of his impending return.

3. The receipt of mail under the latter circumstances has resulted in numerous inquiries to local postmasters, postmasters at ports of embarkation and War Department agencies by the recipients as to the reason the mail was forwarded or returned.

4. With a view to eliminating unnecessary correspondence, Postmasters throughout the nation are now advising the public that the War Department will accept no such inquiry until at least 30 days have elapsed after receipt of the first letter. If no direct information has been received from the addressee at the end of that period, an inquiry can be directed to the postal officer at the APO to which the mail was originally addressed with request that information be forwarded and the reason it was given and the present address if known.

5. Some returning personnel encounter unavoidable delays and the War Department has stated that, with the above exception, patrons are not to direct inquiries regarding mail received from military agencies or to Postmasters at Ports of Embarkation.

Postmaster Connelly emphasized the fact that the return of a letter endorsed, "Returning to U. S." does not mean that the serviceman may be expected home within a day or two for, as explained, he will return by sea and that Army authorities are unprepared to advise the public the date of arrival or Port of Embarkation and that no inquiries should be made. Dr. H. Augustine Smith, is at present broadcasting weekly over a coast to coast network. The program will consist of varied vocal and instrumental numbers.

This will be an enjoyable evening's entertainment patterned after Boston's original and justly famous Pops and typical refreshments may be had.

A Prayer

from "The Fellowship of Prayer"

Almighty God who through Thy Son hast revealed to us the only foundations upon which we may build securely, help us as we seek to rebuild what, having no strong foundation, has fallen in upon us, to rebuild upon the only true foundation. In the Master's name, Amen.

NEWTON'S QUOTA IN 7TH WAR LOAN $9,057,000

Newton's quota in the Seventh War Loan is set for the month of May at $9,057,000. The amount of any quota set for the city in any of the war loan drives to date.

Half of the total amount must be subscribed by individuals, if the drive is successful. The other half may be subscribed by banks and corporations.

The drive is to start May 14 and continued through July 4, the Newton War Finance Committee announced.

The committee is optimistic about the success of the forthcoming campaign in Newton, as all of the previous war loan quotas have been oversubscribed.

EMPLOYMENT IN FACTORIES SHOWS DROP
A decrease of 13.6 percent in the number of employees in manufacturing establishments in Newton occurred in March of this year, as compared with the corresponding month a year ago, the Newton Chamber of Commerce has announced.

The average number of employees this year was 6,544, compared with 7,574 last year, a decrease of 1,030. The amount of payroll for the month was $1,087,000 this year, while the sum last year was $1,150,153, a decrease of $63,153, or 5.5 percent.

"The state average on employment for March, 1945, was 9.8 percent smaller than March, 1944; Newton's was 13.6 percent less for the same month," Chamber Secretary Ripley C. Thompson reported. "The amount paid in wages in the state for March, 1945, was 5.4 percent smaller than March, 1944; Newton's was 5.5 percent less for the same month. The average weekly earnings for the month of March, 1945, was $38.33, as against $35.04 for March, 1944."

NAMED PRESIDENT OF MASS. DENTAL SOCIETY

Among other officers elected were Dr. Harold E. Tingley of 135 Clark street, Newton Centre, assistant secretary; Dr. Glenn W. Lawrence of 59 Channing road, Newton, treasurer; and Dr. Cedric F. Haring of 20 Glen road, Newton Centre, editor.

Newton Merry-Go-Round

by Paul Considine

This opus will be reaching the printer a bit late this issue, even though your correspondent starts running the right index finger over the typewriter keys in the five o'clock dawn, this fair Wednesday morning. A gent gets a little groggy after a couple of days without a nap and typing with one hand, while the other holds your good eye open, is a trick that takes practise, too.

Be that as it may, however, there's no harm in tryin'. So, such as it is, the following report on the Great Day, the long awaited V-E Day, as it was observed in our home town, may surprise some of you guys who had a hand in putting over the winning touchdown.

Side-Stepped High Jinks
Newton side-stepped the high jinks and tumult of victory celebrations yesterday, thronging its churches in meditation and prayer, from early morning until the late hours of night. Young and old, your families and neighbors, with sober mien and decorous behavior, knelt at altars and shrines with heads bowed in silent prayer. Every church in the city threw its doors open at an early hour and from here, it appears that everyone in Newton visited at least one of them during the day.

Every business establishment, with the exception of drug and food stores, plus one or two liquor dispensaries, closed shortly after President Truman made the official announcement that the war in Europe had been won. A radio journey around the country set aside early fears that a wild, nationwide celebration was underway, when only New York City was reported to be going slightly daffy. A natural reaction for New York, by the way, most of us having nursed a suspicion for years that you'd have to be more or less a little nuts to live over there, anyway.

Elaborate Preparations
Although elaborate preparations were made to handle defense plants and other celebrators, prevent hoodlumism and protect property, it turned out that none were needed. The realization that thousands of American boys were locked in combat with the Japs and were slugging it out, even as President Truman proclaimed victory over Germany, sobered all of his hearers. The news that Adolf's Anzles were definitely licked was wonderful, and relayed over the loud speaker systems in the defense plants, it made many of the gals cry with happiness. They just wiped the tears away, however, and continued on from there. None

Lydia Partridge Whiting Chapt., DAR

Under the able direction of Mrs. Harold F. LaFayette, chairman, assisted by Mrs. Richard A. Cody, Mrs. James F. Cooper, Mrs. R. John Henderson and Mrs. Esmond Rice, the twenty-fifth birthday celebration and luncheon to the retiring Regent was held at Wayside Inn on Tuesday, May 8. Silver bowls of spring flowers, arranged by Mrs. Cooper, enhanced the beauty of the old dining room, where about sixty-five members and guests were assembled.

During the luncheon, the Regent, Mrs. Ernest F. Dow, paid special tribute to Miss Anna Thompson, charter member and lineal descendant of Lydia Partridge Whiting, and to the Exalted Regent and members of her executive board who had so ably assisted her while she was Regent. The State Regent, Mrs. Herbert E. McQuesten, Librarian General, Mrs. Frederick Glazier Smith; Hon. State Regent and former Register General, Mrs. Frank L. Nason and Mrs. Harry Barlow, State Vice Regent, who were invited guests, spoke briefly. At the close of the luncheon, Mrs. Harold F. LaFayette, chapter Vice Regent, presented Mrs. Dow with a silver cream and sugar set, suitably engraved, the gift of her many friends in the Chapter.

At the annual meeting, which followed, the By-Laws were revised and the following officers were elected:

Regent, Mrs. Harold F. LaFayette; vice regent, Mrs. Sterling G. Thomas; chaplain, Mrs. Edward Fletcher; recording secretary, Miss H. Mercedes Torr; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Will T. Lavery; treasurer, Mrs. Myron L. Cudworth; registrar, Mrs. Edward W. Logan; historian, Miss Madeline Foster; curator, Mrs. Charles R. Ernst; director 1945-1946, Mrs. Earle S. Vaughan; director 1945-1947, Mrs. James F. Cooper; director 1945-1948, Mrs. F. L. Spinney; junior director 1945-1946, Mrs. Charles R. Joy; junior director 1945-1947, Mrs. Richard A. Cody. Nominating committee 1945-1946, Mrs. Edward J. Stone, Mrs. Charles S. Logan, Mrs. George S. Gibson, Mrs. Richard E. Pope, Mrs. Francis B. Riley.

Florence King presented the original monologue, Dolly Madison, and the Chapter was then honored by having the newly elected officers installed into office by the State Regent, Mrs. McQuesten, who also presented Mrs. Dow, the retiring Regent with an Ex-Regent's pin, the gift of the Chapter, which had previously given $50.00 in her honor to a Hospital PX unit. The Chapter upon progress made and wished for the new officers a successful regime.

A birthday cake was cut by the senior Ex-Regent, Mrs. Richard A. Cody, and punch was served by the pages, Mrs. Lee Croner, Mrs. J. Maloney and Mrs. Edward Dunn. The Junior Committee, Miss Catherine Stone, chairman, presented the new Regent and the retiring with beautiful corsages.

DR. HOMER W. ANDERSON

Dr. Anderson To Speak at Annual Meeting

The Newtonville Improvement Association will hold their annual meeting May 17 at 8 p.m. in the Central Congregational Church.

Dr. Homer W. Anderson, Acting Superintendent of Schools, will speak on "The Future School Plans of Newton." Dr. Anderson has a very constructive and forward looking plan for our schools. Residents of Newtonville will be particularly interested.

The Public is cordially invited.

West Newton Community Centre

The busy, crowded headquarters of the West Newton Community Centre is teeming with spring activities for children and adults.

During vacation week, many groups went happily on the special trips reserved for this time of year. The members of the Saturday morning craft group chose their favorite Metropolitan Zoo in Stoneham, where they oh'd and ah'd over the antics of the birds and animals, viewed with interest the latest arrivals, and finally, with great gusto, ate their picnic lunch beside picturesque Spot Pond.

The Tuesday morning sewing group preferred the Wayside Inn, and expressed delighted interest in the old Inn with all of its old furniture, the walled garden, the Little Red School House, the Martha and Mary Chapel, the new lambs and kids, and most of all the stories told them about the Inn by their most gracious hostess, Miss Vavra made four trips to the Children's Museum with her wood-working classes, who played "Museum Guessing Games," visited all the displays, and saw two excellent sound effect films.

The Moulton and Wenecemo Clubs have been very active this season. At present the Wenecemo Club is busy planning a party for the Mothers of Ponroy House. This spring, open house at the center will be May 21-26. The outstanding day will be Tuesday, May 22, when the afternoon dancing classes will hold their exhibitions.

Cabot-Claffin Parent-Teacher Ass'n

On Monday evening, May 14, the Cabot-Claffin Parent-Teacher Association will hold its annual meeting in the Cabot School auditorium.

The program will begin at seven forty-five with selections by the combined school orchestras. A business meeting will follow, with Mrs. John Rambeau presiding, and election of officers for 1945-46 will take place.

The topic "What are Newton Schools Doing for Our Children?" will then be presented from three points of view by Mr. Harold Gorse, Assistant Superintendent of the Newton Schools; Mrs. B. Alden Thresher of the Newton School Committee; and Mrs. Mary Alice Mitchell, Director of Elementary Education in Newton. Following this there will be a question period.

At the close of the meeting, refreshments will be served.

Annual Meeting Women's Guild

The Annual Meeting of the Women's Guild of the Church of The Messiah at Auburndale, will be held on Monday, May 14th at one o'clock in the church parlor, at which time officers for the coming year will be elected. Refreshments will be served. Mrs. John Heibek will be chairman, assisted by Mrs. Philip Bridgeman.

This will be the first meeting of the Guild in the new church and it is hoped that all women of the parish will avail themselves of this opportunity to see the beautiful new edifice.

This meeting will close a most successful year for the women of the Guild, a year in which our "Objective" has been the furnishing of the new church parlor. A "Rummage Sale" in September, an "Apron Sale" in October, Miss Anne Bunker's "Silver Tea" and the "Five Dollar Club" luncheon in April, have done much to swell the fund for this project.

International Lectures Planned By Womans Club

Mrs. Victor H. Vaughan, chairman of the International Committee of the Newton Centre Woman's Club for 1945-46, announces that plans are already underway for the four International lectures.

Philip Cummings has already been booked for the opening lecture on Monday evening, October 22, 1945. Mr. Cummings is an outstanding speaker on world events. A dinner will precede each lecture. Further plans are to be announced.

Members of the International Committee include: Mrs. Victor H. Vaughan, chairman; Mrs. Kelsey C. Atticks, treasurer; Mrs. Chester P. Baker, publicity; Mrs. Robert F. Cochrane, assistant publicity; Mrs. H. Thaxter Spencer, ticket chairman; and Mrs. Harry C. Barber, Mrs. Russell M. Boynton, Mrs. George H. Crosbie, Mrs. Daniel H. Hawver, Mrs. Walter D. Knight, Mrs. S. Justus McKinley, Mrs. John Metz, Mrs. Kirtley Mather, Miss Vera Haas, Miss Louise Walworth, Mrs. Everett Winslow, Mrs. James A. Noon, Mrs. John M. Tomb, Mrs. H. Esmond Rowley, Mrs. Harvey J. Elwell, Mrs. Otis E. Stephenson, Mrs. Gustav E. Ulmer, Mrs. Arthur Shannon, Mrs. Kristian A. Jutte, Mrs. W. J. McDonald, Mrs. Alden Speare, Mrs. Daniel R. Weedon.

Newton Highlands Garden Club

Members of the Newton Highlands Garden Club will have a picnic supper following the annual plant sale which will be held on Saturday afternoon, May 19 from two to six o'clock at the Hyde School.

Home gardeners from all parts of Newton and adjoining communities are looking forward to this sale. It is being held at exactly the right time for setting out tomato plants, onion sets and flower seedlings.

Newton Junior Community Club

At the Annual Meeting of the Newton Junior Community Club, held on Monday, May 7, in the Green Room of the Hotel Puritan, Boston, Miss Jane Mansfield was elected president for the season of 1945-46.

The annual reports were presented at the business meeting which was conducted by the president, Miss Ruth W. Aldrich. They included the following: Mrs. Raymond Garon, recording secretary; Gertrude H. Ranney, treasurer; Marjorie S. Bassett, by-laws; Rhoda White, community service and war work; Karen Erickson, membership; Mrs. Alvie Jorgensen, music and drama; Mrs. Thomas Seelye, publicity; Mrs. J. Vincent Morrison, rummage sale; Ruth Dieffenbach, scrapbook; Virginia Goodell, social; and Harriet Tashjian, sports. Lydia Mattis, the corresponding secretary read reports from Audrey Fitzgerald, hospitality; Hazel Noyes, remembrance; and Dorothy Howe, year book.

Miss Alice M. Andersen, chairman of the nominating committee, presented the slate of officers which were elected for the ensuing year: Jane Mansfield, president; Rhoda White, vice-president; Harriet Tashjian, recording secretary; Mrs. Thomas V. Seelye, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Alvie Jorgensen, treasurer.

A past president's pin was presented Miss Aldrich by Miss Mansfield who has been serving as vice-president. Guests at the dinner were Mrs. Herbert B. Dwight, chairman and Mrs. George A. Sampson, both of the advisory board; Mrs. David Black, president of the Newton Community Club; Miss Adelaide B. Ball, president of the Newton Federation of Women's Clubs; and Mrs. John L. MacNeil, Mrs. MacNeil, under the sponsorship of the Newton Community Club, founded the Junior Club in November, 1938. She will be chairman of the advisory board for the coming year.

Miss Ball--

its foundation in 1895. Mrs. Cobb also revealed the fact that the Newton Federation was the first City Federation to be organized in this country.

During the business meeting which commenced at 2 p.m. Mrs. Patrick J. Duncan, Recording Secretary, read the minutes of the Mid-Year Meeting and the Recording Secretary's Annual Report, both of which were accepted. Mrs. H. Augustine Smith told of the philanthropies of the different Clubs. Mrs. William Worcester reported on Federation Committees and their activities and Miss Estelle Marsh of the associate organizations and their work. Mrs. Marcus Bryan told of the successful Christmas Health Seal Campaign. Mrs. Edgar P. Hay read the splendid report of the many worthy undertakings of the War Service's Committees and the endless activities of the different Clubs, which included the purchase of several Field Ambulances, three of which have been heard from in letters from the boys overseas. $90,000.00 has been spent in the purchase of War Bonds and Stamps by the children of the Newton Schools.

Mrs. Florence Bacon, corresponding secretary, read her annual report and the treasurer's annual report was given by Mrs. F. J. Blake, treasurer.

The officers for 1945-1946, proposed by the Nominating Committee are:

President: Miss Adelaide B. Ball, Newton Community Club.

First Vice-President: Mrs. H. Augustine Smith, Woman's Club of Newton Highlands.

Now for the final punch!

On this day of victory America rises in grateful tribute... to the valor and skill of our own fighting forces... to the armies of our brave allies... to the leaders who planned and executed the greatest military triumph in history... to the superb industrial machine which produced the materiel of victory... to all who have had a part in destroying the evil thing called Hitlerism. But—

Let's not celebrate yet. Rather let us pray, and rededicate ourselves to the grim task ahead. For the war in the Pacific is not over yet. From this moment, more than ever, our watchword is: "Remember Pearl Harbor!"

Our forces in the war against Japan still need equipment and supplies. They still need our donations of blood. They still need the support of our War Bond dollars and cheerful words from home. They still need the continuing support of American industry and American workers.

So let's carry on. Give, work, fight—for total Victory!

On the day our country went to war against Germany and Japan, Boston Edison Company pledged all its resources to the winning of the war. To America's fighting men on the road to Tokyo we renew that pledge. Our post-war program will not begin until the final punch is delivered and our forces are triumphant on every battlefield.

BOSTON EDISON COMPANY

Boston Edison's Honor Roll now has 632 Stars for employees in the U.S. Armed Forces. Of these, seven have been killed in action, two are missing in action, two have died in service, one has died since receiving his honorable discharge, three are prisoners of war, nineteen have been wounded in battle.

MORE POWER AND LIGHT FOR TOTAL VICTORY

We just feel our cause has been right... A cause based upon the principle that all men are free... We have fought a good fight so that principle may stand forever.

A final extending peace is in sight... Let us continue our righteous efforts to achieve that noble objective.

"Let us impart all the blessings we possess, or ask for ourselves, to the whole family of mankind."—Washington.

The Victory which now is ours after years of struggle to preserve our liberties and the right to live our lives as we see it, brings a strong sense of our responsibilities, not only to ourselves, but to those peoples we have helped to once again enjoy the rights of freedom of thought and action.

We may be proud of our American tradition... Proud that we stand for individual freedom for everyone... now and forever.

The banners of the United Nations wave victoriously over Europe... and a new era for part of the world begins with this first step in the overthrowing of power-greedy nations... Americans may be justly proud of their part in speeding the day when Liberty will shine again from sea to sea.

VICTORY RINGS AGAIN

Bells have rung to tell a war-weary world that a new victory in the cause of humanity has been won.

We may rejoice with thankful hearts that greedy men have so soon been brought to their knees.

But as we rejoice we pause in tribute to those who have paid the "last full measure of devotion..." on the field of battle so we may continue to live the life of our choosing.

Tribute must go also to those who at home have sacrificed much; that the implements of war could be made ready and available for those trained to use them.

We salute our comrades in arms, the United Nations, for their staunch and unwavering support.

And we humbly breathe a prayer that all negative forces will soon be neutralized and the nations of the world shall be blessed with a new peace of brotherhood and international understanding.

J.W.V. Auxiliary Goal $600,000 War Bond Sale

$600,000.00 in bonds for the Mighty 7th War Loan drive is the goal set for the Newton Ladies' Auxiliary Jewish War Veterans Post 211. The drive will be under the leadership of Mrs. Charles M. Albion of Commonwealth avenue, Newton. On May 14 they will hold their annual luncheon at the Copley Plaza Hotel in Boston to raise funds for their hospitalization and rehabilitation work. The luncheon is under the chairmanship of Mrs. Harold A. Leventhal, War Efforts chairman. Mrs. Albion will have a booth in the lobby of the hotel on the day of the luncheon, for the sale of War Bonds, and they are featuring the Walt Disney Treasury Citation for all bonds purchased in the name of children from the new baby up to a child ten years of age. Mrs. Harry Hoffman is president of the Auxiliary.

Recreation Dept. Sponsors Party

On Friday May 4th, the Newton Recreation Dept. sponsored a formal dance party for the members of the Emerson Dancing Class. The party was held in the Kindergarten, which had been attractively rearranged with tables of flowers and bouquets of lilacs by Mr. Daniel Kerr, custodian.

The children entered with their partners to the tune of Country Gardens, and after being received by their instructor Miss Christine Saunders, and Mrs. Margaret Hills, introduced to those in the receiving line, by the ushers, Miss Eleanor Hannigan, and Miss Margaret McLellan. The hostesses in the receiving line, were Miss Katharine Wilson, former teacher in the Falls, Miss Grace G. Hunt, Miss Catherine Murphy, Miss Rita Kennedy, Miss Catherine Harney, Mrs. Catherine Royster teachers of the school and Mrs. A. A. Conrad, Librarian. Special guests included Recreation Commissioner F. Ewing Wilson, and Mrs. Wilson, Ragna Hovgaard of the Recreation Dept. and Mr. Harold De Doming of Upper Falls.

Mrs. George Braceland, and Miss Margaret Sotter acted as Hostesses, and Mrs. Henry Gaffney was the pianist.

Some of the dance numbers were Fox Trot, Adaptation to the Waltz, Barn Dance, Paul Jones, Virginia Reel, and an Elimination Dance. Many parents were present and showed their interest and appreciation with enthusiastic applause. The children taking part were: Frances Murphy, Sylvia De Doming, Natalie Bourgeois, Eleanor Valente, Shirley Gorse, Vera Sobey, Joan Lewis Angela Mazzone, Jean Dashin, Marcella De Doming, Jean Lehman, Millicent Standish, Katherine Maruso, Jean Webster, Gladys Mulkasian, Betty (Elizabeth) Generazio, Dorothy Hannigan, Patricia Lane, Pauline Ferran, Robert Braceland, William Shillington, Ralph Bibbo, Richard McLellan, Ronald Stanley, Joseph Lewis, Edward D. George, Lawrence Smith, Richard Generazio, Fred Aukstolis, John Chambers, Richard Gassett, Frederick De Doming, Richard Lepinski, Richard Hutchinson.

There is no present lumber production difficulty which cannot be dissipated promptly by return to peace, say the lumbermen.

Meet To Organize Junior Achievement Program in Newton

A score of Newton business men met last Monday at the Algonquin Club in Boston to hear Mr. Merritt A. Clegg explain and discuss the Junior Achievement Program which is now receiving nation-wide publicity. The purpose of the luncheon-meeting was to launch one or more Groups in Newton. The business leaders who attended the conference were:

Colonel Earl W. Lancaster, Personnel Director, Raytheon Mfg. Co.; Mr. Leon Rubenstein, Security Mills; Mr. D. E. Shea, The Vanta Company; Mr. Samuel P. Allison, Gamewell Company; Mr. Benjamin J. Rae, Futurity Thread Company; Mr. Edward Rose, Rose-Derry Corporation; Mr. Louis F. Bachrach; Mr. A. L. Rotler, Stew-Woodward, Inc.; Mr. Roger P. Congdon, Dolecam Machine Tool Co.; Mr. Maynard Hutchinson, Loomis-Sayles Company, Boston; Mr. Joseph B. Jamieson; Mr. Raymond C. Hobart; Mr. Homer W. Anderson, Supt. of Schools, Newton; Mr. Rupert C. Thompson, Secretary, Newton Chamber of Commerce; Mr. Roy S. Edwards, R. S. Edwards Lumber Co.; Mr. Thomas V. Cleveland; Mr. Philip O. Ahlin, The Newton Graphic; Mr. J. P. Spang, Jr., Gillette Safety Razor Company; Mr. Merritt A. Clegg, Executive Director, Jun. Achievement of Massachusetts; Mr. Lester W. Tarr, Ucinite Company; Mr. Douglas Sloane, The Melotype Company; Mr. Harold T. Plimbury, Sherman Paper Products Corp.; Mr. Carl P. Birmingham, Newton High School.

Douglas Sloane was named chairman of a committee composed of the above men to study the prospects of obtaining sponsorship for one or more Junior Achievement groups in Newton.

"Learn by doing it" is the keynote of the Junior Achievement program. This unique organization, whose significance is now fully realized by national, educational and business leaders, is designed to meet the needs of youth for the practical training and experience which will help them to take their places in the economic life of America.

The program, briefly, is as follows: Groups of boys and girls, 14 to 21 years old, are set up in small "companies" which are run and supervised by the young people themselves.

Each company has a sponsor, obtained by a local committee of business leaders. The sponsor may be a local business concern, or other civic, professional or service group. Junior Achievement also arranges for the supervision and guidance of each company by adult advisers, who are experts in the fields of production, business and sales.

Each company raises its own capital by selling stock at 50 cents a share—and produces a product or performs a service. A regular meeting place for the workshop purposes is maintained by each company or group of companies which pays a nominal sum for rent, light, heat and wages. In short, each company finances itself, manages itself, produces a product or service, and sells that product or service through its own efforts.

Junior Achievement is a non-profit organization supported by individuals and business organizations. There are no dues or fees charged for membership in the organization.

It is essentially a leisure time program, and is planned not to interfere with school studies, or recreation or social activities. Generally, members devote not more than two or three hours once or twice a week to their companies. In the process of running their own companies, the members learn to keep various business and production records, map sales campaigns, conduct advertising and publicity programs, prepare financial statements, and other business operations.

J. A. does not attempt to duplicate, but rather to supplement the training received in school. Thus it enables young people to use the theoretical knowledge learned in school and transfer it into actual practice.

Educators also welcome the program as a means of developing self-reliance and independence in young people which they gain by meeting the problems and duties of managing their own business.

Massachusetts Mother Honored On Sunday

Ceremonies on the Boston Common this Sunday afternoon will honor the Massachusetts Mother for 1945. Mrs. Harold R. Keller of Newtonville has been selected as the mother worthy to represent the thousands of Massachusetts women in whose honor Sunday is set aside as Mother's Day.

Governor Tobin will present a scroll to Mrs. Keller from the National Mother's Committee with their congratulations and their appreciation of her record as the typical and outstanding mother of Massachusetts.

Pops Concert at St. Mary's by B. U. Choral Society

There are a few tickets still available for the Pops Concert to be given at St. Mary's Parish Hall, Concord street, Newton Lower Falls, Saturday night at 8 o'clock. The Boston University Choral Art Society conducted by H. Augustine Smith, will provide the entertainment presenting a varied program of choral singing as well as vocal and instrumental solos. Many tables have been reserved, and the affair promises to be a gala one for members of the parish and their friends.

Mrs. R. C. Foster Hostess to Pops Benefit Concert

Mrs. Robert Chapman Foster of Newton entertained at luncheon yesterday at the Woodland Golf Club, in honor of the chairmen of the various committees working for the Boston Wellesley College Club's benefit Pops Concert, to be held Thursday evening, May 17, at Symphony Hall. All the proceeds from this benefit go to the Wellesley Students' Aid Society. This is the second year that the club has sponsored a Pops and a delightful program will include several Wellesley songs such as "Neath the Oaks" and "To Alma Mater." This will be the first performance of the Wellesley "Alma Mater" by a large orchestra, since the piece has been recently orchestrated expressly for this occasion.

After luncheon the committee heads gathered to make brief reports of progress. Among those present were: Mrs. Gordon W. Daly of Newton, Vice Chairman; Mrs. Haskell Cohn, Mrs. Lyman P. Guttererson and Mrs. John E. Eaton, Jr., of the Newton; Mrs. F. Forrest Davidson, Jr., Mrs. John F. Corrae, Jr., Mrs. Ralph D. Powell, and Mrs. Hans Paschen of the Wellesleys; Mrs. Harold Wilkins and Mrs. Gerald Harrison of Belmont; Mrs. Edward D. Hurley of Watertown; Mrs. J. Philip Wernette of Cambridge; and Mrs. E. Parker Hayden of Brookline. Others from the Newton area who are working on various committees are Mrs. Julian D. Anthony, Mrs. Arthur Ingalls, Mrs. George Belcher, Miss Alice M. Birmingham, Mrs. Warren K. Russell and Miss Sally Ann Russell.

Cpl. Costello Believed Liberated

Cpl. Robert C. Costello, 24, son of Dr. and Mrs. Francis J. Costello of 313 Cabot street, Newtonville, is believed to be one of the prisoners of war recently liberated by the American forces.

Cpl. Costello was captured at Luxembourg by the Germans and according to a card received from him by his parents was hospitalized by the enemy for a hand wound before being placed in a prison camp.

Cpl. Costello was attached to headquarters of the 112th Infantry with the First Army. He was graduated from the Newton High School and before entering the Army in July 1943 had been employed at the Raytheon Company. He went overseas in December 1943. He has two brothers in the service, Staff Sgt. Francis J., Jr. in Manila and Sgt. Paul A. with the Seventh Army.

Major Stowe Speaks at Kiwanis Club

Next week the Newton Rotary will be host to the Kiwanis Club at the YMCA on Wednesday afternoon. A large attendance of Newton notables in addition is expected to hear speaker William Roger Greeley, chairman of the City of Boston Committee sponsoring "The Boston Plan."

Newton Kiwanians have assisted in the packing of more than forty tons of clothing for the National Clothing Drive to date.

Clarence Hutchins and Arthur Kelly have recovered from their illnesses.

New members Carl Alvord and George Bryson have been assigned to the wartime citizenship and the reception committees respectively.

Guests of today's meeting were: Hans Lundstrom of Newton Centre, Phil Ahlin of the Newton Graphic and the Reverend Arthur B. Clark, Pastor of the North Congregational Church of Newton.

As a special V-E Day Remembrance, the Reverend Arthur B. Clark read the twenty third psalm in memory of those members of our armed services who have given their lives for their country.

The speaker, Major Albert J. Stowe, who was introduced by Jim Gallagher is a personal representative of Major General Clayton Bissell, Assistant Chief of Staff, G-2, (Military Intelligence Division) War Department, Washington 25, D. C. Major Stowe's appearance was a part of the program being conducted under auspices of the National Security Committee of the Office of War Information, composed of representatives of Army and Navy Intelligence, the Federal Bureau of Investigation, and the OWI, to make civilians ever-mindful of their responsibility to keep military information out of conversation.

Major Stowe's topic was "Silence is Golden." He said in part: "I confess to thrilling over war news from Europe as much as anyone in this room. Unfortunately defeat of the Nazi armed forces does not assure us of immediate cessation of hostilities. Difficult undertakings involved in cleaning out pockets of Nazi troops and establishing military controls throughout the countries occupied by enemy populations lie ahead of us."

And there remains the colossal task of defeating Japanese forces halfway round the globe. None other than The Secretary of War, Mr. Stimson, lately gave me a keynote for my message to you, today, when he told a press and radio conference:

"Great victories have been won in Europe and while our ultimate victory is certain we still have a tremendous job ahead both in Europe and in the Pacific. In future months we shall see shifting of armed forces on a vast scale to points where their blows will fall most heavily upon the enemy. Our efforts to conceal from the enemy the nature and destination of troop movements and other military matters must be redoubled... Success in the future depends on public co-operation."

"Only a few hundred people in various parts of this country and varied occupations," the Major continued, "any of you included, each contributing his little bit of loose talk can play right into his hands by providing the enemy with tremendous new power... a jigsaw puzzle picture of the part of every one of us... always vital in war... was never so necessary as it is now and in the months to come."

We are faced with a war too deadly as it is from the standpoint of grim necessity, to persistently indulge in loose talk either through "carelessness" or through stubborn insistence on "our right to talk." Neither you who are in uniform, nor those of us who are in uniform, have any moral license to risk lives needlessly because we don't or won't think before we talk."

BIRTHS

To Mr. Richard Porter Boyer, Jr., and Mrs. Boyer (Grace De Groote) a son, Richard Porter Boyer III, May 1st at Genesee Hospital, Rochester, N. Y. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Abraham De Groote of Rochester, N. Y., and Mr. and Mrs. Richard O. Boyer of Newtonville.

Ex-alderman McCabe Now Colonel

Ex-Alderman Frank T. McCabe of Newton has been promoted to colonel, it was announced at the headquarters of Lt. Gen. Robert C. Richardson, Jr., Pacific Ocean area Army commander, where Col. McCabe is now serving.

Col. McCabe has seen Army service, except for a seven-year inactive period, since 1901, and for years was stationed in the Philippines training the Philippine Scouts.

His three sons are in the service. Frank as a Coast Guard lieutenant commander; Robert as an Army lieutenant colonel, and Arthur as an Army first lieutenant. His daughter, Theresa, is married to Army Capt. John A. Swope. Mrs. McCabe is at present residing in Arlington, Va.

"Let's Finish the Job," Says Red Cross Chairman

More than 3000 volunteers in the Newton Red Cross Chapter were congratulated to day on their services during the 40 months of the war with Germany by Charles Raymond Cabot, chapter chairman, who urged them not to slacken their efforts until the war with Japan is won.

"The chapter can point to a distinguished record of service since Pearl Harbor and before," he declared, "but our responsibilities do not end with the cessation of active hostilities in Europe. Everything possible must be done to maintain Red Cross services to troops remaining in Europe, the wounded in hospitals, prisoners of war, and civilian internees, and to intensify our operations with the military in the Pacific and China-Burma-India theatres. More than ever they will be needed to bring cheer to tired, homesick soldiers awaiting demobilization and to untangle demoralizing personal and family problems."

"In the Pacific our task will become more complex and infinitely greater as the fighting increases in intensity and casualties mount," continues Mr. Cabot. "We must keep Red Cross Field directors with combat units, trained Red Cross workers in the hospitals and experienced Red Cross personnel in our clubs. On the homefront we face new and challenging problems in providing skilled assistance to returning veterans, both hospitalized and able-bodied. Our workers must remain in the hospitals until the last soldier and sailor is discharged. Our chapters must stay fully mobilized to aid ex-servicemen through the

Lieut. Sonsini Killed Over Germany

Second Lt. Paul Sonsini, 21 son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Sonsini of 142 Jackson street, Newton Centre, was killed in action while on a mission over Germany on April 9, according to word received by his parents.

Lt. Sonsini was the pilot of a Thunderbolt fighter plane. He had taken part in air action supporting the ground forces in the crossing of the Rhine and had received the Air Medal. He was graduated from the Newton High School in 1941, and entered the Army Air Forces on February 20, 1942. He received his wings and commission at Mariana, Florida in May 1944, and went overseas in February of this year. Before entering the service Lt. Sonsini was manager of the Trans Lux Theatre in Boston.

Lieut. Hopfe Fatally Wounded

Word that their son First Lt. Justin G. Hopfe, 27, was fatally wounded in action in Germany on April 16, has been received by Mr. and Mrs. Philip V. Hopfe of 39 Indiana Terrace, Newton Upper Falls.

Lt. Hopfe had been in the Army for four years and was serving with the Field Artillery. He has been overseas 19 months. He was graduated from the Newton High School in 1933, had attended Dean Academy and was graduated from Northeastern University. Before entering the service he was a public accountant.

The first telegram received by his parents stated that he had been seriously wounded on April 16, and several days later word came that he had died on the same day.

His brother, Sgt. Philip Hopfe, is serving in the Fourth Armored Division with the Third Army.

complexities of their return to civilian life."

He urged every volunteer to carry on with the same spirit and the same enthusiasm which for the past three years has distinguished their work for the Red Cross.

"Now more than ever your help is needed," Mr. Cabot concluded, "Let's finish the job!"

Scouts Hold Annual Meeting

The Annual Meeting of the Norumbega Council, Inc., Boy Scouts of America, will take place Tuesday, May 22nd at the Newton Centre Women's Club. The affair will be a dinner meeting.

Mr. Carl Hilton, Scout Executive of Lynn, Mass., will be guest speaker. Mr. Hilton has been associated with the Boy Scout Movement since the early days of Scouting and is an outstanding authority on the subject of Scouting and its program of Citizenship Training and Character Development.

The program of the meeting will include: Election of officers for the coming year and a report of progress, activities and war service by Scouts, Cub Scouts and Leaders of Newton and Wellesley during the past year.

The highlight of the program will be a tribute to Norumbega Council Scouts and Scout Leaders who have lost their lives in the service of their country.

Philip W. Kempf Killed in Action

T5 Philip W. Kempf, 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman W. Kempf of 52 Kingswood road, Auburndale, and driver of a tank in the 12th Armored Division with the Seventh Army, was killed in action in Germany on April 22.

He entered the Army on June 17, 1943 and went overseas last September. He was graduated from the Newton High School in 1940 and attended the Bordentown, New Jersey Military Academy and the Worcester Technical Institute where he studied mechanical engineering.

Besides his parents he leaves a sister, Lt. (jg) Barbara Kempf, WAVES, stationed in East Boston.

The All-Auburndale Scouts' Fathers - Sons' Banquet will be held this year on Tuesday night, May 15, at the Congregational Church, Troops 2, 15 and 35 will participate, having Mayor Goddard as their guest. Robert Pettit, Scout Executive, and Frank Dowcett, Vining District Commissioner, will represent Norumbega Council Headquarters, and all Scout Masters with their Troop Committeemen will attend. Short talks and movies will be featured during the evening. Luther Witnam, Inc., of Lynn, will cater.

Keep the Home Fires Burning . . .

There was sound advice in that song of World War One 27 years ago—it's just as sound today.

The home-front defense fires must burn brightly "Til the boys come home"—industrial forge fires and fires of American unity and will to win. Our men are in there slugging. We're backing them everlastingly here at home, each in his own way, with war-work, war-bonds and war-conservation of commodities and materials.

Urged To Sell 7th War Loan Bonds

What are you planning to do to help the Mighty 7th War Loan Drive which starts on May 14, to June 30, 1945?

We housewives and mothers of fighting men are called upon to give our time for so many branches of war work that sometimes we become confused in our thinking as to the merits of some of the things we are doing. The Treasury Department wishes to assure you that the time you give to the selling of War Savings Stamps and Bonds in schools and booths is a very valuable contribution. You are helping to raise the money in order that we may finish our war with Japan and at the same time to keep down inflation which is so vital to all.

Our slogan for the Mighty 7th is—We are the front line soldiers, through selling and buying War Bonds "we are putting the tools into the hands of the War workers and the guns into the hands of the Soldiers."

Paulist Fathers Open Dialogues On Religion

A series of "dialogues" on Religion will open at Our Lady's Church, Newton, on Sunday, May 13th. The discussions will begin at 7:45 p.m. each evening until Friday, inclusive. An invitation to attend is extended to all, regardless of denomination, who are interested in this vital subject.

The dialogue presentation affords a new and interesting approach to the religious question. Two of the Paulist Fathers from New York, the Rev. John F. Fitzgerald, C.S.P., and the Rev. James E. Dixon, C.S.P., will conduct the discussions. One will advance the current objections and popular difficulties; the other will defend the Catholic teaching on the subjects treated. A lively and instructive treatment is assured.

The universal desire for Peace forms the theme. Subjects such as Peace in the World, Peace in the Mind, Peace in the Conscience, Peace in the Home and Peace in the Future will be discussed.

Rev. Michael E. Doherty, pastor of Our Lady's parish, invites all who are interested to attend. The dialogues will be held in the auditorium of Our Lady's High school on Washington street.

The Paulist Fathers are the first American community of men to be established in the Catholic Church. The society was founded by five American converts for the express purpose of explaining Catholic teaching to fellow Americans. Archbishop Cushing has recently introduced the Paulists into Boston. In the near future they will staff a Catholic Information Center on Park street in Boston, which will be open to all public inquiry.

Pfc. Siwick Wounded

Pfc. Carleton R. Siwick, 19, son of Mrs. Doris A. Siwick, 19 Otis park, Newtonville, was wounded in Germany, April 19, according to word received from the War Department.

Mrs. Siwick received a letter from her son, stating that he had received an injury to his left knee and that he was in a hospital in France.

Pfc. Siwick was a member of an infantry unit. He is in the 23rd General Hospital in France. He entered the service June 23, 1944, and went overseas last December.

Patriotic Service Marks V-E Day at Sherman Products

Something new in industrial history was inaugurated on V-E Day by Sherman Paper Products in Newton Upper Falls, where nearly 500 employees attended a special patriotic and religious service held in the factory at 9 o'clock. The service opened with the broadcast of President Truman's proclamation, following this, Rev. Henry W. Shillington, pastor of the First Methodist Church, Newton Upper Falls, conducted the assembly in a service of praise and thanksgiving. Brief addresses were made by George Sherman, head of the organization, D. S. Robert, Director of Operations, and Harold Pillsbury, Personnel Director.

Following the service, all workers returned to the production of war materials. Mr. Sherman stated in his address that V-E Day production would be particularly significant for large quantities of the cushioning packing products were being shipped to Europe for repackaging war equipment for shipment to the Pacific theater.

As part of the V-E Day program all employees were given special pledge cards indicating that they had worked on V-E Day.

Newton High School

An Art Appreciation class, with representatives from nine English classes as guests, were privileged on Friday to hear Mr. Charles Connick, eminent stained glass artist and craftsman. He talked informally and delightfully of his life work and illustrated with Sandwich glass medallions.

Stained glass is often termed a lost art, he said, not because the knowledge is no longer available to us, but because in the past centuries, taste, painstaking mastery of detail, and integrity of the craftsman have disappeared. Today, however, the artist in stained glass is trying to return to the ideals of the 12th century masters, and the Connick Studio is nationally recognized as a leader in the "renaissance."

Mr. Connick extended a cordial welcome to the class to visit the studio, on Harcourt street, Boston, at any time.

Overtones Over Tomorrow, an excellent short film that has recently been showing in Boston Theatres, is being presented to Social Studies and English classes this week. The film, government sponsored, is timely in connection with the San Francisco conference for the discussion of the Security Organization proposals of Dumbarton Oaks.

Monday War Sales at Newton High, totaling $1065.60; stamps $934.35 and bonds $131.25. The highest stamp and bond score was reached by room 231, totaling $85.20.

Newton High's Youth Symphony Club has reserved tables for the "Pops" concert March 25.

Two debates were held at the Newton and Arlington High Schools on April 12, 1945. The subject for discussion was: Resolved: that the United States should adopt compulsory peace time military training. Alan Finberg and Maurice Alberts represented Newton at Arlington while Newton was defended at home by Justin Mamis and Ina Aronson.

The final meetings of many Newton high school clubs were conducted on Thursday, May 3. After successful seasons, the Aviation, Drama, Personality, Tusitala and Varsity clubs concluded their activities.

Newtonites contributed well to the clothing drive. The drive, lasting only one week, proved to be one of the most successful ones held in recent years, despite the fact that there was no school Friday because of President Roosevelt's death and very few bundles, if any, were brought in that day.

There was so much clothing collected during the week that the Melick-appointed committee of Bob Lindquist, Janet Shillady, and Don Kling in building 3; Jean Webber, James Walsh, and Robert Towne in building 1, and Norma Simons, Mary Farina, and Carolyn Ewary in building 2, could not handle all the bundles by themselves. Legislature members were elected to help them. Everything from fur coats to raincoats, saddle shoes to rubber boots, beanies to elaborate Sunday hats, mittens to kid gloves, shirts to jackets, and "silk" stockings to bobby socks were among the donations.

Olga Wells, secretary of the Newton Student Canteen, sent a letter to Mr. Green inviting the faculty to an open house of the canteen on Monday, May 7, from 2:30-5:00 o'clock. She also thanked the Trade School for the cooperation which had been given to the organization of the canteen.

The girls of Newton High have been having physical examinations during the "S" Blocks through the week.

Friday, April 13th, five Canteen girls, Frances Cotoia, Florence Goodrich, Janet Grade, Betty Esterbrook, and Betty Graham, served at a dinner given for members of the School Committee and Finance Board. Miss Brooks and Miss Wallace gave the girls a very high rating as efficient and pleasing assistants.

Mr. Benjamin Louis, President of Newton Kiwanis Club, has announced to Mr. Raymond Green, a former president of Kiwanis, a gift of $78.50 to purchase materials for the Vocations Library. The items to be selected are Science Research Associates publications, including copies of Vocational Trends, Occupational Briefs, Vocational Guide, and Newsletters to be made available in the school library and study halls, Buildings II and III.

The Newton Rotary Club has very generously contributed a sum of $90 to be used for the purpose of purchasing books on the subject of vocational guidance.

Mr. Drake, who is a member of the Rotary, was instrumental in obtaining the sum. These books and material will be distributed in the library, 2200, 335, and the Place.

Corp. Pearson Awarded Citation

Tech. Corp. Arthur L. Pearson, Medical Detachment, USA, son of Mrs. Mary Pearson McCarthy of 24a Elliot street, Newton Upper Falls has received a citation for meritorious achievement.

The citation reads as follows: Under the provisions of AR-600-45, 22 September 1943, as amended, the Bronze Star Medal is awarded to the following:

Technician Fifth Grade Arthur L. Pearson, 31305580, Medical Detachment, 289th Infantry, for meritorious achievement in connection with military operations against the enemy on 26 December 1944, in Belgium. Enemy artillery inflicted heavy casualties among the members of a rifle company. With complete disregard for his own safety, Technician Pearson left a place of comparative safety, going forward to the area still under severe fire to assist in rendering first aid to the numerous wounded. This prompt attention prevented the complications of many wounds of these riflemen and his action expedited speedy evacuations. The courage and initiative of this man under enemy fire is highly commendable, reflecting credit upon himself and the Armed Forces. Entered military service from Newton Upper Falls, Massachusetts.

Previous to entering the service two years ago last February Corp. Pearson was employed in the real estate department, Bray Hall office of the Newton-Waltham Bank and Trust Company.

Capt. Wm. Keville Admitted to Hospital

PAWLING, N. Y.—Captain William J. Keville Jr. of Newton, who recently returned from a 24 month tour of duty as a fighter control officer with the 9th AAF Air Force in France, has been admitted to the Army Air Force Convalescent Hospital, Pawling, N. Y., for treatment and rest. While at this hospital, one of several operated by the AAF Personnel Distribution Command, he will participate in the physical training and vocational activities of the convalescent services division of the hospital.

Capt. Keville attended Bowdoin College before entering the Air Force in April, 1942. He resides with his wife, Marie, at 17 Montrose street, Newton. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Keville, live at 174 School street, Belmont, Mass.

W.C.T.U.

WESTOVER FIELD, MASS.—Cpl. Florence P. Boudreau, daughter of Mr. Augustus Boudreau, of 15 Richardson street, Newton, will join with other members of the WAC detachment at this First Air Force combat crew training school in marking the third anniversary of the Women's Army Corps on Monday, May 14. Cpl. Boudreau enlisted in the WAC in November of 1942. She is assigned to duty as a driver and AD—MUST—dispatcher in the base motor pool.

ment Office. They will be suitably inscribed with the Rotary book-plates to remind the students who use them of the fine interest and service Rotary has provided.

The need for a more adequate vocational library at Newton vocational library at Newton High school has long been recognized. The Rotary contribution is the beginning of a fund of $200 to be raised and utilized in the next two or three years to secure the best of texts, pamphlets, monographs and magazines being published on war and post-war vocations. The plan is to make the vocations library most effective by placing selections throughout the school in the library and study halls of the three buildings displayed in an attractive manner after the pattern of the mobile units used in Cushing General Hospital.

Governor Tobin To Address Association Of Business Schools

The sixth annual spring meeting of the Massachusetts Council of Business Schools will be held on Saturday, May 12, at the Women's Republican Club, Boston.

This Association was organized six years ago by a group of leading private business school owners in collaboration with the Boston Better Business Bureau, for the purpose of adopting a code of standards and ethics. Today it is the leading organization of its kind in the country.

The morning session of the all-day meeting will be devoted to a discussion of current educational problems presently confronting private business schools. Already these schools have received a substantial enrollment of veterans whose primary intent seems to be to secure a specialized training which will fit them to earn a livelihood as soon as, and as effectively as, possible. In this respect the Council is convinced that its members can render a constructive service.

At the afternoon session The Honorable Maurice J. Tobin will address the meeting. The other speaker will be Mr. T. O. Brewster, Traffic Representative of American Airlines, Inc., who will speak on "Transportation Now And For The Future."

Newly elected officers will be: President, Mr. J. Earle Bradley, The Bentley School of Accounting and Finance, Boston; Vice President, Mr. W. P. McIntosh, Jr., The Kinyon School, New Bedford; Secretary, Mrs. Esther C. Mortimer, Newton Secretarial School, Newton; Treasurer, Miss Alice Barrie, Lowell Commercial College, Lowell.

Pfc. Wenning Missing in Action

Word has been received by Mr. and Mrs. Emil E. Wenning of 210 Bellevue street, Newton that their son, Pfc. Kenneth W. Wenning, 19, a member of the 4th Armored Division with the Third Army in Germany, is missing in action.

Pfc. Wenning was graduated last year from the Newton High School and was inducted into the Army in September. He went overseas in January.

His brother, Emil Wenning, Jr. of North Weymouth, who served with the U.S. Marine Corps before the war, is about to be inducted into the armed forces under Selective Service. He also has a sister, Mrs. Ruth Bridges of Newton.

Frank

Pupils and teachers in Newton High School have paid this tribute to Franklin Delano Roosevelt. It was written by Roger Mergendahl, and appeared in The Newtonian, May 3, 1945.

We were tired. Everybody knew we were tired. He knew he was tired. So he did. The country's soldiers marched in honor of him; the trumpets blew for him; the flag was lowered for him; there were speeches said about him and prayers said for him. He had a beautiful funeral and he had a beautiful burial, but he didn't see them. He didn't see the soldiers march; he didn't hear the trumpets blow and the people weep. He wasn't here; no, he was up there where there are no trumpets, no marching, no tears. He was up there in Heaven in his wheelchair with God. God took his hand and said simply, "Well done, Frank," and Frank felt warm and good inside. "Get up out of your chair, Frank, and come in and join the others." So Frank rose and walked into the clouds and the sun and stars. And when he had entered, he met them; they were all there, Abe Lincoln, George Washington, Wendell Willkie, Woodrow Wilson, and there at the head sat Joe. You don't know Joe, but Frank did. Joe is just a boy who died. He died in 405 under Attila's sword. He died in the Crusades, in the Napoleonic wars, in the French, Spanish, English, and American Revolutions, in World War One and World War II. He died a million deaths under a million flags in a million different battles. Frank knew him well; he knew them all well. He sat down beside them, content at last. If you go out on a clear night, you can see him in the stars, at noon in the sun, and on top of the mountain, his face is formed in the majestic clouds. You can see them all, Frank and Abe and George and Joe. They're all there. Well done. R.M.

In The Service

Second Lieutenant Oscar Salvador Cornejo, son of Mrs. Eva Cornejo, 49 Walker street, Newtonville, who was graduated recently from the Marine Air-Infantry School at Quantico, Va. Lieut. Cornejo enlisted in the Marine Corps in August of 1943, and was commissioned in December, 1944.

Frank A. Day Junior High School

Enthusiasm in the purchase of bonds and stamps hit a new high last week as the school participated 100% to the sum of $1535.40. Each home room on reaching the 100% goal was eligible to select a pin-up boy and a pin-up girl. During the 7th War Loan Drive pin-up candidates will participate in the major contest. Each purchase of a stamp or bond will grant the buyer one vote for his favorite contestant. Ace salemen were all from Grade 7, Jean Webber holding first place, June Boulter, second.

John Rattigan, Room 22 has recently been selected to the Boys' Cafeteria Staff. The Girls' Cafeteria Staff selected Betsey Breed as Captain.

A film, Growth of a City, was presented before the 9th Grade Social Studies Groups as a feature of the Visual Aids program. Varsity Baseball games were held at Cabot Park on Wednesday, May 2.

Newton Red Cross Home Nursing Committee To Sponsor Meeting May 21

On Monday evening, May 21, there will be a meeting in the Auditorium of the Newton High School, at 8:00, sponsored by the Newton Red Cross Home Nursing Committee. The meeting is especially designed for wives and mothers of service men to help prepare them for the return of the boys from the fighting fronts.

Mrs. B. Alden Thresher, chairman, Home Nursing, Newton Chapter Red Cross, will preside and the principal speaker will be Lt. Com. Helen Lord who has just come to this area from Philadelphia to serve as Senior Nurse in the 1st Naval District. She will speak briefly and will show two films that are being released for the first

Pvt. Reines in Guam Hospital

Pvt. Lawrence J. Reines, USMC, 19, son of Dr. and Mrs. Harold B. Reines of 279 Commonwealth avenue, Newton Centre has been hospitalized on Guam where he is being treated for a shrapnel wound in one of his legs.

After graduating from the Newton High School last year he entered the Marine Corps in July and went overseas in November. He received the leg wound after 13 days of fighting on Iwo Jima.

time for civilian showing in this vicinity. One film is called "Navy Nurse" which shows what is being done by the navy for our boys in service; the other film shows the medical support given our amphibious operations.

Other speakers will be Mrs. Katherine P. Cowin, chairman of Home Nursing for the Metropolitan Boston Chapter, who will tell briefly something of the National Red Cross Home Nursing program, and Mrs. Sarah Woodworth, Director of Nursing Services for the Newton Chapter, who will speak of local plans.

The meeting promises to be an intensely interesting one and is open to the general public. "This is a most unusual opportunity for Newton women," states Mrs. Thresher, "and we hope that they will take advantage of this chance to see what the armed forces are doing for their men. We know that a large number of Newton boys will be returning home soon—some of them from military hospitals—and it is up to each one of us to prepare herself to give the boys as fine care at home as they have been receiving in the Army and Navy."

Mrs. Marshall To Be Honored By Her Late 90's Pupils

Fifty years ago Miss Teresa Glasheen saw the beginning of a long procession of little boys in funny looking short pants, and little girls in choker-collars, long skirts and pig tails, passing through her classroom in the Hyde Grammar school, Newton Highlands. On Saturday, June 16, many of these former boys and girls are going back to school—to the same school—to honor their teacher, who is now Mrs. Louis H. Marshall, of 10 Hartford street, Newton Highlands.

A grand reunion is expected by those who went to Miss Glasheen for their early schooling. It is estimated that there are 125 of them, but some will be unable to return at this time to the scene of one of the happiest periods of their life.

There's Warren F. Draper, for instance. Probably Mrs. Marshall recalls him as a scrawny youngster whose slicked down hair couldn't be kept out of his eager eyes. He can't attend because he's serving with General Dwight D. Eisenhower as Major General. Other graduates are Fred H. Lahee, Chief Geologist, Sun Oil Company, Dallas, Texas, and Dr. George King who is associated with Dr. Truesdale in Fall River. However, many of the members of the classes between 1896 and 1901 are more fortunately situated and have already indicated that they will be on hand. Harold Field Kellogg, Boston architect, will be there. You couldn't keep him away. Also present will be Helen Wood, head of the nursing school at Simmons College, Mason H. Stone, now a Boston attorney and Kenneth S. May who is serving for the duration as executive vice chairman of the Massachusetts War Finance Committee.

And some are coming from distant places including Guy Spooner from Joplin, Mo. The affair will begin with a nostalgic get-together with the teacher of beloved memories. Incidentally, Mrs. Marshall is still active pedagogically—she continues to tutor in Latin. Her former youngsters will bring reminders of their school days in the form of class photos, etc., and it wouldn't be at all surprising if some pockets bulged with a shined-up apple. Photos taken years ago will be displayed at the gathering. A banquet will follow.

Following are members of the committee in charge: Herbert E. Gleason, '98, Quincy, chairman; Henry E. Warren, '97, class chairman; Harold F. Kellogg, '98, class chairman; Marion H. Stone, '99, class chairman; Marion H. Dorr, '00, class chairman, and Kenneth S. May, '07, class chairman.

Hospital Aides Sponsor Dessert Bridge

Bouquets of spring flowers decorated the lounges and living rooms of the nurses' home of Newton hospital, Tuesday afternoon, for the seventh annual dessert bridge sponsored by the hospital aid association, with Mrs. Worthington L. West of Newton Centre, as general chairman. Mrs. Theron B. Walker, of Newton Highlands, president of the association, was assisted by Mrs. Edward W. Pride of West Newton, 1st vice president, and Mrs. Frank R. Clark of Newtonville, chairman of tickets for the bride, in greeting guests at the door. The rooms of the nurses' home, of which Miss Ethel Dudley is hostess, were most attractive with their colorful bouquets, arranged by Mrs. Hubert L. Carter of West Newton as chairman of decorations and her assistant, Mrs. Garrett Schenck, Jr.

Under the direction of Mrs. Harold R. Keller, of West Newton, chairman of refreshments, coffee and small cakes were served to the more than 400 guests at small tables by Mrs. Francis F. Munroe, chairman of waitresses, and her twenty-one assistants, including several on vacation from Smith and Vassar, and others at home with their parents while their husbands are in the service. These waitresses were: Miss Sally Danner, Mrs. Phillip C. Ellis, Mrs. Robert H. Ford, Mrs. Gilbert T. Mauch, Miss Anne Macmillan and her guest Miss Joan Pendleton of Bangor, Maine, Miss Ann McCutcheon and Miss Sarah Jane Wright, all of Waban; Mrs. William E. Biddle, Jr., Mrs. Richard B. Dorr, Mrs. Henry D. Furness, Mrs. Richard L. Kenney, and Mrs. Arthur L. Shaw, of Auburndale; Mrs. Neil Leonard of Newton, Mrs. David Livingston and Miss Nancy Pratt of Wellesley; Mrs. Franklin W. Scott of Newton Highlands, and Mrs. Donald Conant, Mrs. James B. Pearson, Mrs. Henry S. Russell and Mrs. Joseph C. Skinner of West Newton.

Mrs. Franklin W. Scott was chairman of prizes and these were gardenias which were carried on huge silver trays for the high player at each table. Others of Mrs. West's committee contributing to the success of the bridge were Mrs. Paul M. Goddard, of Auburndale, setting of tables; Mrs. Edgar S. Burkhardt and Mrs. Sterling N. Loveland, of Newton, chairs and tables; Miss Mary E. Steeves of Newton Centre, ashtrays and tallies, and Mrs. Ernest P. Ralback of Newtonville, publicity.

Lucy Jackson Chapter, DAR

The Annual Meeting of the Lucy Jackson Chapter, D.A.R., will be held on Monday, May Fourteenth, at the Chapter House, Newton Lower Falls.

After Reports and Election of Officers a lecture, with colored lantern slides, on "Colonial Landmarks of Virginia" will be given. Mrs. Charles R. Lynde is Chairman of the committee serving refreshments with Mrs. Mervin S. Giles in charge of table decorations.

With Victory in Europe Americans may be proud of their ability to work together for the good of all.

We justly feel our cause has been right . . . A cause based upon the principle that all men are free . . . We have fought a good fight so that principle may stand forever. A final extending peace is in sight . . . Let us continue our righteous efforts to achieve that noble objective.

VICTORY

REAL REASON for Thankfulness

That Victory in Europe has been won by the United Nations and that with God's help we will continue towards victory in the Pacific with renewed confidence.

Our prayers, too, that the coming peace may be true and enduring.

VICTORY

Just as in 1776, the bells of Freedom have rung out for a new victory for liberty-loving people everywhere. In liberty there is that which leads to achievement . . . and to a better world.

We have struggled for months and we will continue to struggle so that all mankind may enjoy our freedom and that struggle has resulted in a noble victory over evil forces.

"THAT THESE DEAD SHALL NOT HAVE DIED IN VAIN"

Abraham Lincoln said it, and in this war, as in the war of which Lincoln spoke . . . many of our boys have fought and died in a war testing whether "this nation — or any nation so conceived can long endure."

The first victory has been won and it is up to us to see that "these dead shall not have died in vain." Let us pay tribute by continuing, untiring action in support of our fighting men until peace one more reigns throughout the world.

Burgett - Cormier

Mrs. Elizabeth Cormier of 19 West street, Newton announces the marriage of her daughter, Miss Irene L. Cormier to S. L. Robert J. Burgett, Jr., son of Captain (Ret.) and Mrs. Robert J. Burgett of New Orleans, La. The ceremony took place on Friday, May 4th, at Daytona Beach, Florida.

Wilder - Foster

On Saturday, May 5th, in the presence of the immediate families, Christine C. Foster of West Medford became the bride of Frank M. Wilder of 229 Newtonville avenue, Newton.

The afternoon ceremony was performed in the Mizpah Chapel of the West Somerville Baptist Church by the Rev. Howard C. Whitcomb, D.D., and the Rev. J. Franklin Knotts, D.D.

Jacks - Chandler

At a candlelight ceremony on Tuesday, May 1st, Miss Mary Z. Chandler, USNR (W) became the bride of Keith Vance Jacks, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. U. Jacks of Thayer, Kansas. The Rev. Dr. Charles N. Arbuckle performed the ceremony in the First Baptist Church, Newton Centre.

The bride was gowned in white satin, her long veil of tulle and lace held by a halo of white roses, and she carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and sweet peas. Miss Virginia Robinson, of Newton, was the maid of honor. Miss Robinson was gowned in larkspur blue and carried pink roses and larkspur.

Dean P. Waite, of Newton, was best man for Mr. Jacks, and the ushers were the Rev. E. Spencer Parsons, Lee S. Patterson, both of Newton, Ensign Leroy G. Seils of New York, and John Hawkins, USNR, of Newton.

Following a wedding trip to Kansas, the bride will return to Seattle, Washington, where she is stationed and Mr. Jacks will return to his assignment.

Nelson - Stewart

Cala lilies, white snapdragon and carnations decorated the Lincoln Park Baptist Church for the candlelight wedding of Miss Grace Elizabeth Stewart, daughter of Mrs. Charles E. Stewart of 19 Auburn street, West Newton, and the late Mr. Stewart, and Stanley W. Nelson, MM 2-c, son of Mr. John Nelson, 24 Wiswold street, West Newton. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. William Blake, pastor of the church, on Sunday, May 6.

Given in marriage by her brother, Kenneth Stewart, the bride wore a floor length gown of white satin with an over-skirt of tulle trimmed with satin, bows, and a finger tip veil of tulle. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and sweet peas. The bride's only attendant was her sister, Mrs. Russell K. Carle, Mrs. Carle wore a gown of pink chiffon, a matching shoulder length veil of tulle with a coronet of pink flowers, and carried a spring bouquet. The bride's mother wore a hat trimmed with rose-colored flowers and a corsage of tulips in a matching shade with her black dress studded with nail-heads.

The groom's brother, Carl Nelson of West Newton served as his best man, and another brother, Sgt. Alf. E. Nelson, and William MacLaughlin, both of West Newton, were ushers.

A reception was held in the church parlor following the ceremony. The bride is a graduate of Newton High School and is employed by the Massachusetts Mohair & Plush Company of Boston.

The groom graduated from Newton High School and has just returned from over two years duty in the Pacific theatre. After a wedding trip to New York, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson will be at home at 19 Auburn street, West Newton, for a few weeks while Mr. Nelson awaits reassignment.

Channing Church

The service at Channing Church on Sunday, May 13, at 10:45 o'clock will be conducted by the Rev. Augustus P. Record, D.D., the subject of his sermon being: "As One Who Serves."

Dr. Record, prominent in the Unitarian Fellowship, was minister of the First Congregational Unitarian Church in Detroit, Michigan, from 1919 to 1929, going there from a fourteen year's ministry at Springfield, Massachusetts.

Following his graduation from Brown University, which later conferred the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity upon him, Dr. Record was graduated from Harvard Divinity School in 1895. His pastorates have been in Chelsea and Cambridge, Mass., and Newport, R. I., besides Springfield and Detroit.

In Springfield, Dr. Record took a conspicuous part in community affairs. He was chairman of the housing committee, a member of the commission which drafted the Springfield building code, a member of two successive charter revision committees, a member of the chamber of commerce and of the Associated Charities and Rotary Club. He is a former director of the American Unitarian Association and of the Unitarian Sunday school Society.

Dr. Record has been sent out to the Pacific Coast by the American Unitarian Association as a Billings lecturer and has been for years a popular preacher and lecturer on platforms and in pulpits in widely separated sections of the country.

Dew - Coleman

Miss Hilda Coleman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Coleman became the bride of Maurice R. Dew, son of Mrs. Ruth Dew of 135 Winchester street, Newton Highlands, on Sunday afternoon, May 6. The two o'clock ceremony was performed by the Rev. Daniel Hawyer, Ph.D., of the Newton Centre Methodist Church, and was followed by a reception.

The bride wore a princess gown of white satin, a fingertip veil of net and carried white lilies. Miss Lillian Morrow, the maid of honor, wore aqua and carried scarlet carnations. Mrs. Coleman was gowned in navy while Mrs. Dew chose black with blue accessories.

Mrs. Dew was graduated from Major Edwards School and is associated with the Connecticut School for Boys in Meriden, Conn. Mr. Dew is serving in the Navy.

Brennan - Hayes

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Margaret J. Hayes, daughter of Mrs. George E. Hayes of Wakefield and the late Mr. Hayes, and Charles W. Brennan of Newton, son of Mr. Daniel J. Brennan of Charlestown. The ceremony was performed in St. Joseph's Church, Wakefield, on Sunday, April 29, by the Rev. James McCarthy.

Mrs. Mary D. Hoyt of Wakefield and Daniel A. Brennan of Belmont, brother of the groom, were the attendants.

Mrs. Brennan is a graduate of the Katharine Gibbs School.

Rothenberg - Lewis

The State Suite at the Copley Plaza, Boston, was decorated with calla lilies and greens on April 29th, for the wedding of Miss Ruth Gladys Lewis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Lewis of 50 Chapin road, Newton Centre and Jack Henry Rothenberg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Rothenberg of Long Island, New York. The six o'clock ceremony was performed by Rabbi Samuel Abrahams and was followed by a reception in the Sheraton Room.

The bride wore a gown of white faille fashioned with a long train. Her veil of illusion was held by a coronet of orange blossoms and she carried a cascade bouquet of white orchids, stephanotis and bouvardia. Mrs. Allen S. Lewis, of Newton, was the matron of honor, wearing American Beauty faille taffeta. Miss Sylvia Rothenberg, of New York, in a princess style gown of pink satin, was the maid of honor.

The bridesmaid, Miss Phyllis Schultz of Brookline and Miss Muriel Zeller, of Newton, wore dusty rose faille taffeta gowns. S-Sgt. Myron Lewis of Newton was best man and the ushers were Allen Lewis of Newton, Lawrence Daniels of Boston, Milton Bernstein of New York and Milton Bernstein of Hartford, Ct.

The bride is a graduate of Calvin Coolidge College. Mr. Rothenberg is a graduate of the College of the City of New York, the American School of Finance, and Columbia University. Following the wedding trip through New York State, Mr. and Mrs. Rothenberg will make their home in Jackson Heights, Long Island.

Clarke-Greene

The Union Church, Waban was decorated with flowers and ferns on Saturday May 5th, for the marriage of Miss Eleanor Elizabeth Greene and Richard Brewer Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. Irving G. Clark of 11 Irvington street, Waban. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Joseph C. MacDonald at four o'clock. The wedding march was played by Mr. Harold Schwab. A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Greene, of 83 Neholiden road, Waban.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a satin gown of candlelight white with a matching veil and carried lilies-of-the-valley, gardenias, and sweet peas. Miss Norma Waldbillig, of Waban, in pale blue, was maid of honor. Her bouquet combined contrasting flowers in pink and peach. Miss Elaine Baldwin, of Waban, in pale peach, was the bridesmaid. Her flowers were blue and white. Mrs. Greene chose a gown of royal blue lace and Mrs. Clark wore an aqua gown with black ornamentation.

Nathaniel Bartholomae, of Waban, was the best man for Mr. Clark. The ushers were Talmadge Clark of Belmont, Leonard Ayers and Albert Morse, both of Waban. Mr. Clark and his bride, a graduate of the Newton High School, Chandler School and Brookline Junior College, will be at home in Needham after the first of June. Mr. and Mrs. Clark left for New York City and Atlantic City, New Jersey.

Moyer - Stetson

Mr. and Mrs. Leon W. Stetson of 334 Marlboro street, Boston, formerly of West Newton, have the honor to announce the marriage of their daughter, Seelye Marie, to Mr. Louis F. Moyer on Easter Sunday at Lampasas, Texas.

Waban Girl Wins Music Honors

On Saturday, April 28, Cynthia Brown of Waban was awarded highest possible honor rating of "Superior" when she played in the Junior Competitive Festival held in Boston under the sponsorship of the National Federation of Music Clubs.

The competition includes performance requirements in all grades of proficiency. Three times before in lower grades Cynthia has won the same rating and this year entered the highest class where the requirement was the playing of a movement from a concerto. She played the first movement of Beethoven's Piano Concerto in D Minor with her mother doing the orchestral part at the second piano. All three judges gave her a grade of 95% or over.

Although the competition is open to federated juniors in Massachusetts up to the age of eighteen, Cynthia has completed the requirement at fifteen years of age and is now eligible to enter the Students Contests. These lead eventually to participation in a competition for a national award of $1000 with performance assured with one of the leading orchestras of the country.

Recent Engagements

Dr. Raymond Speaks At Family Service Bureau Meeting

Dr. C. Stanley Raymond, Superintendent Wrentham State School, was guest speaker at the May meeting of the Family Service Bureau of Newton Wednesday. He described the development of the State schools for feeble-minded and the present program. Dr. Raymond emphasized the fact that although they offer scholastic training through the fourth grade, equal emphasis is placed on the social training of the pupils as well as the development of their skills in industrial work. Training for one hundred industries is offered the children at Wrentham. In addition to this program, there is a full program of sports, as well as participation in the band, glee club, and choir offered at the school. With the present population of 2,000, Wrentham at present has a waiting list of 1,300. The expansion of State schools must be included in post-war planning.

Our hats come off and our heads bow in tribute to those courageous men and women on the fighting front, and to those on the production front.
Working together they have brought Victory to the United Nations and peace to a part of the troubled world. A first step, yes... But, total victory now is in sight.

VICTORY for the United Nations has been won... And we of this community are proud of the part we have been privileged to play in this Victory...
All together, with our fighting men and women, we have helped vanquish a foe...

But our responsibilities grow... for now we must fight our own urge to slow up.

WHILE a single foe of freedom remains, we must continue as we have begun... we must back up the fight with all our might... There can be no question of ultimate Victory.

Newton Sergeant
First To Enter
Berchtesgaden

Sgt. Frederic H. Butts, 25, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. Marsena Butts of 306 Franklin street, Newton, and a member of the Combat Engineers, USA, has the distinction of being the first of his group to enter Adolf Hitler's tea room at Berchtesgaden, atop of 7500 ft.
high Hehlstein Mountain.

Sgt. Butts, who is with the 7th
Army, led a party of newspaper reporters and other GIs up the long trail to the hideout which was found to be lavishly furnished and equipped with all kinds of modern conveniences.

Sgt. Butts, a graduate of Tabor Academy was in his senior year at the University of the South in Tennessee when he entered the Army in 1942. He went overseas last November.

His brother, Parker Butts is a lieutenant in the Air Force and pilot of a B-24 bomber based in England. He has one sister, Miss Nancy Butts of Newton. Another brother, Pfc. Stephen M. Butts, Army Air Forces, was killed late last year in the crash of a B-29 in India. Their father is a former member of the Newton School Committee.

Newton Residents
Join United Air Lines

Appointment of Winslow Blanche of Newton Highlands as salesman for United Air Lines at Boston has been announced by Edward V. Whitton, district traffic manager at Boston, in connection with United's inauguration of direct east-west service into New England May 1.

Announcement is also made of the appointments of Miss Mary Katherine Kennedy of Newton
Highlands and Mrs. Roberta Mary Hudson of Newtonville as reservation agents for United Air Lines at Boston.

Miss Kennedy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond C. Kennedy.

Mrs. Hudson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Ward of Newtonville.

Two Newton Youngsters
On WCOP Quiz Program

Two Newton youngsters will be heard on the WCOP program,
"The Musikiids Quiz," this Friday, April 27, at 7:15 p.m. The program designed for musically inclined young people is a regular Friday feature of station WCOP's schedule.

Judy Trunell, 11-year-old singer, will be this week's musical spotlight on the Musikiids show. Judy's home is at 415 Highland street, Newtonville.

Taking his place as one of the three Musikiids answering musical questions in the weekly quiz will be John Whitney, 14, who lives at 61 Erie avenue, Newton Highlands.

Frank A. Day Junior High School

Memorial services for our late Commander-in-Chief were held in the Frank A. Day Junior High School assembly hall on Friday, April 13. Mrs. Lorraine Holmes, faculty member, had charge and took part in the services. Robert St. George was chairman, and Allen Boyer gave a biography of the President. All joined in appropriate music with the orchestra under the direction of Mr. Jurgielwicz and Robert Farnham played on the trumpet.

Under Mr. Tanner's planning we also have a student committee working on a fitting celebration of V-E Day. Student chairman is Kenneth McKusick. Other members are Allen Boyer, Virginia
Trix, Lucy Barbo, and William Haberer.

The clothing drive was answered by many of our boys and girls in addition to their responses from other agencies. The Girls' Gym Meet, hitherto not reported on, was won by Grade Nine.

Miss Johnstone, principal, received a letter from Mr. Robert

Letter to Editor

The peaceful world we all hanker for is going to require a lot of courage in the planning as well as a lot of cooperation in the carrying out. Statesmen have a constant tendency to hang back from steps they want to take. They realize the importance of certain things but are persuaded that "people are not ready for that yet." So they fall short of the great step, though they are themselves dissatisfied with the short step they take. This time they must not fall short. We must not let the peace make them realize that we, their people, are eager to support them in every step that will promote a world of peace, whatever other sacrifice it may call on us to make.

Secretary Stettinius has asked people, especially through the Churches, to discuss the Dumbarton Oaks Proposals; to inform our delegates of the changes we think essential in them to make the coming world organization effective.
The statesmen, in other words, are anxious to know how far they have popular support. They will be immensely strengthened in all negotiations by evidences of a great wave of popular demand for those positive powers in a world organization that will increase trust and harmony among nations.

Case No. 19347
THE COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS
LAND COURT

To City of Newton, a municipal corporation located in the County of Middlesex and said Commonwealth; Edith Ewen Abbt, Richmond, Loring Melcher, Jr. and Elizabeth B. Melcher of Newton, in said County of Middlesex; Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York, a duly existing corporation having an usual place of business in New York, in the State of New York; John MacDonald and Ada E. MacDonald, residences unknown, or their heirs, devisees or legal representatives; and to all whom it may concern.

Whereas, a petition has been presented to said Court by J. Everett Burdick and Edna B. Burdick, of said Newton, to register and confirm their title in the following described land:

A certain parcel of land with the buildings thereon, situated in that part of said Newton called Newton Lower Falls, bounded and described as follows:

Southeasterly by Grayson Lane
92.94 feet; Southwesterly by land now or formerly of Edith Ewen Abbt 82.30 feet; Northwesterly by land now or formerly of the City of Newton 98 feet; and Northeasterly by lands now or formerly
et al 100.05 feet.

shown on a plan filed with said petition and all boundary lines are claimed to be located on the ground as shown on said plan.

If you desire to make any objection or defense to said petition you or your attorney must file a written appearance and an answer under oath, setting forth clearly and specifically your objections or defense to each part of said petition, in the office of the Recorder of said Court in Boston (at the Court House), on or before the fourth day of June next.

Unless an appearance is so filed by or for you, your title will be recorded, said petition will be taken as confessed and you will be forever barred from contesting said petition or any decree entered thereon.

Witness, JOHN E. FENTON, Esquire, Judge of said Court, this second day of May in the year nineteen hundred and forty-five.

Attest with Seal of said Court,
ROBERT E. FRENCH, Recorder.

Edwin R. Trafton, Esq., 141 Milk Street, Boston, Mass. For the Petitioners.

and in the hearts of their members.

A large inter-church Conference at Cleveland last January approved of international cooperation but felt that D.O. was very inadequate; nine specific suggestions for improvement were formulated. The Commission on a Just and Durable Peace, 297 Fourth Avenue, N.Y.C., will supply a report of them. The Fellowship of Reconciliation has just issued an analysis setting out four factors that seem essential to them; these can be obtained at 2929 Broadway, N.Y.C. Our Couples Club here at St. Mary's had a very lively evening 10 days ago discussing this question and sent our recommendations to the U. S. delegates. They were much like the FOR report, but added a plea for some law-making power in the Assembly, so that "there may be a progressive subordination of force to law."

Many of us remember the wave of enthusiasm for international good-will that overran all countries in 1919—and how our statesmen then let us down at Versailles. Is it true that now we have delegates who will do the trick, and will work for it boldly and patiently if assured of our support? Every well-considered suggestion will count, whether it has one or a hundred signers. Send them to senators or to "United States Delegates at San Francisco." We shall have to work as hard to get a peace as we shall have to work later to keep it.

Roger W. Bennett.

Addresses Newton Bankers

Nearly 150 members of the Newton Bankers Association attended the 18th annual meeting of the organization, held April 27, 1945 at the Brae Burn Country Club.

President George L. White introduced Dr. O. M. W. Sprague,
Professor Emeritus of Harvard University and former Financial and Executive Advisor to the Secretary of the Treasury of the United States.

Dr. Sprague discussed U. S.
Government Bonds; the control of interest rates and the effect upon the market; the probable increase in general price levels; and, briefly, the Bretton Woods Proposal.

Mayor Paul M. Goddard spoke in commendation of those who worked so effectively in the Red Cross drive and urged all citizens to support the Seventh War Loan.

He also spoke briefly of the financial condition of the City of Newton.

Officers elected for the coming year were as follows: President, Henry A. Wentworth, vice president of the Newton National Bank and director of the Auburndale
Cooperative Bank; vice president, Kenneth W. Rogers, assistant treasurer of the West Newton Savings Bank; secretary, Benjamin H.

Wragg, treasurer of the New-
F. Louis, treasurer of the Newton ton Centre Savings Bank.

Raytheon Plans Broadcast Station in Waltham

Negotiations are under way with the Waltham, Massachusetts, Park Commissioners to permit Raytheon Manufacturing Co. to lease a site in Prospect Hill Park for the erection of a television and FM broadcasting station.

This is one of the highest points in Metropolitan Boston and on May 3 Governor Maurice J. Tobin signed a Bill authorizing the city of Waltham to lease certain portions of the park.

The petitioners on the Bill were Senator Richard I. Furbush and Representative Chauncey Cousins, of Waltham, and Representative Charles E. Ferguson, of Lexington. Horace T. Cahill represented Raytheon as attorney.

Red Cross Assists Prisoners of War in Sending Word Home

The War Department has worked out a plan through National Red Cross whereby the Red Cross will assist in speeding up the notification to families of prisoners liberated. This has just been released by Miss Ethel Knight, executive secretary of the Newton Red Cross Home Service Division.

"Inasmuch as it is considered that notification and inquiry service are important morale factors," said Miss Knight, "Chapters have been asked to notify the families of prisoners when the men have requested this service. Liberated prisoners of war, who for various reasons are unable to send cables to their families, may request Red Cross field directors to send notices to their families."

The addresses of these men, however, are not available because most of the requests will be made while they are enroute to ports of debarkation. Consequently, it will be impossible for the family to send messages or inquiries to the men who are on their way home. All liberated prisoners of war, Miss Knight went on to explain, have priority for return to the United States, and their families will be notified in advance of their (Continued on Page 4)

Hospital Name Is Changed

In recognition of the fact that Newton Hospital is a community hospital primarily serving residents of the Newton and Wellesley area, the members of the hospital corporation have voted to take the required steps to change its name to the Newton-Wellesley Hospital, according to an announcement made today by Clifford H. Walker, president of the corporation.

Approval of the new name was given at a meeting of the incorporators held at the hospital, Thursday evening, May 10, at which time Charles Raymond Cabot, clerk of the corporation, presented a recommendation from the board of trustees that such action be taken.

Honor Roll Is Enlarged

Enlargement of the Honor Roll at the Newton City Hall to include all names of Newton men and women in service has been completed and a rearrangement of the more than 8,000 names has been undertaken by Commissioner Of Veterans Services Edmund T. Dungan, acting for the Honor Roll Committee.

Under the new arrangement all names with gold stars, signifying those who died in the service, will appear on the board in the center of the Honor Roll and under them will be posted the names of those missing in action, represented by a red star. The enlargement of the Honor Roll was made necessary by the fact that the number of servicemen exceeded advance estimates. It is the second time that the board has been enlarged since its establishment.

Unfinished Business

V-E Day has come and gone. With cheers and prayers Americans hailed the collapse of Nazi military might and the greatest triumph of United States arms in history.

But the Victory in Europe Day celebration was tempered by the realization of the gigantic war tasks still remaining in the Pacific. Even though the war in the West is completed, America has plenty of unfinished business in the East.

The country's best military leaders constantly point out that our forces have just begun to dent the inner defense line of Japan. Tokio broadcasts reveal the Japanese determination to continue the fight despite the crumbling of its Nazi partner. The Sons of Heaven still control the long curve of Asia stretching from Manchuria to the East Indies.

This unfinished business ahead will require the production of more planes, more ships, more food, more guns, more tanks, more medical supplies. It will cost thousands of lives and billions of dollars.

The Seventh War Loan which started this week is the first step in completing the "unfinished business." The $700,000,000 which Massachusetts is asked to raise, $238,000,000 of this amount from individuals alone, will pay for the offensives of the future.

The success of the Seventh War Loan will mean greater military triumphs leading to total peace. It will mean the beginning of the end of the costly business of war.

Newton Rotary Club

"Youth Looks To The Post-War Years" was the theme of a panel discussion by five Newton High School pupils at Newton Rotary Club on Friday in a program sponsored by Clarence Mease, Chairman, Youth Service Committee, and Secretary, YMCA. Rhoda May Dorsey, Cynthia Johnson, David Pynchon, Morris Alberts and David Wyman each gave a three-minute expression of the aspirations of youth in a changing world, and provided one of the most interesting and instructive programs of the Rotary year.

Youth is thinking of itself as a community within a community, a youth group within the community group, and in respect to certain minority racial elements, finds itself as a sector within the youth measure of understanding and companionship by adults, and thinks it sees parents having less and less time to spare with them.

Youth believes it has ideas which deserve a hearing by adults, ideas which are pertinent to its future—for example, its view on compulsory military training. It feels that what adults term "experience" may actually be acquired prejudices.

Youth is convinced that our future government will be directed toward socialism, government ownership, co-operatives; that we must learn to live together in the pattern of the Rotary fellowship which brings acquaintance and understanding of minority groups, and the conception that "Tolerance" means "Equality."

It was emphasized that youth looks upon war and a changing world as having given them the opportunity to think more like adults, that maturity of mind has been accelerated during the war years, and that the ideas expressed by youth should not be arbitrarily dismissed by adults.

This program was an additional implementation of Newton Rotary Club's Youth Service program which already is expressed in its Scholarship Fund, Student Loan Fund and the sponsorship of an Air Scout Troop.

President Orville Clapper announced that Newton has now collected 93,334 lbs. of clothing comprising 1860 bales boxes and cartons in the UNRRA clothing drive.

Politics With Color

by P. W. C.

(The opinions expressed in this column are the writer's own, and do not necessarily reflect the views or policy of this newspaper.—Editor's Note.)

San Francisco Conference

To be perfectly frank, my opinion is that the long-heralded San Francisco Conference is destined to be a wash-out. The reasons are unimportant at the moment. Mr. Roosevelt's sudden death, of course, threw a monkey wrench into the entire proceedings. It left the United States without a firm, guiding hand. That, in turn, meant that the Russian delegation would wield more power than had been anticipated. Mr. Molotov shrewdly allowed the Argentine question to come to a head and thereby proved to the other delegates that the United States could undoubtedly count on the support of a solid bloc of Pan American votes in the new organization. That amounted to twenty-one votes and is more strength than Russia will be able to muster, as matters now stand.

May I make two points here? First and foremost, it is obvious that power politics and unilateral pacts are here to stay. The rights of small nations appear to be in jeopardy. The Atlantic Charter has lost much of its meaning and the famous Yalta agreements do not seem to be standing up. A skeptic might even ask just what has been accomplished to date. Parenthetically, what a tremendous help it would have been had we had a universal language. That alone might have eased the tense Russian situation.

The second point is this. We heard a lot, prior to the conference, about having one or more delegates from the armed forces to act as kibitzers at San Francisco. Does anyone know that happened to this excellent proposal? My reason for asking is simply this. Last night I met an old friend whom I seldom see. She has four brothers in the service. It was my privilege to spend a little time with the youngest, a twenty-nine year old paratrooper, just discharged from the army. He has been nearly four years of service, all but about a year in combat duty. He is a perfect specimen of manhood, but he seems pretty well shot to pieces. He is a bundle of nerves. After a short talk, he is all in, due to a silver plate in his leg. A sniper got him in the chin, but the scar is not unduly noticeable. I am wondering what the future holds for this young American, who enlisted at a tender age of seventeen. Then there is this man's brother, home for a few days from a hospital. This chap is twenty-three and is in much worse shape. He failed to recognize his own sister when introduced twice to his brother-in-law. That accounts for two out of four brothers.

Now do my readers understand what is troubling me so much? What a pity that some of the old-time diplomats in Frisco cannot have a chat with some of these young heroes EVERY DAY, prior to starting their deliberations concerning the peace of the world.

Our Legislature

Many of you will doubtless recall the sensational charges leveled at our Legislature a short time ago by Leland Bickford, famous radio broadcaster from Medford. The Legislature was highly indignant, as might have been expected. It was intimated very broadly that certain members of that august body would respond to the wrong kind of arguments. As matters turned out, nothing happened after the furore subsided. The reason was, as I recall it, that Bickford found that the so-called "trial" would not be conducted in what he considered a proper manner. He wanted to summon witnesses and have them cross-examined.

Now we have a Democratic Senator, Joseph L. Murphy, announcing heatedly that dog-track and horse-track lobbyists are boldly marching from bar to bar and from hotel to hotel and even in the lobby of the State House, stating that the Senate and the House can be bought for a few drinks and a dinner. Wow! The rumormongers about the order passed by the Legislature, setting up a recess commission for the purpose of considering whether or not more revenue can be obtained for the state from the horse and dog tracks. Gov. Tobin wants to have a finger in the pie, but he has been by-passed by the Legislature's technique of passing an order rather than a bill. He has no power to veto an order. That is the meat in the coconut. Incidentally, there are six Democratic Senators who have been voting with the G.O.P. majority in this proposition. These men are presumably either anti-Tobin men or else specifically pro-Dever men.

This leads me to another thought. What will happen when Paul Dever, former Attorney General, returns to Massachusetts after the war is over? Dever has been in the Navy for several years. He is one of the best Democratic vote-getters within my memory. Will he proceed to challenge Gov. Tobin for top honors or will he try for the U. S. Senate?

Col. Henry Cabot Lodge

It is interesting to note that the Republicans, also, have the spectre of an uninvited guest at their feast in 1946. The Democrats have evinced their concern over the early campaign launched by Lt. Governor Bradford's friends for Governor in 1946. There is much to be said in favor of such a campaign. However, as my journalistic friend, Edward E. Whiting, pointed out so clearly in an article in the Worcester paper not long ago, there is an excellent chance that Col. Lodge will decide to re-enter the political arena when he returns to civil life. He might, to be sure, run against our Senior Senator, Hon. David I.

Raytheon—

Council had been approached by several private companies interested in utilizing a small part of the Prospect Hill Park but he expressed the opinion that, inasmuch as Raytheon will be one of the largest, if not the largest, post-war industries in Waltham, it should be accorded first consideration.

Rotarians and Kiwanians Hold Joint Meeting

The regular meeting of the Newton Rotary Club will be omitted Friday this week because of a joint meeting with the Kiwanis Club which was held at the Newton Y.M.C.A. last Wednesday.

President Orville Clapper of the Rotary Club presided at the joint meeting which was well attended. Ben Louis, Kiwanis president, made appropriate remarks of welcome. Jim Gallagher announced that the Kiwanis speaker next week would be Lt. Owen Gallagher, USNR, who has just returned from 20 months' duty in the Pacific area.

President Clapper of the Rotary Club announced that a city-wide paper collection would be conducted on Sunday, June 3. He called for volunteers from the two clubs to assist in loading trucks, inasmuch as "What's Cookin'" would share in the proceeds of the collection.

Ted Lockwood introduced the speaker, William Roger Greeley of Lexington, a member of the Boston Rotary Club who spoke on the Greater Boston Development Plan.

Mr. Greeley told of the Boston Center, which was sponsored last year by the Boston Society of Architects, Boston University, Boston Chamber of Commerce, Mayor Tobin, Governor Saltonstall and others. He said that many constructive ideas were brought out in the contest and that the best ideas of each entry would be developed and adopted.

The world is largely a world of cities, Mr. Greeley said, "and problems which are staggering will be presented. Nearly all European cities will have to be rebuilt, they will be modern 20th Century cities, and we will have to compete with them to do something to better ourselves up to their standards."

Mr. Greeley stated that the Boston plan does not take away any city governments from towns and cities in the area. An agency would be established, controlled by the city, and powers granted to it by the legislature, which could act for the entire Greater Boston Area on matters which concerned it.

He urged Rotarians and Kiwanians to interest themselves in the plan to study traffic and transit problems, to study port development plans and to read the entries submitted in the Greater Boston Development Contest, which have been combined in book form.

Miss Masnak, a graduate of Cornell University, attended Simmons College School of Social Work, obtaining her Master's Degree at the New York School of Social Work. For the past two years she has been employed by the Boston Children's Friend Society. Miss Masnak will assume her duties July 1st.

Attention! Returning Newton Veterans

"This message is directed to the Newton men who are returning to civilian life," said Charles B. Floyd, chairman of the Citizens' Advisory Committee for Returning Veterans. "We want to remind them again that we stand ready to assist them in every way possible, now that they have left the service and are back in the community once more."

Among the services which the committee is offering to returning veterans are a free photostatic copy of discharge papers, free physical examination by a competent physician, and assistance on any problem which may arise.

The Citizens' Advisory Committee office, situated in the Newtonville Library Building, 345 Walnut Street, (Highland Avenue entrance) is open Monday through Friday from 9 to 5, and Saturday from 9 to 12:30, telephone BIGelow 7600. John F. Wheelock, executive secretary, is ready at all times to talk with any of the returning veterans.

Newton Highlands Improvement Ass'n

The annual meeting of the Newton Highlands Improvement Association will be held at The Workroom, Columbus Street, Newton Highlands, at 8 p.m. on Tuesday, May 22.

Mrs. Albert S. Hutchinson will speak on "The Library Situation in Newton Highlands" and Mr. Charles B. Floyd will report on the "Citizens' Committee for Returning Veterans." All members and others interested are invited to attend.

Type "O" Blood To Be Flown To Guam Daily: Plasma A Vital Necessity

The Newton Red Cross Blood Donor Service will operate as usual, it was announced this week by Mrs. C. Terry Collins, chairman. She appealed to donors to "remain on the job" to meet the continued demands for whole blood and plasma from Europe and daily shipments to the Pacific war zone.

"The Boston blood center, through which Newton makes its donations, is one of eleven centers in major cities which will combine to meet the revised requirements of the Army and Navy," said Mrs. Collins. At least 500 donors a day will be needed at the center and 185 a day in each of two mobile units to maintain the Boston and Eastern New England quota."

All of the centers which will remain in operation procure type "O" blood as well as plasma. Air shipments of the whole blood to Europe will continue as long as needed for treatment of men wounded prior to the cessation of hostilities, and arrangements are now being completed for type "O" blood procured in Eastern centers to be shipped to the West Coast where, together with similar blood obtained there, it will be flown daily to Guam by the Naval Air Transport Service for distribution to Army, Navy and Marine installations throughout the Pacific.

Newton Red Cross Motor Corps furnishes transportation to and from the Boston blood donor center each Monday at 1 p.m. for individuals, and is ready to transport groups at any time. For appointments please call Lasell 6000.

Audubon Society Plans Local Bird Trip

The Massachusetts Audubon Society has arranged through its membership for a number of local bird trips throughout the State on the morning of May 19. At this time bird migration is at its height and groups may find from seventy-five to one hundred species of birds in almost any section of Massachusetts.

The Newton Highlands trip will start from 39 Forest Street under the leadership of Mrs. Ben Roberts and Mrs. E. D. Jones. All who are interested in observing birds are invited to join this trip, whether or not they are members of the Massachusetts Audubon Society. The starting time is 8 o'clock in the morning, and those taking the trip may continue until 4 p.m. or later, or they may drop out whenever they choose.

The Newton Centre trip will start from Beacon and Harvard parkway under the leadership of Priscilla Ordway.

Annual Plants May Be Obtained at Garden Club Sale

The sale of garden plants, both vegetable and flowers, to be held on May 19th by the Newton Highlands Garden Club is revealing tremendous interest on the part of home gardeners. It is to be in the Hyde School, from 2 to 6 o'clock. Hundreds of the best varieties of tomato plants are being grown for this sale. Onion sets are being brought from Virginia. Innumerable annuals for the flower gardens will be available.

Many advance orders are being received by the committee. To insure against disappointment, reservations can be made by telephone with Mrs. William J. Skinner, 52 Harrison Street—LAS. 1049.

Appeal for Materials

The thoughtfulness and generosity of many housekeepers in Newton for many years encourages us to again ask for leftover materials. Odds and ends gathered during the year such as spoons, stockings, ribbons, tape, pieces of silk, etc., are greatly appreciated. The materials and woolsen articles are greatly welcomed. The response to this plea has always been generous and the materials donated have helped to keep many hundreds of little children busy and happy during the summer vacation.

If you have a donation, the Recreation Department will call for it at your home by appointment; Call Recreation Department, BIGelow 4700.

TEEN-AGE

by MARV GOULD and LEE TYLER

The Newton Centre Rangers, after defeating the Burr Nine last week, walloped a twenty-four to two victory against the Newton Lions. The Rangers are defending their championship title which they won last year. Bob Murphy hurled for the Rangers, while Bob Gregory tried in vain to quell the rampage of hits for the Lions. . . . Lester Grinspoon has been elected president of the N. H. S. Aviation Club. . . . Doc Lombardi is to take charge of all musical effects for the Senior Night. . . . Can any other High School boast of having among its students a Queen of a Maritime Academy? May Jenkins is the lucky girl in this case. She was crowned several weeks ago by proxy. . . . Correction to last week's column - we're sorry Dick Barker. We didn't intend Leslie to steal away all your glory in the spot dance. . . . No smoking for a while in the Canteen until some work is done to satisfy the Fire Commissioner. . . . All the Seniors are in a dither over their coming Senior Night, Saturday, May 19th. There is a lot of talent in that class (in more ways than one). Ought to be a good show! . . . Although no Juniors (and we are Juniors) know for sure what will go on Senior Night, it's a pretty safe bet that the Canteen will be represented in some way, and of course a nationally popular girl will probably factor in some way or another. . . . Miss Joanne Collard, also a Junior, is the nearest competitor to May Jenkins. The boys at Gallops Island welcome the opportunity to have a home in Waban to come home to. . . . Some pretty good politicians made speeches to the Sophomore and Junior classes Wednesday morning. The hit of the night was Roger Mergandahl who, after reading off a very capable speech, ended up with the words, "And remember Mergandahl spelled backwards is. . . ." (awkward pause) and he took his seat. . . . Jim Techner was perhaps the shortest of the many, and certainly his was the shortest speech. . . . Gim Fong ended up by saying, "He who chooses a Chinese is a wise man." . . . The Junior Red Cross is to hold its drive at the High School starting Wednesday, May 23rd. . . . Social Studies classes have witnessed films on the Dumbarton Oaks Plan and Restricted U. S. Army photos taken in combat. . . . ## Troutwine - Richards

A pretty May wedding was held in the garden at 20 Boulder road, Wellesley Farms on May 3, when Mrs. Charlotte W. Temperley Richards, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Temperley of Ward street, Newton Centre, was married to Harry Troutwine, son of Mrs. Elizabeth Troutwine of Bridgeport, Indiana. Dr. Charles N. Arhuckle of the Newton Centre Baptist church officiated at the two o'clock ceremony.

The bride wore a gown of dusty pink with fathoming accessories and carried blue delphinium and deep pink camellias. She was escorted by her two sons, Whitman A. and Lincoln K. Richards. Mr. William T. Doran, Jr., of New York, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Cobb of Newton Upper Falls, was matron of honor. She wore a gown of aqua with matching accessories and carried yellow roses. Sylvia Caroline Richards, daughter of the bride, as flower girl, wore a frock of white net over white tulle. She carried a basket of pink sweet peas and sweetheart roses. Leslie Wicken of Wellesley Farms was the best man for Mr. Troutwine.

Mrs. Hugh H. Spencer, violinist, accompanied by Mrs. Jacob Den-Hatog, pianist, played the wedding music. A reception was held in the home which was attended by immediate family and friends.

Following a short trip to Cape Cod, Mr. and Mrs. Troutwine will reside at 20 Boulder road, Wellesley Farms.

Townsend - Sands

White snapdragons and gladioli decorated the Trinity Church in Newton Centre on May 12, for the wedding of Miss Barbara McCabe Sands, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Holmes Sands of Newton Centre and Lt. (ig) Robert Arnold Townsend, USNR, son of Mr. and Mrs. Irving Upson Townsend, Jr., of Waban. The four o'clock ceremony was performed by the Rev. Frederick M. Morris and was followed by a reception at Brae Burn Country Club.

With her gown of ice blue marquisette, the bride carried white orchids and stephanotis. Her attendants were gown alike in yellow marquisette with bouquets of blue delphinium. Mrs. Frederick Steele of Toledo, Ohio, was the matron of honor and the bridesmaids were Mrs. John L. Delano, of Brookline and Miss Martha Townsend of Waban.

Charles L. Royer, USA, of Sandusky, Ohio, was the best man for Lt. Townsend. The ushers were Lt. William A. McCabe, Jr., USAAF, of Newton Centre, Donald Eldredge, USA, of South Bend, Indiana, John Wood, USA, of New York City, and William L. Baker, USA, of Newton.

The bride attended Wellesley College and the Katharine Gibbs School. Lt. Townsend attended Harvard, class of 1943, where he was a member of Phi Eta Club. Lt. and Mrs. Townsend will live in Newport, Rhode Island.

MacMillan - Briggs

The marriage is announced of S-Sgt. Carol Jean Briggs of Elk River, Minn., and T-Sgt. Fred C. MacMillan, of Newtonville. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Arthur Rice and took place at the Congregational Church in Reno, Nevada, at 7 p.m. on Tuesday May 1st.

The bride was attended by Sgt. Francis Carter and the best man was T-Sgt. Donald Erskine.

The mothers of both the bride and bridegroom were present.

Mrs. MacMillan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Briggs of Elk River, Minnesota and is a graduate of Winona State Teachers College and is one of the first women to receive flying status in the Army Transport Command. She is Radio Instructor at the base.

T-Sgt. MacMillan is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. MacMillan of 33 Highland avenue, Newtonville, and attended Boston University. He has received the Oak Leaf Clusters; Distinguished Flying Cross and Presidential Citation for his achievements in the European Theater of War. At present he is Flight Instructor at the Army Transport Command in Reno, Nevada.

Not for..

STRING.. MARBLES..

No string-pulling, inside or outside this company, can get a telephone installed. Only under the rules set up to approximate available facilities in the way fastest to all is a telephone obtainable.

All new subscribers, regardless of who they are, start from raw. . . an application for service, which is impartially reviewed in the light of War Production Board regulations and existing facilities. Care is taken to see that nobody gets service ahead of turn.

No, not for String, Marbles or Chalk (as Tom Sawyer might appraise worldly treasures) may a telephone be obtained. It may be obtained only under rules which people tell us they think are fair. If you are one of those waiting for service, and do not understand how applications are handled, please ask your local business representative at your local business Office. She will be glad to tell you.

We check up all applications and keep careful check on them so that none is overlooked. We ask applicants to advise us of changes in their circumstances that might alter their status as applicants.

'Evening of Music' Sponsored by Horace Mann PTA

The Parent-Teacher Association of the Horace Mann school in Newtonville will sponsor "An Evening of Music" as their final meeting of the year on Friday, May 18, at 7 p.m. There will be selections by the school orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Borota, choral singing by the fifth and sixth grades, instrumental solos and community singing. The program will be under the supervision of Mr. James H. Bomley, director of music in the Newton schools, and Miss Anderson will be the accompanist. Mr. Bomley will speak on "Music in the Elementary Grades." After the program, parents and guests are invited to attend an Open House in the recently completed Science Room. This room, which has been the project of the Parent-Teacher Association for this year, is an improvement on the old school. An ordinary, unused school room has been transformed into a colorful exhibit room, by the Association, working under the guidance of Miss Eleanor Elliott, director of art education in the Newton schools. Each grade has had a part in the exhibit. On Thursday and Friday, May 17 and 18, the Horace Mann school will be host to groups of children and their teachers from nearby schools who will visit the Science Room to observe the animals, plants, birds, fish and science exhibits.

Lt. Beattie—

become as common as automobiles, you will be interested in a device invented by 2nd Lt. Robert T. Beattie of Newtonville, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert W. Beattie of 169 Alhambra road.

Lt. Beattie is Instrument Training Officer at Tonopah army air field. His solution involves a new concept in the field of aviation—"Directional Altitude," and a new master aircraft instrument, the "Directional Altimeter." His plan is to coordinate and interlock direction and altitude would separate aircraft vertically and thus eliminate the possibility of mid-air collision.

This instrument will indicate direction like the compass and will also coordinate rate of turn and rate of vertical speed and may well be the guiding hand of future air traffic. However, as Lt. Beattie points out, it is like the rule for automobiles to drive on the right side of the road, and everyone will want to comply for his own good.

At present, three types of Directional Altimeters are planned—an automatic instrument, a gyro-driven mechanism and a hand-operated device for light planes. The Eclipse Pioneer Division of Bendix Aircraft Corp. has guaranteed Lt. Beattie $100,000 a year for a period of fifteen years for the right to manufacture the Directional Altimeter, or 3 per cent of the royalties, which may prove to be a great deal more. The U. S. Government also has an irrevocable royalty-free license to manufacture or have manufactured, for government use, this new instrument which may soon be standard equipment in every plane that flies.

Less than two years ago, in Oct. 1943, while serving as a private, Lt. Beattie worked out an improved method to coordinate instrument approaches in the San actual arrival. They may send telegrams from the port at which they dock, or may telephone home upon their arrival in this country. However, the place and date of arrival are confidential, and the families of prisoners will be unable to meet them at the port. Upon arrival in the United States, the men will go to the distribution center nearest their homes for a short period prior to a sixty-day furlough.

The Newton Chapter of Red Cross realizes how eager families are to get word of men who have been in the prison camps, and will give special attention to any data which they receive regarding the prisoners of war from Newton.

Keep the Home Fires Burning . . .

There was sound advice in that song of World War One 27 years ago—it's just as sound today.

The home-front defense fires must burn brightly "Til the boys come home"—industrial forge fires and fires of American unity and will to win. Our men are in there slugging. We're backing them everlastingly here at home, each in his own way, with war-work, war-bonds and war-conservation of commodities and materials.

character of a real Scouting meeting. Mrs. Henry Whitmore, Jr. is the Village Chairman for West Newton, and it was she who had the inspiration to call some eighty interested Scout women together at this time.

ATTENTION! Two Great Events for Friends of Girl Scouting are now put before the public: Newton Highlands Scouts will occupy the Congregational Church Parish House from one until four o'clock with a Food Sale—White Elephant Sale—Kitchen Gadgets Sale on the afternoon of Friday, May 25. That same evening they will present a musical program—"American Memory Lane" which is a collection of musical milestones of the United States. Brownies and Scouts are to participate, the admission price is fifty cents, and everyone is urged to come. 7:45 is the appointed time for the performance. Mrs. Mark Winsor (Las. 882), Village Chairman, has plenty of tickets and hopes to sell them all for the benefit of camp scholarships, leadership courses, upkeep of village cabin at Camp Mary Day, merit badges, supplies, etc. Don't forget the 25th in the Highlands.

The next day, the 26, all roads will lead to Newtonville for the now annual Circus and Trading Post. At Newton High School Drill Shed the Newtonville Scouts will present Captain Anderson's Circus, featuring Ho Ho Taylor, clown and trained dogs, monkeys, goats and ponies. There will be three complete shows at 11:00 a.m., 1:30 and 3:00 p.m. Tickets are to be twenty-five cents for children and thirty-five for adults. Admission to the Circus "Grounds" is free. Also the necessary adjuncts of a really large time at the "Big Top" will be available, hot dogs, ice cream, peanuts, cookies and pink lemonade. A home-cooked food table should prove very popular to harassed housewives. Beside the always interesting Trading Post a new feature this year is to be palm reading by experts. Certainly there is no excuse for the Scouts and their friends of Newtonville and its environs to lack for amusement on Saturday, the 26th. Mrs. Elmer K. Pillsbury (Las. 5135) is Chairman of the affair which already promises to be a howling success!

Mrs. George W. Wyman was awarded the $25 Defense Bond as holder of the lucky number. Among those present were Mrs. Sterling Loveland, Mrs. Richard Cole, Mrs. Willis Williams, Mrs. Otto Both, Mrs. William MacLeod, Mrs. J. B. Simpson, Mrs. William V. Tripp, Jr., Mrs. Hardwick Bigelow, Mrs. Stacey Nickerson, Mrs. Halvor Seward, Mrs. Robert E. Lindquist, Mrs. Theodore B. Rollins, Mrs. Stanton L. Burgess, Mrs. Paul Sheeline, Mrs. Frank D. # ALL OUT FOR THE MIGHTY 7th The Biggest War Loan Drive of All!

Their "Quota" may be DEATH Your Quota is Bigger Bonds

AS THE tempo of the war increases... as the lines of communication grow longer... as the need for new guns, new tanks, new planes grows more urgent... the cost of the war is at an all-time high.

That is reason Number 1 why every true American must back this MIGHTY 7TH War Loan Drive beyond all limits of what he thinks he can afford.

Reason Number 2 is that this drive is really two drives in one. By this time last year, you had subscribed to two War Loans.

Yes, the need is greater than ever before. And YOU... everybody... must invest a greater portion of your income... of your cash reserves... in War Bonds Now!
Study the chart on this page. Figure out your personal quota—and make it!

BUY MORE AND BIGGER BONDS

You already know that War Bonds are the best and safest investment in the world... that you get back at maturity $4 for every $3 you invest... that they safeguard your future security... and that you can cash them in on a moment's notice in case of emergency. So let's go, Americans! Let's back those gallant boys who are fighting and dying for us on far-flung battlefields the world over. Let's all buy bigger bonds and more of them, right now!

In the Service

Douglas D. Furbush, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas D. Furbush of 11 Davis avenue, West Newton, is in the invasion of Iwo Jima, and is at present in San Francisco according to a letter received from him by his parents. A member of the U. S. Navy, he served as coxswain of a landing craft.

His other four campaign stars were won at Oran, No. Africa; in the invasion of Naples, in the English Channel and at the Dutch East Indies.

Coxswain Furbush enlisted in the Navy on his 17th birthday. His sister, Pfc. Theima Furbush, USMC (AWR) who is stationed at the Marine Corps Base, Santa Ana, California received a 72 hr. pass to visit him. His brother, Wesley Furbush, is with the Third Army in Germany.

Edward P. Burke, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward P. Burke of 23 Forest street, Newton Highlands is undergoing training at the Sampson, New York Naval Base. He is the fourth member of the family to join the armed forces. His brothers in the service are S. 1-c Robert with the Seabees in the Pacific Islands; F. who served with the Third Army in Europe and is now on furlough from Fort Story, Va. Mrs. Edward P. Burke, Jr. and their infant son, Mark E. are residing at 10 Auburndale avenue, West Newton.

The third member of her family to join the armed forces, Barbara Goode, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Goode of 139 Hancock street, Auburndale, recently enlisted in the Women's Reserve of the Coast Guard. She is taking "boot training" at Manhattan Beach. Later Seaman Goode will relieve a Guardsman for active sea duty by taking over his shore job.

A graduate of the Virginia Intermont Prep. School of Bristol, Virginia, she was formerly employed by the W. H. Nichols and Sons.

West Newton Coast Guard Officer in Okinawa Invasion

ABOARD A COAST GUARD MANNED ATTACK TRANSPORT AT OKINAWA (Special)—Lieut. John G. Gill, USCGR, of 59 Warwick road, West Newton, participated in the recent invasion of Okinawa. He served as assistant engineer aboard a Coast Guard-manned attack transport in the Pacific.

Lieut. Gill is in charge of men and equipment in the engine room. During the recent Okinawa operations he stood his battle station for hours on end, especially on those days when air raids were most frequent. There were 13 air raids in one day.

Born in Newton, he entered the Coast Guard in September of 1942. He served aboard a Coast Guard cutter in the North Atlantic on convoy duty and anti-submarine patrol. His next assignment was aboard a liberty ship in the Pacific. He spent ten months on this transport, undergoing two air raids, many submarine alerts, and participating in the invasions of Munda and Bougainville. Before being assigned to strategic points in the Pacific.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Gill of 51 Warwick road, West Newton. Gill is a graduate of the Newton High School and of the Massachusetts Nautical School of Boston. He also attended Northeastern University for three years. Before entering the Coast Guard he was employed as an engineer by the United Fruit Co. of Boston.

The Coast Guard officer is married to the former Miss Catherine Brennan, of West Newton. They have two children, John G. Jr., and Robert E.

Lieut. Gill's two brothers are now on active duty. J. P. is a Lieut. Comdr. in the Navy, and has recently returned to the States from duty in the Pacific.

Joseph E. is a Lieutenant-Colonel on duty with the Army somewhere in Europe.

Portrait by S-Sgt. Robert B. Briggs Entered in Contest

Staff Sgt. Robert B. Briggs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Burton W. Briggs of 22 Chestnut terrace, Newton Centre, was signally honored recently when his entry in the Fourth Service Command art contest was one of 100 pieces selected to be put on display in the Museum at Atlanta, Georgia. From all over the Command more than 300 entries had been submitted.

Sgt. Briggs' entry, an air brush portrait of Cary Grant, was highly praised in the Atlanta Journal Magazine. He recently addressed the Summer Art Association and greatly impressed that group with his description of air brush technique.

Sgt. Briggs is at present on detached service attending camouflage school at Shaw Field, Sumter, South Carolina. He was graduated from the Newton High School in 1937 and from the Minneapolis School of Art where he studied under Samuel Frazier majoring in air brush technique, and later tutored in air brush art. Before entering the service on April 8, 1941, he had been employed by the Factory Mutual Insurance Company in Boston. He has served as an instructor on B-47s.

Selling Bonds in 7th

War Loan Drive

During the 7th War Bond campaign all route salesmen of H. P. Hood & Sons will be able to sell War Bonds as well as dairy products to their customers.

Each salesman is a certified War Bond agent. The bonds sold by them will be credited to the established quotas set for the city or town in which they are purchased. Bonds will then be sent to purchasers by registered mail, direct from H. P. Hood Company Offices.

The Seventh War Loan campaign for Newton will be under the direction of Mr. George W. Sweet, President, Newton National Bank, and the quota recently announced is $1,486,000.

Newton Upper Falls

Garden Club

The Newton Upper Falls Garden Club held their eighth Birthday party at the home of Mrs. Raymond P. Atwood, 92 Thurston road, with Mrs. Almida Brown, serving as co-hostess, Monday evening, May 14. The members had a merry time constructing May baskets which they filled with spring flowers from their own gardens. The baskets were numbered, then voted upon by the members. The awards were: 1st, a bundle of lettuce plants; 2nd, Mrs. Margaret Braceley, a bundle of new cabbage plants and Miss A. Gertrude Osborne, 3rd; a bundle of broccoli plants, which they are planting in their Victory Garden.

Following a short business meeting with the president, Mrs. Robert Millar, presiding, the members listened to an illustrated talk by colored motion pictures, "Attracting Birds to the Victory Garden," by Mrs. C. Russell Mason of the Mass. Audubon Society.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Newton Nurses Attend Round Table Discussion

The close relationship between Newton's public health nurses and the home was encouraged today at the round table discussion held by four leading nutritionists. The meeting at the Red Cross Chapter House was sponsored by the Newton Nutrition Centre with Newton's two nutritionists, Mrs. Jean Eastman and Miss Margaret Phillips, assisted by Mrs. Elizabeth Cassel of Harvard School of Public Health and Miss Elizabeth Vaughan from Cook County Hospital. These four young women developed the thoughts that follow in such an entertaining manner that the audience took a large dose of sound nutritional information with the greatest of ease and even fun.

A sound community nutrition program will endeavor to put into practice the results of the research nutritionists and must have the cooperation of the doctors, dentists, nutrition teachers and all public health workers.

Miss Phillips and Mrs. Eastman told of symptoms of low vitamin C diet. Bleeding gums, thin tooth enamel, weakened heart may be but not necessarily are caused by lack of this essential ascorbic acid in the diet. Its best sources are raw green pepper, citrus fruits, both fresh and canned strawberries and cantaloupe. Latest research in agriculture shows that in the future apples may contain more vitamin C than at the present time. Small oranges are a better buy than large ones—lower in price, their juice contains more vitamin C than the larger ones.

In attempting to control beriberi, a disease caused by low thiamin diet, a method of parboiling white rice before the outer coating is removed is being used when leaves in the polished rice a part of the thiamin which otherwise would be lost. One pork chop will furnish the entire day's requirement of this member of the B complex. Drink more milk and eat more liver to be sure of getting sufficient riboflavin. (Whole wheat bread is still better than white bread although through the enrichment program the B vitamin plus iron has been restored to all wrapped bread.)

Absorb all the sunshine you can and store some up for next winter for it is vitamin D that is so necessary to increase the absorption of calcium and phosphorus in the system for better bones and teeth. To get added calcium take plenty of milk and milk products as well as green leafy vegetables (except spinach), clams, molasses and eggs.

Recent research has found that addition of chocolate to milk decreases the absorption of calcium so stay away from those chocolate milks and drink your milk straight.

Fortified oleomargarin is a good source of vitamin A. You'll get added amounts from liver, dark green and yellow vegetables and tomatoes. This vitamin assists in the regeneration of visual purple in the eye but by no means is a cure for all eye defects. With rationing watch the amount of mineral oil used in your household—this may interfere with the absorption of vitamin A.

To be well fed and to get the most for your food dollar:

1. Know your body requirements.

2. Buy thoughtfully, selecting fresh fruits and vegetables rather than wilted and bruised ones.

3. Store all fresh foods covered in the refrigerator, do not thaw frozen foods until ready to cook or serve.

4. Prepare foods just before cooking. Cook vegetables with skins on in little or no water for as short a time as possible. Use low temperature for all meats.

5. Serve foods attractively as soon as cooked and plan to have no left overs. Take plenty of time to eat your meals in comfortable and pleasant surroundings with the food supplies available at present we may still be well fed.

If you have questions concerning nutrition problems, phone, write or visit your Newton Nutrition Center, No. 151 Washington street, phone BIGelow 7602, where Newton's two nutritionists will be glad to help you.

The nutrition committee of the Red Cross offers you a group of practical food demonstrations, special thought being given to problems confronting the inexperienced young housewife. Call LASeil 6000 for further information.

National Children's Fund

As announced by Miss Jane Wyman of Newton Junior Red Cross, the annual campaign for the National Children's Fund will be conducted from May 14 to May 18.

The campaign is carried on through public, parochial and private schools in Newton.

Since 1919, Junior Red Cross has maintained this Fund with voluntary contributions in order to meet emergency needs of children throughout the world. With huge sections of Europe being liberated, opportunities for rehabilitation work among the children are increasing every day. To our Juniors goes the great privilege of assisting their contemporaries in many lands to regain confidence, hope and courage. They can help restore schools, furnish special medical kits, gift boxes and school equipment, and meet other vital needs of boys and girls and, in so doing, they will create bonds of international understanding so essential to the world in which they will be leaders.

Junior Red Cross members in Newton sent one hundred Christmas gift boxes, and in January, one hundred boxes of school supplies to the children of liberated Europe.

There have been 20 million Americans injured in home front accidents since the war began. The National Safety Council reports.

Red Cross Prepares Wives and Mothers To Care for Veterans

"The Home Nursing Committee of the Newton Red Cross is planning a series of lectures and lessons which are designed to help wives and mothers of returning service men in giving their boys as thorough care as has been done by Uncle Sam," says Mrs. B. Alden Thresher, chairman, Home Nursing, Newton Red Cross.

In launching this campaign, a meeting has been planned for Monday, May 21 at 8 p.m., in the High School auditorium, which will feature a special showing of two United States Navy films, "Navy Nurse" and "Medical Support in a Ship-to-Shore Movement"; also a brief talk by Lt. Commander Helen Lord, Senior Nurse, First Naval District.

"The boys are coming home in great numbers now," continues Mrs. Thresher, "and some of them will need special care, almost expert care. In a vague way we have known that this day was coming, but now it is here and we have to face our responsibilities by taking advantage of every opportunity for instruction that is available to us. We cannot hope to reach the perfection achieved by the Army and Navy nursing services, but because they are ours we will give them our best. Come to the meeting and bring a friend!"

The Home Nursing Committee in charge of arrangements includes: Mrs. Edward Blake, vice chairman; Mrs. Grace A. Chandler, Mrs. Daniel Callahan, Mrs. Helen Evans, Mrs. E. W. Weaver, Miss Grace Lawrence, Miss Charlotte M. Simon, Miss Helen I. Sandstrom, Mrs. Ragna Hovgaard, Mrs. John I. Heiback.

Miss Barry Head

Music Festival

Miss Marguerite Barry of 86 Dalton road, Newton Centre, is chairman of the Proprietary Club's annual Music Festival which will be in the ballroom of the Conely Plaza Hotel in Boston on Sunday evening, May 20. Ruby Newman's Symphony orchestra will play an unusual program of music by American composers and will feature George McFarlane, tenor, and Saly Cavichio, Boston's foremost vibraphone player.

Other Newton girls working on the committee are: Mary Robinson of 98 East Side Parkway, Chairman of Patrons; Catherine T. Barry of 29 Irving street; Grace Becher of 33 Pearl street; Margaret Bogan of 402 Parker street; and Agnes Earls of 78 Charlesbank road.

City of Newton Buys

Tract of Land in Chestnut Hill for Playground

John T. Burns & Sons Inc., report they have sold to the city of Newton a large tract of land fronting on Montrose street, Exmor road and Fellsmead road, adjoining the John Ward School property. The tract comprises 150,000 square feet and will be used by the City of Newton in conjunction with the development of the Ward School property for playground purposes.

Adjoining this property, on Montrose street and Lorna road, the Charles G. Rice land has been developed by them and nineteen of the twenty lots in the subdivision have already been sold to private home owners who intend to develop the same by the erection of high-grade single residences as soon as conditions permit. The total assessment of the land sold is $52,000.

THE COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS

LAND COURT

To City of Newton, a municipal corporation, located in the County of Middlesex, and said Commonwealth; Edith Ewen Abbt, Richmond Loring Melcher, Jr. and Elizabeth B. Melcher, of Newton, in said County of Middlesex; Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York, a duly existing corporation having a usual place of business in New York, in the State of New York; John MacDonald, and Ada E. MacDonald, residents unknown, or their heirs, devisees or legal representatives; and to all whom it may concern:

Whereas, a petition has been presented to said Court by J. Everett Burdick and Edna B. Burdick, of said Newton, to register and confirm their title in the following described land:

A certain parcel of land with the buildings thereon, situate in that part of said Newton called Newton Lower Falls, bounded and described as follows:

Southeasterly by Grayson Lane 92.94 feet; Southwesterly by land now or formerly of Edith Ewen Abbt 82.30 feet; Northwest by land now or formerly of the City of Newton 108 feet; and Northwesterly by lands now or formerly of Richmond Loring Melcher Jr. et al 100.05 feet.

The above-described land is shown on a plan filed with said petition and all boundary lines are claimed to be located on the ground as shown on said plan.

If you desire to make any objection or defense to said petition you or your attorney must file a written appearance and an answer under oath, setting forth clearly and specifically your objections or defense to each part of said petition, in the office of the Recorder of said Court in Boston (at the Court House), on or before the fourth day of June next.

Unless an appearance is so filed by or for you, your default will be recorded, the said petition will be taken as confessed and you will be forever barred from contesting said petition or any decree entered thereon.

Witness, JOHN E. FENTON, Esquire, Judge of said Court, this second day of May in the year nineteen hundred and forty-five.

Community War Fund Campaign

ton has been appointed Chairman of the Advance Gifts Division, Mr. Myers was assistant chairman of the division in the 1945 Campaign and chairman for the village of West Newton the two previous years. Franklin K. Hoyt has been appointed Chairman in the Residential Division. Mr. Hoyt was chairman in Auburndale in the 1944 Campaign and has been an ardent worker for the Chestnut, captain, or solicitor for many years.

Mrs. John E. Peakes has been appointed Chairman of the Mercantile Division, and Lincoln Alford, Co-Chairman. Mrs. Peakes has been village chairman of this division in Newton Highlands for the past three years. Mr. Alford was chairman of the special accounts section of the division last year and has for many years been an enthusiastic campaigner. Lester W. Tarr has been appointed Chairman of the Manufacturing Division. Mr. Tarr is Vice President of the Unitite Company and for many years has been a member of the committee which has so successfully developed this division.

Maxwell A. Warren has been appointed Chairman of the Municipal Division, to be assisted by Dr. Homer W. Anderson as Assistant Chairman in the School Department and Sydney B. Holden as Assistant Chairman of the general City Departments. Mr. Warren is Chief Building Inspector for the city. Dr. Anderson is Superintendent of Schools, and Mr. Holden is City Assessor. Messrs. Warren and Anderson were assistant chairmen in the two divisions in the last campaign, and Mr. Holden has had an active part for many years.

Miss Adelaide B. Ball has been appointed Chairman of the Educational Division. Miss Ball is President of the Newton Federation of Women's Clubs and was chairman of the Educational Division in the 1945 Campaign. Frederick H. Knight has been appointed Chairman of the Publicity Committee. Mr. Knight is a manager for H. P. Hood & Sons, and this is his first association with the War Fund Campaign in Newton. Mrs. D. Allen Smith is Chairman of the Special Events Committee which has charge of the opening dinner and closing meeting of the campaign. Mrs. Smith was chairman in the 1945 Campaign, assistant chairman the year before, and a member of this committee for a number of years.

Mrs. F. Brittain Kennedy has been appointed Chairman of the Service Committee. Mrs. Kennedy's three assistants will be Mrs. Paul M. Goddard, in charge of office work; Mrs. Elliot G. Stickney, in charge of supplies; and Mrs. Gordon W. Daley, in charge of courier service. Mrs. Kennedy has been identified with the service work of the campaign for many years. Mrs. Goddard was chairman of the office workers group in 1945. Mrs. Stickney had charge of courier service for a number of years; and Mrs. Daley is new to the committee this year. In addition to the Division leaders, Chairman Damon has appointed three general Assistant Chairmen to aid him in carrying on the campaign. These Assistant Chairmen are Daniel E. Watson, who was Advance Gifts chairman for the past two years; E. Prentiss Jones, who was assistant Residential chairman in the 1945 Campaign and Residential chairman in Newton Centre the previous year; and Harold S. Goldberg, who has been assistant campaign chairman for the past two years. Herbert W. Kestle has been appointed Auditor and will serve in this capacity for the fourth consecutive year.

In the Advance Gifts Division, two Assistant Chairmen have been appointed. Mr. Arnold is chairman of the north-side villages and Henry T. Dunker for the south-side villages. Mr. Arnold is serving his third year in this capacity, and Mr. Dunker was chairman of this division in Waban in 1944 and chairman of the special gifts division in the recent Red Cross campaign. John F. Brown, Edward B. Peters, and Gordon B. Russell are serving as Residential Assistant Chairmen, each responsible for four or five of the thirteen villages in the city. Mr. Brown was residential chairman in Auburndale; Mr. Peters, in Newton Highlands; and Mr. Russell, in Newton, all in the 1945 Campaign. Mrs. John C. Campbell will assist Mrs. Peakes as Assistant Chairman of the Mercantile Division. Mrs. Campbell is a large chairman of her division in West Newton for the past two years.

Already enrollment is in full swing with village chairmen completely enrolled in the residential, advance gifts, and mercantile divisions. All the advance gifts and residential workers enrolled will start beginning this week end. "We are off to a grand start," states Mr. Damon, "and I am confident that, with the leadership personnel that have come to my aid in building the 1945 campaign, there is every reason to believe that we shall have a most successful campaign this fall."

Pfc. Canter Expected
Home This Week

Pfc. Henry F. Canter, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Canter of 14 Noble street, West Newton, who recently was liberated from a prison camp in Germany has written his mother that he expects to be home before Mother's Day.

Pfc. Canter was listed as missing in Belgium on December 21 and his parents were later notified that he was a prisoner of war. He was liberated by American forces from a prison camp near Frankfurt-on-Main.

He was graduated from the Newton High School in 1942 and attended Huntington School. He entered the Army less than two years ago and was in the Army Specialized Training Program before being assigned to the Infantry. He went overseas last August.

He has two brothers in the service, Sgt. Sidney S. Canter and Cpl. Morton Canter, both of the Army Air Forces.

COMMONWEALTH OF

Equity No. 13459

To Mary P. Reeve of Newton in the County of Middlesex and to the signatories to a certain memorandum of agreement dated December 1, 1914, between Samuel J. Elder et al., Trustees of the Newton Boulevard Syndicate, and Edward W. Pope et al., their heirs, devisees, grantees or beneficiaries claiming under them or under the Trustees of said Newton Boulevard Syndicate.

Whereas a petition in equity has been begun against you in our Superior Court within and for the County of Middlesex, wherein the plaintiff, Rose Shapiro, of said Newton, alleges that a cloud exists upon her title to the land and building at the corner of Nobscot Road and Elm Street, in said County of Middlesex, being numbered 373 on said Commonwealth Avenue, said Newton, in that a deed to said property from Edward W. Pope and Mary P. Reeve to Joseph S. Donovan and Grace E. Donovan recorded in Middlesex South District Deeds in Book 3900, Page 213 conveyed the property subject to the restrictions mentioned in said deed and "subject to the further restrictions of a memorandum of agreement between Samuel J. Elder, et al., Trustees of the Newton Boulevard Syndicate, and Edward W. Pope et al., dated December 1, 1914," and that the deeds subsequent thereto, including the deed to the plaintiff Rose Shapiro conveyed in prior deeds "insofar as the same may be in force and applicable," and the plaintiff further alleges that an examination of the records in Middlesex South District Deeds discloses that no such agreement dated December 1, 1914, heretofore referred to was ever filed in said Court, and that inquiries of persons formerly connected with the Newton Boulevard Syndicate, now extinct, disclose no knowledge of said agreement, that the restrictions in said agreement were never imposed for the benefit of any other lots in the vicinity of said lot, and that no person has ever brought court proceedings to enforce any violation of said agreement.

And the plaintiff prays that this Court decree that the words "subject to the further restrictions of a memorandum of agreement between Samuel J. Elder, et al., Trustees of the Newton Boulevard Syndicate, and Edward W. Pope et al., dated December 1, 1914" appearing in title deeds are no longer valid, in force or in effect.

Upon the foregoing petition it is ordered by the Court that the plaintiff notify the signatories to said agreement, their heirs, devisees, grantees or beneficiaries claiming under them or under the Trustees of the Newton Boulevard Syndicate, that on the first Monday of July next, which Monday is the return day of this notice, or within such further time as the law allows, they must cause their written appearance to be entered and their written answer or other lawful pleading to be filed in the office of the Clerk of said Court at Cambridge in said County, and further that they must defend against said petition according to law, if they intend to make any defense, by posting an attested copy hereof in a conspicuous place on the land described in the petition and by publishing an attested copy hereof in the Newton Graphic, a newspaper published in said Newton, once a week for three successive weeks, the last publication to be fourteen days at least before the said first Monday of July.

By the Court, (Hammond, J.)
Fred A. Beals, Jr.,

Huge Paper Salvage Drive Sunday, June 3

Expect To Collect 200 Tons in 1-Day Effort

Heralded by a proclamation from Mayor Paul M. Goddard, Newton residents will combine their efforts on Sunday, June 3, in a Waste Paper Salvage Drive which promises to top all such previous campaigns. It is conservatively estimated that a total of 200 tons of waste paper will be collected during the day's drive.

Mayor Goddard today issued the following proclamation: To the Citizens of Newton: There will be an intensive drive for waste paper in our City on Sunday, June 3rd. A Committee of citizens has been organized, and it is hoped to make this the most successful one day collection thus far conducted in Newton. There is a constantly increasing demand for waste paper, and it is our immediate duty to do all we can to send our waste paper to war, where it is so vitally and urgently needed. I sincerely hope that the people of Newton will make an unusual effort on this day. (Continued on Page 4)

City Acquires Land For Playground

A large tract of land fronting on Montrose street, Exmoor road and Fellsmead road, Newton Centre, has been acquired by the City of Newton for playground purposes. This tract comprising 150,000 square feet adjoins the John Ward School property and will be used in conjunction with the development of the Ward School property, as a playground.

Authorization for the acquisition of this land was given by the Board of Aldermen at the request of Mayor Paul M. Goddard.

Wreaths To Be Placed at City's Honor Roll

On Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock members of the various veterans organizations will meet at the Newton Fire Station and headed by the Newton Legion Band will march to Grace Church, Newton where services will be conducted by Rev. J. Robert Smith, chaplain of Newton Post. On Sunday afternoon flags will be placed on the graves of veterans of all wars in Newton cemeteries and also on the graves of Newton veterans in Calvary Cemetery, Waltham.

On Memorial Day morning details from the several organizations will again visit all of the cemeteries to place flowers upon the graves. The flowers will be contributed by the school children who are asked to bring them to their schools on Tuesday. On that day appropriate exercises will be held in all schools throughout the city.

The Memorial Day parade will be led by Mayor Paul M. Goddard as Chief Marshal. Starting from the Newton Fire Station at 2 p.m. it will proceed up Washington (Continued on Page 4)

Newton Centre Woman's Club Obtains Speakers

Two more speakers have been booked for the series of lectures sponsored by the International Committee of the Newton Centre Woman's Club. Dr. Charlotte Whitten will speak on January 7, 1946, and Dr. Douglas Haring of Harvard University will speak on December 3, 1945.

Dr. Whitten comes to Newton from Canada where she has the distinction of being the first woman to be elected to the Canadian Parliament. She will speak on the timely question of the French in Canada.

Dr. Haring is a Newton neighbor well known for his grasp of the Far East situation. The chairman of the committee, Mrs. Victor H. Vaughan, has announced the addition of two new members to the group: Miss Lulu G. Adams and Mrs. Walter H. Hartstone.

Has Served as Acting Chief Since Last September

The appointment of Capt. Nicholas Veducchio as Chief of the Newton Police Department was made by Mayor Paul M. Goddard on Monday. The appointment was submitted to the Board of Aldermen at Monday night's meeting and in accordance with the rule was laid on the table until their next meeting, June 4, for a vote of confirmation.

CHIEF OF POLICE-ELECT NICHOLAS VEDUCCHIO

Since the death of the late Chief Michael T. Hughes, last September, Capt. Veducchio had been serving as Acting Chief. He has been a member of the Police Department for 30 years. On March 1, 1915 he was appointed a patrolman, became a sergeant in August, 1925, lieutenant on September 6, 1930 and captain September 24, 1935.

He is married and has seven sons and three daughters. The family home is at 30 Riverdale avenue, Newton. One of his daughters, Cpl. Dorothy M. Veducchio, a surgical technician in the WAC, is stationed at the Mason General Hospital, Brentwood, Long Island, New York. One of his sons, William R., electrician's mate third class, USN, is a gyrocompass specialist stationed in the Pacific. Another son, Patrolman George H. Veducchio, has been a member of the Newton police force for the past four years.

Chief Veducchio is a member of the International Police Association, the New England Police Association, the Massachusetts Police Association, the Newton Police Benefit and Memorial Association and is Esteemed Leading Knight of Newton Lodge of Elks.

TWO-ALARM FIRE AT NEWTON CORNER

Lt. Wm. Callahan Killed in Italy

Mr. and Mrs. William F. Callahan of 792 Chestnut street, Waban, were notified by the War Department yesterday that their son, Lt. William F. Callahan, Jr., 23, was killed in action in Italy, April 14. His father formerly was state commissioner of public works.

Lt. Callahan was attached to the 110th Mountain Division of the Fifth Army, and had been overseas 18 months. He attended St. Joseph's Academy in Wellesley, Country Day School and was graduated from Pennsylvania Military College in 1943.

While at college he played on the polo team for four years, and was a member of the Intercollegiate Championship Polo Team in 1943. He was commissioned in the regular Army as a cavalry officer. Besides his parents, Lt. Callahan leaves a sister, Jane, a student at Cornell.

A fire which broke out about 11 o'clock Tuesday forenoon in the Tip-Top Cleaners and Tailors establishment at 427 Centre street, Newton, resulted in damage of several thousand dollars to the cleaning establishment, a neighboring drug store and the Newton Lodge of Elks headquarters located on the top floor of the building.

On arrival at the scene of the fire Chief John L. Keating ordered a second alarm which brought out most of the apparatus on the north side of the city and some from the south side, and from Watertown.

Traffic on Centre street and Centre avenue was tied up for several hours and several hose lines were laid. The fire department succeeded in keeping the blaze confined to the cleaning establishment which suffered the most seriously from the blaze. The Hubbard Drug Co. and the upper floor of the building, however, suffered damage from smoke and water.

Pfc. Wenning, Prisoner, Now Liberated

PFC. K. W. WENNING

Word has been received through the Red Cross by Mr. and Mrs. Emil E. Wenning of 210 Bellevue street, Newton that their son, Pfc. Kenneth W. Wenning, who had been reported as missing in action on March 27, was taken a prisoner by the Germans and has now been liberated.

Pfc. Wenning was graduated in June of last year from the Newton High School. He entered the Army on August 29th. After training at Camp Blanding, Florida, he went overseas in January. He was assigned to General Patton's Third Army and served with the Fourth Armored Division.

Muddletown, U.S.A.

There's no such place as Muddletown. Thank heaven! For if there were, this is how things might have happened there: It was a fine Spring morning when citizens of Muddletown went mad. They were tired of the war, with all its regulations and controls and interference with old-fashioned American individualism. They threw the war out of the window, along with War Bond buying, rationing, price controls, wage stabilization and gas conservation.

With carefree hearts the people of Muddletown gathered up their war bonds, went to the local bank, and cashed them in. They drew all their money out of their savings accounts. Then, loaded with cash, they headed for Muddletown's department stores, food stores, hardware stores, and places of amusement.

Rationing and price controls were forgotten. People bought everything they could get their hands on. As stocks dwindled, merchants raised their prices. In one store alone, men's shirts which had gone on sale for $2.85 at nine o'clock were nearing the $10 mark by noon—and, as the last few shirts were dragged out from under the counter, the price went to $15. Worried housewives called their husbands, urging them to ask the boss for a raise in order to meet the sky-rocketing cost of living. The husbands asked and the bosses gave. The families gathered around their dinner tables that night, they were pleased with themselves. Suddenly they were making more money and buying more things than ever before. It was a pleasure to hop into the jalopy after dinner, stop at the service station, buy as much gas as one wanted (what if it did cost 80 cents a gallon?) and go on to a movie, where a fairly good double bill was showing for only $3.50 a person. Muddletown went to bed that night not minding inflation a bit.

However . . . In the days that followed, two unpleasant facts became evident. The first of these was that when available supplies are bought up, then no more supplies are available. The second was, that once inflation hits prices no amount of salary inflation can keep up with them. And then—no matter how much money people have—they're really very poor.

The people of Muddletown began to get pretty angry. As one housewife indignantly put it, "There ought to be a law so that everyone gets a chance to buy what he needs, like rationing or something." And, as one old gentleman expostulated, "There ought to be a law to keep those prices down, like price ceilings or something." And, as one smart young boy shouted on his way to high school, "There ought to be a law about wages so they can't just go jumping them all over the place."

There ought to be a law. There is. That's why there aren't any Muddletowns, U.S.A.

Letters to the Editor

To The Editor:

I have wondered many times about the readers of your column NEWTON OF THE PAST whether they realize the factual importance of the news of former days and their relation to the building of the City of Newton and to the good things we have today in this home loving city. In the issue of May 10th a note was made of the Newton Centre Improvement Association 55 years ago being interested in the acquiring of the triangle located at Langley road, Union street and Beacon street now known as BEACON TRIANGLE, for a public park. It is still a beauty spot, and the improvement Association is still interested in the improvement of Newton Centre as is noted in the annual meeting to be held in the Newton Centre Women's Club on May 28th to discuss the many ideas for the future. I hope this meeting will have an influence upon the future so that 55 years hence the GRAPHIC will still be giving news of the Past.

Politics With Color

by P. W. C.

(The opinions expressed in this column are the writer's own, and do not necessarily reflect the opinions or policy of this newspaper—Editor's Note).

Barnes' Labor Bills

Those who read the political news in the Boston papers very casually did not, presumably, appreciate the significance of the vote on Monday, when the lower branch of the Legislature voted 141-70 AGAINST reconsideration of the bill sponsored by Clarence A. Barnes, Attorney General, to compel financial accountability of unions. One interesting angle is supplied by the Boston Post, a Democratic paper. Note the manner in which this paper reports the killing of the Barnes bill: "The labor bill which was to have been a Republican contribution to revitalizing the G.O.P. labor policies in the Bay State by legislation to compel financial accountability of unions was definitely killed yesterday in the House when, by a roll-call vote, 70-141, the House denied reconsideration of the bill of Atty.-General Clarence A. Barnes."

Let me now make several important points in connection with this entire matter. First of all, please note that Clarence Barnes is the second Republican Attorney General who has been severely handicapped by his inability to secure the whole-hearted backing of the G.O.P. high command. Bushnell was frequently in trouble because some of the leaders of his party did not see eye-to-eye with him. As a matter of fact, there has been a very recent instance of this. Bushnell filed several bills in the current Legislature dealing with the courts, the length of service of Attorney Generals, etc. I believe that all these bills have been killed. There is, of course, an explanation of Bushnell's difficulty at the time he was in office. He had a number of clashes with no less a person than Senator Charles Saltonstall. The worst clash involved a judicial appointment which Bushnell considered to be weak.

Now, what is the cause of Barnes' difficulty in securing G.O.P. support? Is it because this excellent public servant has been on the outside looking in for a good many years and the high command does not lose any sleep over its relations with him? Possibly, tho' I am inclined to doubt it. Is it, on the other hand, because the G.O.P. leaders in this state, as well as nationally, have decided that the Democrats shall be allowed to control the so-called labor vote? That makes sense. I have in my possession a letter from a strong Republican with liberal views who says it is about time that the Republican party realizes that it must go where the votes are. In other words, the G.O.P. must gradually force the average citizen to believe that the present party of opposition is NOT primarily the party of big business, society leaders, and men and women of wealth. That may prove to be a large order, but until the Republican leaders can convince the rank and file throughout the country that the party has broadened its outlook, the chances for electing a Republican President will be slim.

That brings me back to the present disposition of the Barnes labor bill. The House has a fairly substantial Republican majority, and IF it had passed this bill over the desperate resistance of labor leaders in Massachusetts, it would have been hard to convince the rank and file of labor that the G.O.P. was sincere in its protestations of interest and concern for labor.

The other side of the story is this: the Attorney General has his office today thousands upon thousands of answers to his advertisement in a Boston paper urging laboring people to sign the ad and indicate their endorsement of his two labor bills. Unless you choose to believe that all these signed answers to the ad were faked, which is perfectly ridiculous, you are bound to realize that Barnes has a large body of public sentiment behind him. If that is true, it is indeed unfortunate that the House saw fit to throw these two bills out.

We come now to the behavior of the various Representatives of the House, including our own. If the papers reported the vote correctly, our two Representatives from the South side, Rep. Margaret Spear and Rep. Henderson Inches, voted FOR the Barnes bill and our two Representatives from the North side, Rep. George E. Rawson and Rep. John S. Whittemore, voted AGAINST the bill.

At this point, let me give you the explanation of a Legislator from another community, (not Brookline) as to the attitude of his colleagues. I was chiding him for the common failure of members of the House to put themselves on record through a formal roll-call vote. That, of course, applies only to important votes on highly controversial measures. On these occasions, the "Boys" either arrange to have a vote taken, or else they absent themselves from the House Chamber while the roll is being called. Here is my friend's explanation, with special reference to the Barnes bills. He told me that it was obvious to all the politicians that there were enough Republicans who would vote WITH the Democrats to kill these bills. Therefore, why put ALL Republicans on the spot by forcing a roll-call vote? It would only make it difficult for these gentlemen to secure re-election when their terms expired.

Well, how do you like that for an explanation? Are you surprised? You need not be. THAT is politics.

NEWTON In The Past

55 Years Ago
Newton Graphic, May 23, 1890
O. Tucker & Co. have just received another car load of their special brand of flour, "The Pride of Newton," which is so popular with Newton housekeepers.

The new ambulance for the Hospital now in course of construction by Murray & Farrell will be ready in a few weeks. It will probably be one of the most complete and convenient ambulances ever constructed, and will reflect credit upon the donor and the builders.

The 71st anniversary of the Congregational Sunday School, West Newton, was observed in the Second Church, Sunday evening.

The contract for building the new reservoir on Waban Hill for the high water service has been awarded to J. R. Leavitt of Boston, for $37,681.

H. C. Daniels, Newton, has a large number of fine driving horses and handsome carriages, and can fit out his patrons with anything in the livery line that they want.

An order of the Red Cross will be installed next Monday evening in Newton. A fine entertainment will be provided. The charter list has 100 names, and is at W. B. White's store for further signatures.

The Newton Street Railway has been granted a permit for its car house on Washington street, Newtonville. The house, supporting piers have been laid and the building will be pushed up rapidly.

When the Catholic church is started in Newton Centre there will be six societies in the town. Twelve years ago there were only two—the Orthodox and Baptist.

The dirt and refuse on the main streets about the stores have all been cleaned up and carted away by the highway department this week, for which the residents are very grateful. The short item in the GRAPHIC last week is credited with starting the reform, and with so many miles of territory to cover it is not strange that the highway department should occasionally overlook the "outskirts" as School Committee member Putney of the Highlands calls Newton Corner.

The Boston English High School has 803 pupils on its rolls this year, and in spite of the large number, there appears to be no complaints of any lack of efficiency in the instruction given. But then the school does not have three or four separate courses, wherein it has one advantage over our High School.

The new police box has been placed in Newtonville square. It has been inspected by a large number of curious persons who are anxious to learn how it works.

Telegraphing is soon to be made possible at their depot, Newton Highlands, by the New York & New England railroad company, a fact which will be welcomed by our business men who have long felt the necessity of better facilities in this direction.

50 Years Ago
Newton Graphic, May 24, 1895.
It would be an idea for the city to have a cart and a couple of men to go about the streets, picking up the loose cobblestones that have worked up to the surface, or been dropped by gravel teams.

The new grammar school building, which is soon to be erected at the corner of Chestnut street and Hillside avenue, West Newton, to replace the old Pierce schoolhouse, will be the largest and most completely appointed grammar school building in the city.

The Newton & Boston Street Railway Company received 10 new open cars this week. They take the place of those destroyed in the recent Walnut street car station fire. The new equipment is first class in all respects and the cars are the most perfect and attractive in design in the service.

The Newton National Bank in company with all the other banks of Eastern Massachusetts will close on Saturdays hereafter at 12 o'clock, the year round.

The boating and canoeing season has begun in earnest. The river is high and in splendid condition. During the past week it has been visited by a large number of fair girls with their escorts, who evidently appreciate its manifold attractions.

The formal opening of the reconstructed fire headquarters took place Wednesday evening. The observance took place in the form of a banquet, tendered to members of the city council and other city officials, by the members of the companies stationed in West Newton.

Ice formed about the city, Monday night, and the ground froze a half inch or so, but it is not thought that very much damage was done.

The members of the police department don their white helmets on Memorial Day.

The millinery store in Central block, West Newton, has closed up as trade was not satisfactory. It takes a long time to build up a business in Newton, but when it is built up it is worth something.

The idea seems prevalent here that too many patrolmen are required for services on the "hurry-up" wagon. Some of the men should be utilized, it is thought, for routes where additional police protection is needed.

TEEN-AGE

and LEE TYLER

One of the most unique late-to-school excuses was presented by "Woody" Crowther recently. Said the note in his mother's handwriting (in short): "Please excuse Woody's lateness from school—as he cut himself shaving." No one but a Newton student could have such an original excuse! . . . No one can say that Joan Delamater hasn't been chastened! With-milk, too! The accident (?) happened during church—the sponsor got wet, too. . . . A while ago we mentioned the names of some Newton girls at the Andover prom. Here's another addition to the list—how could we forget her? "Lee" Newcomb. She was a "Belle o' the Brawl." . . . At this writing, the seniors of N.H.S. have only 12 more days of school. Mr. Cutting's senior homeroom seems to be anticipating it, by the feelings expressed on one of the blackboards—"12 more days left of cutting and tyranny." . . . Some ex-N.H.S. boys, now graduates of Lawrence Academy, have been seen gallivanting around Auburndale and other towns, in very nice company, too! . . . Dick Smith has been elected president of Tusitala, the exclusive literary club. . . . Roger Mergendahl has been elected Editor-in-Chief of the Newtonite. . . . The Newton Student Canteen has reopened after a few changes were made at the request of the fire commissioner. . . . Bob Barry tells us that Mr. M. is starting a scrap book for Newton's new physics sensation, Nick Buzarek. (Nick worked hard for those last six words.) . . . We know of some Newton boys who could use a few lessons on the art of paddling a canoe. . . . The new "Newtonian" editor is having her troubles trying to get boys to work on the staff. . . . At this rate, it will be a girls' year-book! . . . This week the Newton Rangers (Marv is determined to get their names in every week!) beat the Cabot Crusaders 4 to 1. David Nangle, Ken MacDonald, Henry Lane, Tommy Green, and Bob Murphy were the stars of the Buddies' Club, and, judging by her reactions to questions, she has a whale of a good time there! . . . Watch out, merchants! The canteen solicitors are on their rounds again! . . . No more new for today. If you want a good column, tell us news! We don't know it all!

Fifth Anniversary of Red Cross Sewing at Union Church, Waban

The Red Cross Sewing group of Union Church, Waban, Mrs. Wellington Rindge, chairman, celebrated their fifth anniversary on Wednesday, May 23d. Although very eager to serve the Red Cross, it is their earnest prayer that another anniversary celebration will not be needed.

The Newton Upper Falls Work Room at the Methodist Church, Mrs. Robert McLaughlin, chairman, will be closed from July 1st to September 19th.

25 Years Ago

On Monday evening the aldermen, almost unanimously on the matter, accepted Sunday sports.

The new bank building to be used as the Newtonville office of the Newton Trust Company is completed and is being informally inspected by a large number of invited guests this afternoon.

Mr. James C. Irwin, who retired last year as the Scoutmaster of Norumbega District of Boy Scouts, was the guest of honor Tuesday evening at the Newton Club at a dinner given by the Council of the district.

The Central Council of Social Activities of Newton has recently been formed. The present membership is composed of School Department, Stearns School Centre, Newton Circle, West Newton Neighborhood House, Board of Health, District Nursing, West Newton Music School, Twombly House, City Charity Department, Hospital Social Service League, Newton Federation of Women's Clubs, Newton Welfare and Red Cross.

Newton Lodge of Elks observed its centennial meeting last night with an enjoyable and unusual entertainment in its club rooms in Eliot Block.

The Players are giving their 75th series of plays this week, at Players' Hall, West Newton, presenting the farce, "It Pays to Advertise."

When the New England Telephone and Telegraph Company opens its first machine switching central office in Boston during 1921 at Harrison avenue, Essex and Oxford streets it will be known as "Liberty."

Newton Lodge of Elks will celebrate its 100th meeting next Thursday and the Lodge intends to make it a "Gala Night."

The men of the First Unitarian Society in Newton formed on April 23 the West Newton Chapter of the Unitarian Laymen's League. The first dinner and business meeting was held in the Parish House of the Church on that date.

During the three years the Special Aid Society has been meeting at the WMCA, the Newton Branch has made over 25,000 articles which have been distributed among our soldiers, sailors and aviators.

325 ladies assembled in the Unitarian Church, West Newton, on Wednesday, to hear plans for a Community Service Club, to vote upon a constitution and by-laws, and to elect officers.

A Busy Week at Pomroy House

On Saturday evening the Pomroy Socialites entertained a group of young service men who came out from the Buddies Club for an evening of fun and refreshments. Mrs. Frederick White and Mrs. William Jarvis were hostesses while the Misses Ellen Balkus, Antoinette Tocci and Rhoda White took charge of refreshments.

The Mothers' Club held their annual banquet at the Community House on Monday evening. Mrs. Bella Norton, president of the club, was hostess for the evening. The guests included Mrs. Hugh Hince, president of the board of directors; Mr. Lawrence Damon, 1945 chairman of the annual fund drive; Mr. H. J. Pettengill, executive of the Newton Community Chest; Mrs. Frederick White, Mrs. Walter Jamison, members of the board of directors; Miss Gertrude MacCallum, executive worker of the West Newton Community Center; Mrs. Hazel Riley, president of the Weneccoco Club; Mr. Raymond Green, principal of the Newton High School. After dinner Mrs. Raymond Green entertained the group with a delightful account of a day spent in Halifax and then showed movies in technicolor of the last day spent in Canada by the King and Queen of England.

On Thursday evening, the girls belonging to the 4-H cooking and sewing clubs exhibited some of their work done during the year under their leaders. Mrs. Frank G. Kennedy, Mrs. Marie Gilbert, Mrs. Emma Larrabee, Miss Edith Jalonen, Miss Sylvia Frey, Miss Helen I. Sandstrom. The girls who received blue ribbon awards for outstanding work in cooking were Catherine Arseneault, Ruth Riddle, Anne Perkins, Phyllis Tocci, Dorothy Proia, Betty Greeley, Eleanor Welch, Eleanor Aiello, Peggy Whalen, Peggy McArdle, Betty Brown, Jennie Tocci, Virginia Sanguenetti, Phyllis Jansen. Kay Rogan, Sheila Hardy and Elizabeth Fahey received blue ribbons for their work in sewing. Mrs. Alice Brown, assistant club agent from Middlesex county, presented the ribbons after judging the work.

The 4-H girls attended the County Day at Wakefield on Saturday morning viewing the work of the other girls of the county. Eleanor Neville received a blue ribbon for a good lunch packed by herself while Winifred Fahey received a blue ribbon for her prize muffins exhibited.

A group of younger children attended the play given by the North Bennett Street Industrial School at the Newton Centre Woman's Club chaperoned by Miss Loretta Burke and the Misses Patsy Morrison and Joan McMullin, two senior Girl Scouts.

The Pomroy House is one of Newton's Red Feather Agencies.

Dining With Jane and Bill

Bill—Jane, where's the food bill? I'll stop by and pay it on my way home.

Jane—Right there on the shelf in the kitchen, Bill.

Bill—Say—something wrong here, isn't there?

Jane—What do you mean?

Bill—Well, I thought food prices were going up.

Jane—They certainly are.

Bill—Not according to this bill. You spent three dollars less for this week than usual. I can't believe it. What have you been doing?

Jane—I guess I've been planning my shopping better. I have made out a weekly market order so that I know how much food our family really needs. Then I figure just what I'm going to buy and how much it will cost me.

Bill—I certainly hope it will spare me some of those last-minute trips to the delicatessen for things you've forgotten.

Jane—Now you're teasing. Believe me it does save running to the store.

Bill—What I want to know is—what brought about this sudden interest in making out a market list?

Jane—I noticed in the Graphic recently that the Nutrition Center holds office hours every Wednesday morning from 10 to 12 to help mothers check their family meal plans. So I stopped by one morning when I was down in Newton Corner shopping. The Nutritionist suggested that I buy with a definite plan in mind; I know how much milk we need, and how many pounds of fruits and vegetables we should have to be well-fed.

Office hours are held at the Newton Nutrition Center every Wednesday morning from 10 to 12. If you have any questions concerning food for your family, or food budgeting visit your Newton Nutrition Center at 251 Washington street. Bigelow 7602.

the evening. He was introduced by Mr. Charles R. Cabot. Dr. Anderson gave a most interesting talk on "The Future of Public School Plants in Newton." He outlined the ideal geographical layout of Newton for elementary, junior high and senior high schools. He stated that a number of new schools will have to be constructed during the coming years to complete a satisfactory educational program. The net result, he stated, will be convenience to the students of Newton and a saving to the city. Dr. Anderson also answered a number of questions on the plans from many in the audience. The meeting was held in the Central Congregational Church, Newtonville, and was concluded with refreshments served in the church dining room.

Since its organization in 1904, the Newtonville Improvement Association has encouraged and safeguarded the development of Newtonville as a residential section of the City of Newton. Throughout this period many civic betterments have been sponsored and carried through by the Association. During the past year, special attention has been given to clarifying the situation caused by the intrusion of two-family houses into single residence districts. Special hearings were held last winter in reference to the extension of the building zone on Walnut street near Highland avenue. The subject of adequate playgrounds in Newtonville, automobile parking problems and similar matters have been discussed and acted upon. The expenses of the Association are financed entirely from membership dues.

The membership consists of about four hundred citizens and the business of the Association is conducted through an executive committee which includes the officers and the following: J. Marvin Allen, Ralph Brown, Alan D. Duff, Charles R. Cabot, Harry D. Cabot, Rodney C. Eaton, Walter A. Hood, Eugene Howell, James H. Lewis, Chester S. Merrill, Earl B. Millard, George B. Rowlands, Robert D. Sallinger, Charles P. Slocum, George W. Taylor, Clifford S. J. White and Paul R. Whitworth.

Awarded Degree Of B.S. at B. U.

James F. Gaquin, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Gaquin of 51 William street, West Newton was awarded the degree of Bachelor of Science in Business Administration at the Boston University commencement exercises on Monday, having successfully completed the four year course at the College of Business Administration. Active in extra-curricular affairs throughout his college career he won his varsity letter as a Terrier golfer in 1943; served as associate editor of the B. U. News in his senior year, and was a member of the B. U. Debating team which recently represented the university in two forensic tours to the U. S. Military Academy at West Point.

He was also honored this spring by being elected a member of Scarlet Key, honorary activities organization at Boston University. He is also a member of Alpha Delta Sigma, professional advertising fraternity, and the Newman Club, university Catholic organization. He was on the Dean's List for scholastic excellence. His father is a member of the Newton Police Department.

Frank A. Day Junior High School

Super-salesmen, Pauline Oppen, Grade 9; Barbara Green, Grade 8; and Jean Weber, Grade 7, continue to hold first place in the sale of bonds and stamps. Thursday marked the largest sales day of the school year, the grand total for the day being $772.50. The total to date in 1944 and 1945 is $26,988.75.

A splendid film on Dumbarton Oaks was presented to the social studies pupils as a feature of the visual aids education in this department.

Divisions 7 I A and 7 II A exhibited pictures made entirely from colored paper on the main bulletin board last week. The subject of the posters was "The United States."

A musical assembly, which this year owing to war conditions replaced the annual spring concert, was presented to the parents on Friday, May 18. A part of the program was given before a school audience earlier in the day. Barbara Siegars was the chairman of the school presentation; Grace Swan, of the afternoon performance. The program was under the direction of Mr. Jurglewicz, assisted by Mrs. Lorraine Holmes.

Lasell Junior College

On Friday evening, the Dramatic Club presented "Gowns, Heads and Hearts," a one-act play written by Mrs. Guy M. Winslow. The May Fete, under the direction of Miss Adelaide Case, will be Thursday, May 31, at 3:30 p.m. The May Show and the Crowning of the Queen will take place at the same time.

Merry-Go-Round -

FAVORITE ARMY NURSE

Our favorite army nurse, Lieutenant Betty Higgins, who formerly hailed from Jewett street, Newton, is now giving of her very capable professional service in India. A veteran of three years overseas, Betty has travelled through the South Pacific islands during most of that time, making life easy and possible for warriors in need of her healing art. Ex-Sergeant Joe Nolan, among other Newtonians, credits Betty's care for his safe return home.

AROUND TOWN...

Navy Chief Larry O'Donnell is home with an honorable discharge from the navy. Chief Jack McGrath, has been sailing on one of the islands. He's all right now and back in harness. Sgt. Fitzgerald is still out in the South Pacific with his flying outfit. Tom, his brother, was first sgt. in Germany according to his letter of May 1st. Bob Dalton, in Italy, misses the old town. Herb Swift writes from Germany, as does Paul Shinnick. Gil Champagne was going strong with his mechanized cavalry in Germany last April, when we heard from him last. Bill Ford, the old vaudeville star, was wowing them over there, too, at that time. John Campbell is sailing the South Seas with the navy, and if we know the gent, he's playing a little poker as he rolls along. Charlie Marden, honorably discharged from the navy, is back pounding a beat in Newton for the police department.

Sgt. Ralph McDonald is still in India. E. H. received his letter and enjoyed it. Returning veterans are all around town. They're really arriving in numbers now. The Newton High School kids have established a canteen for themselves on Highland avenue, Newtonville, with a soda fountain, booths, a dance floor, a couple of pianos and a juke box. They've decorated the place and an average of about 200 youngsters have a whale of a time for themselves there, during the afternoons and the early p.m. The kids are getting smarter all the time. Thanks to all you fellows who've directed letters in the direction of the Merry-Go-Round. Hearing from you is the best thing that happens around here and if you have nothing better to do, one of these days, we'd like to have you do it again.

23 SELECTEES GET SENDOFF AT CITY HALL

Twenty-three Newton selectees were tendered a sendoff by the Citizens Committee for Service to Newton Servicemen at the City Hall May 17 before leaving for Fort Banks for induction. The Rev. Thomas M. Herlihy of St. Ignatius' Church, Chestnut Hill was the principal speaker. Harold Young, secretary to Mayor Paul M. Goddard, represented the mayor. Lt. Carl F. Schipper, Jr., former Newton alderman, who has just returned from 26 months of service in the Navy overseas, also addressed the group.

YOUNG MOTHER WINS SONG CONTEST

Mrs. O. Helen Staraley of Elgin street, Newton Centre, won first prize in a Song Contest given by Putnam Commandery No. 38, United Order of the Golden Cross of Which she and her husband Robert Staraley have recently become members.

Mrs. Staraley, the mother of four children, is active in local church work. Her husband is the owner of the Greetings Shop in Newton Centre.

He always has time for us and sees that a boy leaving school for the Armed Forces has a few days "furlough" before he leaves Newton.

A couple of months ago a canteen was organized with the prime intention of relieving the congestion in Newtonville Square. It opened April second and since then one would think the 'Ville was uninhabited of youth and the adults may now have their innings in the stores.

When we consider the deficit in manpower, our sports record this year has been very good. We finished second in football in the Suburban League and fifth in the State. The indoor season found basketball first in the Suburban League, but we failed in the Tech Tourney. In hockey we tied for fourth and indoor track (as usual) found us State Champs. Outdoor season is still going on, and at the present we are second in baseball in the Suburban League. The State finals have yet to be run in track and tennis, but both our teams look strong. We haven't even been touched so far in golf with more games coming. The coaches have had to watch their players' citizenship very closely this year because good old Room 127 is a popular meeting place.

This year we have participated in drives for magazines, clothing, the sponsorship of a tanker, and Christmas gifts for soldiers stationed in this country but unable to be at home.

We declare, as have all classes that preceded us, that our Senior Prom and Senior Night were the best in the history of our Alma Mater.

Most of the fellows will be joining you soon, and who knows, perhaps we'll meet with some of the gals we know who have entered the Service.

Here's for luck and may God be with you.

HOSPITAL NAME IS CHANGED

In recognition of the fact that Newton Hospital is a general hospital primarily serving residents of the Newton and Wellesley area, the members of the hospital corporation have voted to take the required steps to change its name to the Newton-Wellesley Hospital, according to an announcement made by Clifford H. Walker, president of the corporation.

In commenting on the decision Mr. Walker said: "The name 'Newton-Wellesley Hospital' is a most logical one for our institution. For nearly a quarter of a century the people of Wellesley have both shared the privileges of the hospital and its support with their fellow citizens of the Newtons."

The Rev. Thomas M. Herlihy of St. Ignatius' Church, Chestnut Hill was the principal speaker. Harold Young, secretary to Mayor Paul M. Goddard, represented the mayor. Lt. Carl F. Schipper, Jr., former

Mr. Walker added, "includes leading citizens of both Newton and Wellesley. Financial aid to meet the hospital's operating expenses is given annually by the people of Newton and Wellesley through their respective chests and the Wellesley Fund. Established in 1881, Newton Hospital, which is located on Washington street in Newton Lower Falls, has a capacity of 252 beds.

CITY OF NEWTON BUYS TRACT OF LAND IN CHESTNUT HILL FOR PLAYGROUND

John T. Burns & Sons Inc., report that they have sold to the city of Newton a large tract of land fronting on Montrose street, Esplanade and Fellsmead road, adjoining the John Ward School property. The tract comprises 150,000 square feet and will be used by the City of Newton in conjunction with the development of the Ward School property for playground purposes.

Adjoining this property on Montrose street and Lorna road, the Charles G. Rice land has been developed by them and nineteen of the twenty lots in the subdivision have already been sold to private home owners who intend to develop the same by the erection of high-grade single residences as soon as conditions permit. The total assessment of the land sold is $52,000.

RATHEON PLANS BROADCAST STATION IN WALTHAM

Negotiations are under way with the Waltham Park Commissioners to permit Ratheon Manufacturing Co. to lease a site in Prospect Hill Park for the erection of a television and FM broadcasting station.

This is one of the highest points in Metropolitan Boston and on May 3 Governor Maurice J. Tobin signed a Bill authorizing the city of Waltham to lease certain portions of the same.

The petitioners on the Bill were Senator Richard I. Furbush and Representative Chauncey Cousins, of Waltham, and Representative Charles E. Ferguson, of Lexington. Horace T. Cahill represented Ratheon as attorney.

N. E. TEL. & TEL. BUILDING SOLD

Sale of the New England Telephone and Telegraph Co.'s former West Newton telephone exchange building at 437 Cherry street, West Newton, was announced May 16 by John C. Kiley. Mr. Kiley said that the purchase was made by Howard S. Cosgrove of Winchester for investment purposes.

There is a three-story building now leased to the Doelcum Machine Co. and the land area is 7,452 square feet. The total assessed valuation is $43,700.

APPOINTED TO RATION BOARD

The appointment of four additional men to the Newton War Price and Rationing Board, was announced this week by William B. Baker, chairman of the Board. The new members will serve on the recently created Community Service Panel. They are, Philip O. Ahlin, chairman of the Panel, Walter A. Hood, Edward H. Powers and Charles H. Meeker.

MRS. ROOSEVELT THANKS BOARD FOR RESOLUTION

A letter expressing her thanks for the resolution adopted on the death of President Franklin D. Roosevelt has been received from Mrs. Roosevelt by the Newton Board of Aldermen.

The resolution, paying a high tribute to the late President, was adopted April 16 by the board. On that occasion, services were held for the department leader, with the Rev. Herbert Hitchen, D.D., minister of the West Newton Unitarian Church, as eulogist.

14,700 TO ONE SHOT HAPPENS

Mathematicians at City Hall figured out that it could happen only once in 14,700 times that the "it" refers to the coincidence which occurred when Alderman William W. Tripp of Newton drew his own name out of the box containing the names of Newton men eligible for jury service.

Alderman Tripp must report for jury service at the Middlesex Superior Court in East Cambridge next month.

The mathematical possibility of an alderman drawing his own name was worked out this way. There are approximately 700 names on the Newton jury list and there are 21 members of the Board of Aldermen. Thus 700 times 21 equals 14,700.

KEYES ELECTED PRESIDENT OF OAK HILL IMPROVEMENT ASSOC.

Henry W. Keyes of 39 Nickerson road was elected president of the Oak Hill District Improvement Association at the annual meeting held May 14 at the Oak Hill School.

Other officers elected were Eric A. Bianchi, first vice-president; William D. Moran, secretary; W. P. Dillingham, treasurer; William E. Larkin, auditor; Truman Brackett, Robert M. Kennard and Philip Saunders, director for three years.

Secretary Moran reported a membership of 249 persons.

Newton Merry-Go-Round

By Paul Considine

The mailman rang twice, a little while ago, and a long letter from Colonel Edith Hickey, who's been fighting the Japs in China these past couple of years, was, as his epistles always are, tops in entertaining and informative reading. The Ol' Colonel mentioned, among other things, that his men, his officers and himself, took the news of Germany's surrender in a surprisingly calm, cool manner.

Time was, he said, when they'd have taken time out, so's to cut loose and really kick the gong around, but being as how the collapse of those super-duper gents had been anticipated for weeks, and due to the fact, also, that his outfit had been scrapping pretty regularly of late, they just said, "Thank God," mentally congratulated the warriors who'd turned in the job and crawled into their blankets.

The Chinese are good fighting men, he continued, and now that they're getting arms and ammunition, plus the real McCoy in military training, they'll be hard to beat and it's his opinion they will surprise the world before this thing is over. They're anxious to put their stepped-up war machine in motion, too, he added, so's to get hunk with the Japs for all the fouls Hirohito and Company tossed China's way during the past six years.

DARN NEAR HOMELESS...

A two alarm fire in the Elks Building, Centre street, Newton Corner, darn near resulted in a lot of us being homeless last Tuesday. The fire, starting in a cleaning shop on the first floor, damaged Hubbard's Drug Store, not to mention giving Wilfred Chagnon, the owner, a terrific headache, and was checked just in time to save the Elks' Club quarters upstairs.

Fire Chief Keating's men worked gemrude in confining the flames to the cleaning shop, thereby saving that bottle of moxie we've been saving above, for Captain "Pesky" Pescosolido's return.

NEW POLICE CHIEF...

Mayor Paul Goddard submitted to the Board of Aldermen, last Monday night, the name of Acting Chief Nicholas Veducio as his choice for the post of Chief of Police. Acting Chief since the death of ex-Chief Michael Hughes last September, and a member of the Newton Police Department for the past 30 years, the chief-elect worked his way up from the ranks.

Appointed to the department as a patrolman in 1915, he became sergeant in 1925 and took over the night desk as a lieutenant in 1930. Promoted to captain September 24, 1933, he held that office until September 1934.

newed effort on the home front will hasten the day of Victory.

PAUL M. GODDARD.

All Newton residents are requested to have their waste paper, properly bundled, on the sidewalks in front of their homes by 9 o'clock Sunday morning, June 3, to facilitate its collection by the fleet of City and Army trucks which will make a thorough tour of the City. Representatives of Newton Service Clubs and High School students will man the 30 trucks making the collection.

Chairman of the Committee in charge of this drive is John D. Haughey, Newton Street Commissioner. The Vice Chairman is Clarence R. Mease, General Secretary of the Newton Y.M.C.A., while James B. Melcher will act as Treasurer. Assisting as Committee Members are F. Brittain Kennedy, Robert Pettit, Roger P. Congdon, Daniel E. Sullivan, Richard Murphy and Mrs. William V. M. Fawcett.

Through the cooperation of Ray Cabot, president of the Newton Red Cross Chapter, and Mrs. Ernest McClure, chairman of the Red Cross Canteen Committee, luncheon for all workers on the day of the drive will be served at the five disposal points of the collection in Newton, West Newton, Newton Lower Falls, Newton Upper Falls, and Newton Center.

The tons of paper resulting from this all-out collection will be sold at ceiling prices, and the net proceeds will be divided among the following organizations operating for the benefit of Newton's boys and girls of all ages and creeds: "What's Cookin' in Newton," the home-town bulletin which is sent regularly to Newton's armed service folk overseas; The Family Service Bureau through whose efforts needy boys and girls are sent to camp; The High School Canteen; The Boy Scouts; The Girl Scouts for capital improvements at Camp Mary A. Day; and the Y.M.C.A. for capital improvements at Camp Frank A. Day.

"Newton citizens can be relied upon," announced Chairman Haughey to his committee when plans for this gigantic undertaking were discussed. "100,000 pounds of clothing were collected during that drive, and even with no particular urging, Newton residents donated an average of 170 tons of waste paper a month. I have every confidence that on Sunday, June 3, the total waste paper collection will far surpass the 200 ton goal!"

As of April 18, the 20th Air Force reported that more than 50% of Tokyo, 33% of Kobe, 20% of Osaka, and 10% of Nagoya had been burned out, largely the result of CWS incendiaries. Put together the three burned-out districts in Tokyo cover an area nearly 33 square miles, or larger than New York's Manhattan Island.

Dr. Hitchen Preaches 1945 Anniversary Sermon

"Contemporaries can be centuries apart," declared Dr. Herbert Hitchen, minister of the First Unitarian Society in Newton, preaching in his own West Newton church the 1945 anniversary sermon of the Sunday morning, May 20, before an unusually large congregation.

Because of the omission of the usual national anniversary meeting week due to the war and transportation edicts, this address, "This is the Time!," was instead printed in an edition of 27,000 copies, in time for distribution last Sunday in Unitarian churches all over the country.

"Isaiah is more alive now even than he was then, and the principles to which he stood valiant witness are those that have given hope to the intervening centuries," continued Dr. Hitchen.

"Just as there are those now alive who are daily breathing the air of John Calvin's Geneva; others whose comrades are of the eleventh century still others whose affinity is with the cave man, so it works also the other way. There were modern men in the ancient world. They belong, in their own right, to this day. Indeed there are those with whom we have by no means as yet caught up, and of such are many of the prophets and saints of our household of faith. Tomorrow will still find them leading the way, and we shall best serve that tomorrow if we walk in close and joyous fellowship with them."

Denouncing Barthianism, which he said has penetrated in somewhat diluted form "even into some of our own (Unitarian) pulpits, and is working ill, a slow but paralyzing poison, so that there is numbness along the nerves that once vibrated to the chords of human aspiration and hope," Dr. Hitchen said: "It is becoming increasingly fashionable in these days to deride and belittle man's efforts to build a worthy society."

In refutation to this pessimistic attitude, Dr. Hitchen quoted Harry Emerson Fosdick's succinct definition, that "the true realists are optimists with a long-term faith." "It is perfectly possible to give full weight to all that every passing day brings in witness of the devil in us, and yet hold fast to a dauntless faith in man's ultimate triumph," he declared.

"Now, on this dark day, is more than ever the time to be faithful to the hope-creating genius that is at the very heart of our gospel, and so call forth 'the fiery element that breaks the earth's shadow with a human light,'" as John Holmes expresses it in a recent poem.

"The post-war world will be one in which, for a while, chaos will reign. It will bristle with problems the solution of which will intimately affect human destiny, economic, social, political, international questions, complicated and urgent, will press upon us and demand an answer. Whether or not order will emerge out of the chaos, and the order prove stable and enduring, depends on another factor,— embracing and decisive,— the factor of religion.

"Leave religion, its ethical insights, its creative goodwill, its insistence upon deep and abiding values, out of our treaties and agreements, and they will prove worthless as withered weeds. But the religion that will show itself adequate to such staggering demands," he continued, "will be neither a timid one, a narrowly dogmatic one, nor one parochial in its emphasis and vision. It must have a universality of outlook, a profound concern for truth, justice and freedom, and the quality of vigorous championship of basic and broad human welfare.

"We have in our faith all the elements that qualify it to be the leading factor in the world's redemption. This is the time to speak to those of our generation and those who will come after us, as the ones we honor in the past spoke to their age and ours,— not in the same accents, not in all particulars with the same message, but in the same exalted and prophetic spirit. Ours is a mighty heritage, but its mightiness will in no way absolve us from blame if we add nothing to it. It is a heritage not for us alone, but for all men. It is not to be hoarded and saved, but shared. Enlightening, emancipating, enriching, it is a precious possession that we shall preserve only if we use it,— set it to work, to achieve that greater increase which today's field promises in such abundance.

"This is the acceptable year of the Lord,— a dark, grievous, suffering, but magnificent time, in which we are presented as never before with the opportunity to make our lives, our faith, count,— decisively, creatively. Nothing less than the best will do in response to our utmost valour for mighty causes; our unstinted aid and succor to the downtrodden and oppressed; our positive allegiance to the saving truths; our highest chivalry in the service of 'God's little ones'; our most virile thinking, and most deeply-dedicated wills."

Goddard, and one from the Citizens Committee for Service to Newton Servicemen by Roy S. Edwards, chairman. A simple ceremony will be held with appropriate music by the Newton High School Band. The marchers will then proceed along Walnut street to the Newton Cemetery.

Immediately upon arrival at the cemetery, Memorial services will be held at the Soldiers' Monument, United States Senator Leverett Saltonstall, who is a member of Newton Post 48, American Legion, will be the orator of the day.

Following the exercises at the cemetery the parade will form again and march through Walnut street and Commonwealth avenue to the grounds of City Hall where the column will be reviewed by the Chief Marshal and staff in front of the main portico.

There will be three divisions in the parade, as follows:

The Home Defense

As I lay on my bunk... the barracks
And my thoughts turned backward
With time
I just can't help but keep wondering
Of our boys, in that so-called "Front Line".

I'm aware of the change in conditions
Back home where our loved ones work hard
But the fate of the world can't be figured
As you would, on the turn of a card.

It's not enough that our loved ones
Are striving and sweating to keep Our guns, our tanks, and our aircraft
Up in front, on top of the heap.

No, there's one of a hundred things lacking
And of this, we all can be sure
If we lack that essential something
Regardless of Victory, we're poor.

There's forty-eight states in the Union
We share this, as a matter of fact
And we're here, serving notice, afar and anear
We mean to keep them intact.

It isn't enough that our victories
Are causing the enemy fear,
That our ships are causing great havoc,
Just supply the demand, and stand clear.

Sure, our boys in the front lines are fighting
But your fight is just twice as hard.

Let's speed up the work of production
And we'll land right in Hitler's front yard.
Our boys in the front lines are willing

If you doubt it, just ask the foes.
But the strength of our lads are depending

On home folks, you Mary, you Tom, and you Joe.

We speak of morale and condition
That's all very well in its place
But unless we have more home production
We, not the Japs will lose face.

I'm not a boss or a foreman
I'm just a sailor in blue
That's trying with all of his might
To do his small part, so come thru!

Information For Veterans

Regarding the Department of Veterans' Services, City of
Newton

The Department of Veterans' Services is administered by a subcommittee of the Board of Aldermen, composed of five members. This department assists veterans and their dependents under Chapter 115, General Laws and Chapter 11 of the Acts of 1942. Alderman Carroll J. Hoffman is chairman, and the committee members are Aldermen Wendell R. Bauckman, Louis A. Myers, Charles P. Slocum and Joseph B. Jamieson. The office force consists of Edmund T. Duggan, agent, Norman J. Altheim, investigator, and Helen A. Duggan, clerk-typographer. Dr. Allen R. Barrow is Veterans' Services Physician.

In order to take advantage of the services available, a returning veteran follows this normal procedure. Before discharge he is given lectures to familiarize himself with the provisions of the GI Bill. He then reports back to the Newton Draft Board where he fills out a questionnaire. When he has been given his identification discharge card from his Board he may while still in City Hall go to the Department of Veterans' Services to have his discharge papers photostated. The Department of Veterans' Services is thoroughly versed in Veterans' benefits including the GI Bill and will be glad to assist the veterans with putting into effect what he learned in his lectures before discharge.

The State laws allow financial assistance to worthy veterans or their dependents who are in need of this assistance. In order to be eligible for Veterans' Services the veteran must have been living in Newton at the time of enlistment or induction, or have a settlement in Newton, and for World War I must have served between August 6, 1917 and November 11, 1918, and received an honorable discharge from the service. World War II veterans must have served between September 16, 1940, and the termination of the present hostilities and received an honorable discharge.

In order to assist returning veterans, this department has purchased a photostat machine for the making of photostats of honorable discharge papers. It is strongly recommended that the original discharge paper be framed between two panes of glass so that it will be readable from both sides. One photostat will be furnished free and a copy is kept in this office.

If a claim has been filed with the Veterans' Administration, a card will be received acknowledging claim and showing claim number. Veterans should be sure to make a copy of any original letters sent to the Veterans' Administration so as to refer to it later on. Claim number should always be shown on all correspondence with the Veterans' Administration. Write the claim number on the back of the photostatic copy of the discharge.

This office is equipped to assist in making out the forms for back pay, gratuity pay, pensions and insurance of the widows or dependents of men who have died or been killed in Service.

Information on hospitalization, Veterans' Administration claims, education, loans, jobs, or civil service will be furnished on request. Applications for any of these benefits are available at the Department of Veterans' Services at City Hall. The City has a Soldiers' Lot in the Newton Cemetery used exclusively for the burial of honorably discharged veterans of all wars who have a Newton residence. There is no fee for the burial lot but there is a cemetery charge for opening the grave and setting of the headstone. Government headstones are furnished without cost.

Veterans may wear the Army uniform for 30 days after date of discharge and the Navy, Coast Guard and Marines for 90 days. It is also permissible to wear the service uniform at any gathering of veterans, parades, military funerals, etc.

If the veteran has legal problems he is referred to the Citizens' Committee located at Newtonville Library, Tel. Big 7600, which committee has a competent legal staff. It is also suggested that the returning Veterans secure a thorough physical examination which is furnished by the Citizens' Committee free of charge. The Veterans' Services' physician, Dr. Barrow, also is medical adviser for the Citizens' Committee.

The Department of Veterans' Services will be glad to assist the veteran with additional information if he will call Bigelow 4700 or make a personal visit to this office.

EXHIBITION OF MARKSMANSHIP AT MEN'S CLUB

An exhibition of marksmanship by Patrolmen Joseph J. Smith and Joseph Greeley was one of the features of the supper meeting of the Elliot Men's Club in the Congregational Church, Newton, May 14.

The mortgage on the club room was burned, and new officers were installed. They were: President, Norman R. Millard; vice-president, Bruce S. Winter; treasurer, Louis M. Gayzagan. Elected to serve on the executive board were: Henry R. Condon, George T. Pascoe and William Clarke Custer.

50 TONS USED CLOTHING COLLECTED

The committee in charge of the United National Clothing Collection Campaign in Newton, Mrs. F. Brittain Kennedy, chairman, reports that a total of more than 50 tons of clothing, bedding and shoes was collected and shipped from this city during the drive conducted April 1 to May 1 throughout the nation.

During this time 2,069 bales, cartons, boxes and bags weighing 100,019 pounds were packed and shipped under the direction of Orville O. Clapper and Dwight Colburn of the Men's division and Miss Adelaide B. Ball of the Women's Division, assisted by an army of volunteer workers.

Serving on the Newton committee with Mrs. F. Brittain Kennedy were Mrs. Paul M. Goddard, Miss Adelaide B. Ball, Rupert C. Thompson, Roy S. Edwards, Philip O. Ahlin, H. J. Pettengill, Harold B. Gores, Richard M. Fennell, Orville Clapper, Benjamin P. Louis and Warren W. Oliver.

Sports in a Nutshell

By BILL SULLIVAN

Well here we are again with the baseball teams giving each other going over when they can. The New York Giants are staying right up there having won 21 and lost 7 with Brooklyn second with 17 wins and 10 lost. St. Louis Cards 14-13, Chicago won 12 lost 13, Pittsburgh 12-14, Boston Braves 11-13, Cincinnati 10-13, Philadelphia 7-21. Holmes of Boston is leading the league, batting .462, Ott .394, Kurovski .381. Lombardi has nine home runs, Manager Mel 7, Weintraub 7, all New York Giants. Lombardi is leading in runs batted in with 27, Neiman of Boston second with 24, Weintraub of Giants and Olmo of Dodgers have 23.

Bill Voiselle won his eighth straight victory when he beat Pittsburgh 5-1 Sunday holding the Pirates to 4 hits. Brooklyn was shut out 4-0 by Elitz Donnelly of the Cards which made their third straight loss after winning about nine in a row. This sure upset the Dodger fans.

The Braves broke even Sunday with Cincinnati, losing the first 10-8, winning the second 9-4. Holmes kept pounding the ball with 5 out of 8. Tommy made 4 hits off Bucky Walters in the first game. Bucky made 2 home runs for the Reds but his pitching was just about as good as the Workman, the Braves third baseman, made 6 hits and is sure trying to hold his job. Tobin was the losing pitcher with Red Barrett the winning pitcher who made 2 hits and drove in 3 runs. Ulinsey the Braves catcher hit a home run.

In the American league Chicago is out front with 15 wins and 7 lost. Detroit 13-9, St. Louis 13-9, New York Yankees 13-11, Washington 12 lost 14, Philadelphia 10-15, Cleveland 9-14, with the Red Sox trailing, having won 9 and lost 15.

Tony Cuccinello, third baseman for the White Sox is leading batter with .356. Case of the Senators and Stephens of the Browns .333. Stephens is leading with 7 home runs. Derry, new Yankee outfielder and Bob Johnson of the Red Sox have 4. Runs batted in, Stephens has 19, Derry 18, and Eiten of the Yankees 18.

The St. Louis Browns sure have the Indian sign on the New York Yankees, beating them 4 straight in their series this coupled with what they did to them last fall when they knocked them out of a chance of winning the pennant, will give the Yankees something to think about, winning 4 in a row from New York will make these Browns tough for the Sox Wednesday when they open a 4-game series. Pete Gray their one-armed outfielder made 3 hits out of 5 in the first game Sunday and the fans here are anxious to watch and root for Pete. The Senators split even with Detroit.

Overmire beating Niggeling in the first game with Pieretti new Washington pitcher winning over Benton. 1-0. Benton has pitched wonderful ball for Detroit with 5 wins, 4 of them shutouts before losing to Pieretti.

The Chicago White Sox took 3 out of 4 from our Red Sox. Lee won his fifth game this season by beating the Sox 4-2 in the first game Sunday. Orval Grove kept it up, beating the Sox 8-2 in the second game. Lee, Haynes, and Grove are pitching great ball for Chicago. The bright spot for Boston is Dave Ferriss who shut Chicago out Friday. Dave has now pitched 3 shutouts, his first was against Philadelphia, his next was the Yankees, his third Chicago, and he also beat Detroit, holding them to 2 runs. Four games pitched, 4 wins, 36 innings with 2 runs scored on him, striking York out four times in Detroit and fanning 10 batters in this game. He pitched 22 scoreless innings which is a record for an American league rookie.

Only 29 men faced Ferriss in the Chicago game, no one reaching third base. Chicago made 4 hits but the hitters were taken off their feet by the double play route. Is it any wonder we rave about Dave? Where would the Sox be without him? Wilson has pitched good ball but only won one game and that was a shutout. He held Cleveland and Detroit to five hits each but lost both games. When the club starts hitting behind him he will win many games.

Johnny Kelley won the 20-mile North Bedford Club road race in 2 hours, 2 minutes and 31 seconds. Robert Rankine, Torontol finished second in 2:04:47; Tony Madros, North Bedford, third, 2:04:59; Don Heinicke, Baltimore 2:05:32; Louis Young, North Bedford, 2:12:10; Ab Norton, Canada, 2:15; Mike DePalmer, N.Y.A., 2:15:08; Michael O'Hara, U. S. Navy, 2:17:27; O'Ericksen, U. S. Navy, 2:19:33; and Chas. Robinson, U. S. Navy, 2:19:54.

Steve Casey and Sandor Szabo got it Wednesday night with the winner meeting Frank Sexton, popular holder of the world heavyweight title. Steve Kronis, South End, and Pat Demers of Brockton, will clash in either a 10 or 12 round bout Friday night for the 135 pound title provided they receive the O.K. from the State Boxing Commission. Lou Nova will meet Johnny Denson Saturday night. Nova was the winner when they met before as the referee was forced to stop the fight because of a gash over Denson's eye. Up to this time Denson was having the best of the fight with Lou, so it should be a good fight to see. Well you boys have knocked Germany out, and what a victory that was! The cost of our boys over there must never be forgotten. And the terrific fight you are having with the Japs... may you bring this one in soon, saving as many of the boys as you can. We all pray for an early victory.

The Mail Bag

Don't know why, but your Postman's bag has been rather light of late but we finally have an accumulation of mail to acknowledge so here goes:

Al Crosby from a California Naval Base says he misses the roll of a ship and the salt spray so here is hoping when he receives this issue he'll have a ship under him once again. To Ken Ridgeway in the Philippines we hope your present address won't change again before "What's Cookin' catches up with you. Warrant Officer George Owens now in Mississippi after two years overseas yearns for action. You've done your share George, so relax and let some of the other boys have a crack at the Nips. Thanks for your kind words and be assured that it gives us a great sense of gratification to be engaged in this work. QM 2-c George Buckley, U. S. Naval Hospital, Portsmouth, Virginia hopes he will receive every copy of W.C. If you don't, George, let us know and we'll make sure you get it. Bill Jaslet appreciates your greeting. Thanks to Pvt. Harold Barlett from Somewhere in Germany for his note and will the housewives and especially the husbands be glad to see you back in business again! Pfc. Jacob Sillicker, we can understand how you get a kick out of the Merry-Go-Round because it is doing a great job, and if W.C. does boost your morale, that knowledge makes us redouble our efforts. S. I-c Paul Bradley, our Editor must have anticipated your wish for a picture of Lower Falls and by this time you must have seen it; just the same old village waiting for your return. Thanks to Captain John Shade Franklin at Fort Sill for his interesting enclosures. As indicated by your programs, the Chaplain has no time for gold-bricking. Answering Captain Merrell's inquiry from the Philippines, "What's Cookin'" did publish an article about Newton's agency to help returned veterans. However, we're glad to send you a copy under separate cover. Pfc. Fred Soule's letter from Somewhere in Germany leads us to believe that once a Tankman, always a Tankman and little wonder after being on almost every European front, with a fighting record second to no other outfit. Perhaps some other outfits may take exception to this. Thanks to Sgt. Joe Antonelli, Jr., for a most interesting letter from the Burmese jungles relating his part in building the 2000 mile pipeline into China. We're just as proud of you fellows as you are of your mighty job. Another letter from Leland Lovett in Assam, India, tells us he helps to service the planes which make flights over the Hump. Our little publication certainly is getting spread all over the World. Charles P. Smith, C.E.M., U.S.N., your composition has been passed along to our Editor and we are sure he will make space for its publication.

Acknowledgments of letters and addresses changed from Tommy Lyons in the Marianas, S-Sgt. Wallace J. Ames somewhere in England, "Skip" Shapalis near Paris, Lt. Richard B. Nason, Cpl. William McKenzie (we'd like to oblige Bill, but remember this is not Esquire), Marine Robert M. Moore, Lt. Henry Krigner, USNR, Cpl. Richard Hodgkins in the Philippines, Lt. William Sookson, USNR, Lt. Martin Boormeester, Jr. Now that V-E Day is history many of you fellows will no doubt be on the move, especially in the European area, so notify us promptly of a change of address so that "What's Cookin'" will be sure to follow you.

He Carried a Rabbit's Foot In Raid on Ploesti Oil Fields

When T-Sgt. Parker N. Wheeler of Newton Highlands, Mass., enlisted in the Air Corps on Friday the 13th, in October, 1942, he decided to protect himself against the possibilities inherent in that fateful day by carrying a rabbit's foot. And while he won't admit the rabbit's foot was his defense against him, he does believe something must have intervened at crucial moments when he was overseas.

Wheeler, now stationed at Tyn-dall Field, has come through a close call flying as an engineer on turret gunner with the 15th Air Force in Italy. As a result of one of them he wears the Purple Heart.

On that occasion his B-24 Liberator bomber was part of a formation headed towards the oil fields of Ploesti in Romania. Opposition was heavy, with both anti-aircraft fire and fighter planes attacking the formation constantly.

Despite the heavy flak and attacks by about 60 enemy fighters, Wheeler's plane completed the bomb run, but immediately after a 20 millimeter shell scored a direct hit on the top turret. Wheeler was knocked unconscious as shrapnel hit him in the back, the back of the head, and the arms.

The plane suffered a direct hit from flak, the number four engine was knocked out, and the hydraulic system was damaged. Wheeler recovered consciousness a few minutes later, and despite his wounds he supervised the attempts at repairing the damage.

The hydraulic fluid was drained from the ball turret, and enough was saved to pour into the breaks as a landing was made. The brakes held for one application, enough to keep the plane on the runway and prevent a crash.

Wheeler has an outstanding record as a gunner, with six enemy fighter planes to his credit. Two of the Nazi planes fell before his fire on his second mission. That mission, according to Wheeler, was the roughest experience of his 61 missions, but his rabbit's foot must have been working overtime.

The target was an airplane parts factory in Austria, and although a majority of the planes in the formation were shot down by flak or fighters, Wheeler's plane came through without a scratch. In discussing his feelings about shooting down enemy planes, Wheeler said, "I never had any reaction. Everything happened so fast I didn't have a chance to think about it. I was too busy."

Wheeler has changed duty assignments since coming to Tyn-dall Field. As an old time Code sailor, he has always liked to be around boats, and when he arrived at Tyn-dall, he asked to be assigned to the crash boats. He's happy now as the skipper of one of Tyn-dall's water craft.

Lieut. Fogwill Wins Citation And Bronze Star

LT. BENJAMIN S. FOGWILL

A citation and Bronze Star for meritorious achievement in the battle for Germany have been awarded 1st Lt. Benjamin S. Fogwill, of Patton's third army, the husband of Muriel Williams Fogwill, 264 Mt. Vernon street, chief clerk of the Dedham Railroad Station.

The lieutenant, former advertising manager for newspapers, published by the Transcript Press Inc., braved machine gun fire to lead his tank destroyer unit into position to destroy 7 pillboxes, kill 17 enemy and capture 15 prisoners. The citation reads as follows:

"1st Lt. Benjamin S. Fogwill, Field Artillery (Tank Destroyers) U. S. Army. — For heroic achievement in connection with military operations against an enemy of the United States in the vicinity of Luxembourg on February 24, 1945, with utter disregard for personal safety, he braved intense enemy machine gun fire to lead his destroyers into position from which he destroyed 7 pillboxes, killed 17 enemy and took 15 prisoners. His actions were instrumental in enabling a task force to accomplish its mission."

He entered the service October 1942 and after basic training as a paratrooper entered officers training school at Camp Hood where he was commissioned a second lieutenant. Injured while making a jump during maneuvers he was transferred to the tank destroyer unit of the artillery going overseas in August of 1944 and assigned to Lt. Gen. Patton's hard hitting 6th Armored Division. He was given a battlefield promotion to First Lieutenant in January.

Mrs. Barbara Jane Colby of 427 Lowell avenue, Newtonville, has received word from the War Department that her husband, Sgt. William G. Colby, 24, who had previously been reported as missing in action in Germany on December 17, was taken a prisoner of war by the Germans. No word of his liberation has as yet been received.

A few days before receiving word from the War Department, Mrs. Colby received a card from her husband stating that he was in Stalag 4B. The card was dated January 11 and had been nearly four months reaching here.

Sgt. Colby attended Worcester Academy and Clark College. He entered the Army over two years ago and was sent overseas last November. He has a brother, 1st Sgt. John Colby, in Germany. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Colby of Branford.

Raytheon Elects 5 New Members to Board of Directors

LAURENCE K. MARSHALL

Following the recent merger of Belmont Radio Corp. with Raytheon Manufacturing Co., Laurence K. Marshall, President of Raytheon, has announced the election of the following five new members to the Board of Directors:

P. S. Billings, President of Belmont, who has been associated with the radio industry since its earliest days. For three years beginning in 1925, he was President of Minerva Radio Corp. In May, 1928, together with Harold C. Mattes, he organized Belmont Radio Corp.

Harold C. Mattes, Vice President of Belmont Radio Corp., in charge of engineering and production. In the early days of radio, under the name of Aerograph Laboratories, he designed and built radio receivers in Chicago and afterwards became chief engineer of Pioneer Radio Corp., Plano, Illinois.

Joseph Pierson, founder and former President of Press Wireless, Inc., who is manager of Raytheon's Communication Division.

Emmons Bryant, Jr., New York manager of N. A. Woodworth Co., Detroit, manufacturers of aircraft parts; Director of Federal Machine & Welder Co., Warren, Ohio; and partner of Reynolds & Co., New York.

George L. Langreth, for 16 years with Wood Struthers & Co., New York who has for sometime been acting as a special consultant to Raytheon.

The present directorate of Raytheon is composed of Laurence K. Marshall, David T. Schultz, Ralph D. Booth, William Gammell, Jr., Havens Grant and Harry C. Watts, all of whom continue as directors.

Belmont started manufacturing radio receivers in Aurora, Illinois, but as the business grew, operations were transferred to Chicago and in 1940 it purchased its own plant at Dickens and Austin avenues, where it is now located.

Prior to 1942 Belmont was an important manufacturer of table type receivers, also making console types, combination radio and phonograph sets, and automobile, portable and farm battery sets. It expects to also produce FM sets and television receiving equipment after the war.

With the Belmont merger, Raytheon's total employees now exceed 20,000 and its yearly volume is more than $200 million. Both companies are among the largest suppliers of electronic equipment to the Army and Navy and all their facilities are now devoted to war production.

In his annual report from the 1944 fiscal year, Mr. Marshall, President of Raytheon, listed the following as fields into which the company expects to extend its peacetime activities: marine and air navigational aids; traffic control for aircraft and railroads; frequency modulation, television and facsimile equipment and related microwave relay transmission systems; industrial high frequency heating, welding and machine control.

The Trade Agreements Act

What is the Trade Agreements Act?

By this Act Congress delegates to the Executive for a limited time, the authority to make limited reductions in tariffs on the basis of reciprocal agreements with other nations.

How Does it work?

After careful study of our import-export situation in consultation with the agencies and industries concerned, the State Department negotiates with a particular nation on the articles which bulk largest in our trade with that nation. We agree to reduce our tariffs on articles a which that nation sells to us if the other nation will lower its tariffs on article b which it receives from us.

So far agreements have been reached with 27 countries. Each agreement contains a "most favored nation" clause which says that the tariff rates decided on with a country A, for articles a and b will be uniform for these products whether they come from country A, B, or X. This results in a general lowering of the barriers to world trade.

What are its advantages?

It allows for careful planning of tariffs in the light of our over-all trade policy, instead of the old methods of Congressional log-rolling.

It gives a chance for friendly international bargaining in place of sudden decisions by individual nationalists, and tariff wars.

It means a gradual reduction of tariffs through negotiation, instead of a steady raising of tariffs under the pressure of special interests.

What have been the results?

Between 1934 and 1939 our exports to countries with which we have Trade Agreements increased 63% and our imports increased 22%. With non-trade agreement countries the increase was only 32% for our exports and 12% for our imports.

The trade agreements program does not mean "free trade," or the "dumping of cheap goods on our market." Reductions under the Trade Agreements Act have been handled so carefully that no industry has suffered.

Renewal — 1945

When the Act was first passed in 1934, Congress provided that the Executive should not reduce tariffs more than 50% below the very high Hawley-Smoot Tariff rates then existing. With our largest customers, Great Britain, Canada, France and most of the Latin American countries, that 50% limit has been reached.

The Administration, therefore, in requesting the renewal of the Trade Agreements for another three years, has asked for permission to lower tariffs by 50% from the level of January 1945.

Backsliding will be fatal. If this new 50% provision is not accepted, our Government will be unable to bargain further with our biggest customers.

If Congress insists on taking back the right to fix tariff rates, United States tariffs will go up under pressure of special interests. Other nations will retaliate with more trade restrictions.

If the Act is defeated, or amended to limit further the power of the Executive to negotiate directly with other nations, the world will doubt our intention to cooperate in the economic field.

AMERICA'S MEAT PROBLEM

A critical meat situation confronts the country in this fourth year of the war. For months civilians in many large cities and in areas where little livestock is raised and slaughtered have been getting the barest minimum of meat—frequently of the lower grades. While families living on farms or in towns in or near heavy meat producing areas may not be eating any more meat than they ate before the war, some are getting more than their fair share of the nation's reduced civilian supply.

Here are the Reasons for Current Meat Shortages:

1. Nine percent less meat available this year than in 1944 due to a drop in pork production.

2. April through September is the usual seasonal low period in meat production.

3. The needs of our armed forces are the highest of any war year, more than offsetting the decline in lend-lease shipments.

4. More people than ever before have money to buy meat—so civilian demand continues high.

5. Distribution is badly out of balance. Only federally-inspected meat may be bought by the Army and shipped across state lines for use by civilians in areas where little meat is produced. Federally-inspected meat packers haven't been able to fill military and other government orders and at the same time supply enough meat to areas which depend mainly on shipped-in meat.

6. The Black Market is siphoning some meat from the legitimate market.

The black market in meat also is responsible to some extent for uneven distribution. The black market, particularly in meat, is not necessarily a gang of hoodlums operating in an alley hide-away. Anyone who buys or sells meat without a proper exchange of legally issued ration stamps or at over-ceiling prices keeps the black market going. He or she is cutting in on the share of the neighbor who lives up to the rules.

Every housewife and every meat dealer has a right to a fair share of meat, but the "I'll get mine at any price" theory just won't work. If everybody thought that way, the whole rationing and price control program would go out the window.

Keep the Home Fires Burning . . .

There was sound advice in that song of World War One 27 years ago—it's just as sound today.

The home-front defense fires must burn brightly "Til the boys come home"—industrial forge fires and fires of American unity and will to win. Our men are in there slugging. We're backing them everlastingly here at home, each in his own way, with war-work, war-bonds and war-conservation of commodities and materials.

Newton Lions Club

The Third Anniversary of Charter Night of the Newton Lions Club was held Thursday evening at the YMCA as a Ladies Night party which was attended by more than 120 Lions and their guests. Presiding was King Lion Richard M. Fennelly who introduced among others the Presidents of the Waltham and Needham Lions Clubs. The Chairman of the Committee arranging details of the evening was Charles Monahan of Newton Highlands who was ably assisted by Lewis Tedstone.

As master of ceremonies, Charlie kept things moving, and from the community singing under the capable baton of Lion John Tapper to the grand finale, fun was had by all. A quartette of the Mrs. Dunleavy, Hall, Corner and Harper sang the Bells of St. Mary's and were presented bouquets of sweet peas, while a foursome of Lions, Phil McHugh, Ed Harper, George McNeil, and Herb Dunn also did their "stuff," as did Past President Dave Buxbaum and Calvin Brown of Waltham in a duet of "Rocked in the Cradle of the Deep," but the boys were pretty low on that one. Hazen Edgar, who never had been known to sing made his formal debut supposedly singing "Home on the Range," but a voice behind the curtain dubbed in the words while Hazen supplied the pantomime. Past Presidents George McNeil, Ralph Sanguinetti and Dave Buxbaum were all on hand as was also Past President George Maguire of Waltham, who presented the Charter to the Newton Lions when his Club sponsored the Newton organization three years ago at the Woodland Golf Club.

The highlight of the evening was a masterful exhibition of make-up artistry by Merle Daniels, who, in full view of the audience

Red Cross Appoints New Instructors in Arts and Skills

Mrs. George E. Rawson, chairman, Arts and Skills, Newton Chapter Red Cross, announces the following new instructors for Cushing General Hospital, Framingham: Mrs. Samuel A. Levine, Mrs. Warren W. Loomis, Mrs. H. H. Lounsbury, Mrs. Frank E. Morris, Mrs. Millard J. Niles, Mrs. Fred J. Thompson, and Mrs. Robert Winchell.

transformed nine Lions into well-known characters. "Lew" Tedstone turned into Miss Newton and Charlie Monahan was transformed into a Grandmother, King Lion Dick Fennelly became a "fakir" and as that did not suit his exalted office he took on the eloquence of Chief Sitting Bull. Deputy District Governor Lincoln Fries of Waltham had hair for the first time in many years as he essayed to be "Old Bill," the famous Bainsfather character of World War I. Club Secretary Wally Flint was in a changeable mood and appeared as George Bernard Shaw, The Southern Colonel and Uncle Sam while the decorous 1st V. P. Asa Blakelee portrayed the part of a hobo, who fascinated Arthur Wold of Waltham who turned out to be none other than Mortimer Snerd. To round out the excellent and entertaining program, Monty Hayden was cast both as John Wilkes Booth and Honest Abe, while Hazen Edgar blossomed into a circus clown. Charlie Hall was most versatile at the piano and his playing helped to make the evening successful, and thus the fourth year of Lionism in Newton gets under way.

Junior Achievement Movement Gains Momentum in Newton

A meeting of the Newton Junior Achievement committee was held at Brae Burn Country club last Thursday. The meeting was called to order at 12 noon by Chairman Douglas Sloane, who introduced new members of the committee. Director Clegg gave a fine explanation of the aims of Junior Achievement following which a question and answer period took place.

The next item on the program was the securing of sponsors. The following companies have signed and returned the application for sponsorship of a Junior Achievement Company:
Boston Knitting Mills, 1 unit; Futurity Thread Co., 1 unit; The McIntyre Co., 1 unit; Raytheon Mfg. Co., 1 or 2 units; Rose-Derry Co., 1 unit; The Vanta Co., 1 unit. The following company indicated that they would sponsor 1 unit: Doelcan Machine Tool Co. The following companies will give us their decision within the next week or ten days: Bachrach, Inc., The Gamevill Company. The first Tuesday in each month was tentatively selected as the date for regular monthly meetings. As soon as possible a meeting will be arranged with the faculty of Newton High School to explain to them the aims of Junior Achievement in order that they may answer any questions submitted by the student body.

Newton Archers

The Newton Archers will hold the second of the Handicap Tournaments on Sunday May 27th at 2:30 p.m.

Camp Massasoit

The Newton Y. M. C. A. day camp, Camp Massasoit, will start this summer on Monday, June 25th and will run for nine weeks to Saturday, August 25th. The Camp activities will all be carried on at the "Y," excepting for trips away from the building, using the indoor and outdoor equipment—the athletic field, swimming pool, gymnasium, craft shop and game room.

Camp Massasoit will have three age groups for boys with a program for each group. The Cadets will be boys eight and nine years of age and who have completed the second grade in school. Juniors will be boys who are at least ten years of age, but not in Junior High School, and Junior High School boys. The enrollment in the Cadet group will be limited to fifty-five boys a week, and to sixty-five boys a week in the Junior and Junior High School group.

Through varied programs and experiences, Camp Massasoit will provide an opportunity for boys to enjoy camp activities, who must remain at home all or part of the summer. A staff of experienced adult counselors will give instruction in swimming, baseball, soft ball, archery, craft work, playground activities, and track and field events. Small groups will take trips away from camp with the counselors to places of interest. Movies will be shown following the lunch period four days a week, and some other entertainment will be arranged for on the other day.

Richard B. Simmons, physical director at the "Y" will be the Camp Director. Associated with him will be Stephen A. Randall, Building Boys' Secretary, the camp Registrar; C. Wade Abbott, Associate Physical Director, who will be in charge of the swimming activities; and Alden W. Read, Assistant Principal at the Frank A. Day Junior High School, who will coach baseball and will be in charge of the Indian tribe organization.

Mrs. Anita Howarth, an experienced archer, teacher, and competitor, will teach archery; Mrs. Elinor Babbitt, creator of "Box Wooden Novelties," will be in charge of craft work. Arthur B. Clarke, Boys' Assistant at the "Y" will arrange for and supervise the movies, trips, and other entertainment; and Richard W. Hubbard, who will teach next fall in the Weeks Junior High School, will be in charge of the game room. Miss Phyllis Andersen is the office secretary and will handle the business details.

All policies and programs of the camp are decided upon by the camp committee which is composed of Dr. Edwin P. Leonard—Chairman, Dr. Edward J. Sawyer, Camp Physician, Wilbur W. Bullen, Dwight Colburn, and Francis A. Tanner. A typical day at camp will be as follows: 9:15 assembly; 9:30, baseball, soft ball, archery, and cadet swimming instruction; 11, refresher swim for Junior and Junior High school boys, and cadet archery or gymnasium period; 12, lunch and rest period; 1:45, movies or other entertainment; 1:30, afternoon swims and craft work starts; 2, cadet playground period; 2:45, playground period for Junior High school boys and 4 and 5 o'clock, leave for home at completion of swimming instruction.

These Are the Rules for Growing Fine Tomatoes

Tomatoes on the Fence Vie With Marigolds in Beauty.

Tomatoes are the Victory garden's most important crop. Even the smallest garden can grow them and get a good yield for the space. A well-grown plant should yield a peck of fruit or more, properly cared for, fed and watered.

When space is limited, plants can be staked, or trained to a fence, or trellis, and take up no more room than a row of carrots. Each plant yields a little less, but the fruit will average better, and mature earlier; and more plants can be grown in less space. Heaviest yields are obtained from plants that sprawl on the ground, but they take lots more room.

Plants are usually grown under protection, or purchased, and set out after all danger of frost is over. They mature fruit earlier than is possible by sowing seed in the garden; but not as much earlier as might be supposed. Many tests have shown that plants directly seeded in the garden, bear only a week or two later than those started indoors. But for the earliest crop, use plants of an early variety, started indoors.

Staked tomatoes may be pruned to a single stem, or allowed two or three stems as desired. Be sure to use varieties that grow full sized vines, if you prune them. Small vine, also called determinate varieties, should not be pruned, but on the ground they can be planted as close as two feet each way.

Tomatoes begin with a single stem, but at the joint of each leaf a branch develops. This branch may be cut off when small, and by cutting all or allowing some of them to grow you can shape the plant to a single, double, or triple stemmed plant as you prefer.

Tomatoes do not cling to support but must be tied with some material that will not cut the vine. Fruit should not be exposed to direct sun, as that causes sunscald, so never remove leaves from pruned plants. Plants need heavy feeding, and lots of water. Irregular water supply causes black decayed spots, known as blossom-end rot. A mulch about the plants, of straw, lawn clippings, or any suitable material keeps the soil from drying out and increases yield. Tomatoes will be killed by a frost, and may be injured by a severe chill, so they should not be exposed to such experience.

"Town Meeting" of Newton Centre Improvement Ass'n

Newly elected Governor's Councilor Carl A. Sheridan of Framingham will be the principal speaker at the annual "town meeting" of the Newton Centre Improvement Association on Monday evening, May 28, at the Newton Centre Women's Club, Otis D. Fellows, president, announced today.

The meeting, called for the announced purpose "of making Newton Centre a better place in which to live," will consider problems and conditions created by the war and propose methods for correcting them.

The program, arranged on a time-table basis, lists four major topics for discussion—plans for improving the city, correction of traffic and parking problems, street maintenance and improvement of youth and adult recreational facilities.

Two major questions to be put to the membership will be: Should the Association support erection of a motion picture theatre in the Centre? And, Do residents approve re-zoning to permit multiple dwellings?

Councillor Sheridan will talk on the Duties of the Governor's Council and Mayor Paul A. Goddard will discuss some of the difficulties encountered in administering the affairs of Newton during the war years, followed by the business meeting, with President Fellows acting as Moderator. Talks of the discussion leaders are limited to five minutes, followed by 15 minutes of open discussion, during which speakers from the floor will be limited to one and one-half minutes.

Alderman Louis A. Myers of the Newton Post-War Planning Committee will highlight briefly plans for future development of Newton as a residential city, and Paul H. Pierce, chairman of the Planning Committee, will discuss the Association's recommendations for improving Newton Centre.

Traffic problems of the city, and more particularly of the Centre, will be handled by Hans W. Landstrom, Acting Chief of Police. Nicholas Vedeucio and Fire Chief John L. Keating, with Alderman Donald L. Gibbs sitting in as an observer for the Newton Traffic Committee.

Street maintenance and rubbish disposal will be explained by Commissioner of Streets John D. Haughey.

The playground and recreational facilities of the city will be outlined by F. Ewing Wilson, Commissioner of Recreation, and Raymond C. Baker, recreational committee chairman, will discuss the Association's plans for development of these facilities in the Centre.

Following the election of officers, Carroll J. Hoffman, Ward 6 Alderman, will tell how residents can help him bring problems affecting Newton Centre before the Board of Aldermen for action. Joseph B. Jamieson, president of the board, will speak on cooperation of the taxpayers with the Board.

The meeting then will be thrown open for general discussion, with adjournment at 10:30 p.m. Mr. Fellows invites all residents of Newton Centre to attend, whether or not they are Association members.

Elder et al., Trustees of the Newton Boulevard Syndicate, and Edward W. and Florence A. Pope et al., their heirs, devisees, grantees or beneficiaries claiming under them or under the Trustees of said Newton Boulevard Syndicate.

Whereas a petition in equity has been begun against you in our Superior Court within and for the County of Middlesex, wherein the plaintiff, Rose Shapiro, of said Newton, alleges that a cloud exists upon her title to the land and building at the corner of Nobscot Road and Commonwealth Avenue, being numbered 373 on said Commonwealth Avenue, said Newton, in that a deed to said property from Edward W. Pope and Mary P. Reeve to Joseph S. Donovan and Grace E. Donovan recorded in Middlesex South District Deeds in Book 3990, Page 213 conveyed the property subject to the restrictions mentioned in said deed and "subject to the restrictions of a memorandum of agreement between Samuel J. Elder, et al., Trustees of the Newton Boulevard Syndicate, and Edward W. and Florence A. Pope, et al., dated December 1, 1914," and that the deeds subsequent thereto, including the deed to the plaintiff, Rose Shapiro, conveyed the property subject to restrictions of record or subject to restrictions in prior deeds "insofar as the same may be in force and applicable"; and the plaintiff further alleges that an examination of the records in Middlesex South District Deeds discloses that no such agreement dated December 1, 1914, herebefore referred to was ever filed of record and that inquiries of persons formerly connected with the Newton Boulevard Syndicate, now extinct, disclose no knowledge of said agreement, that the restrictions in said agreement were never imposed for the benefit of any other lots in the vicinity and that no person has ever brought court proceedings to enforce any violation of said agreement.

And the plaintiff prays that this Court decree that the words "subject to the further restrictions of a memorandum of agreement between Samuel J. Elder, et al., Trustees of the Newton Boulevard Syndicate, and Edward W. and Florence A. Pope, et al., dated December 1, 1914," appearing in title deeds are no longer valid, in force or in effect.

Upon the foregoing petition it is ordered by the Court that the plaintiff notify the signatories to said agreement, their heirs, devisees, grantees or beneficiaries claiming under them or under the Trustees of the Newton Boulevard Syndicate, that on the first Monday of July next, which Monday is the return day of this notice, or within such further time as the law allows, they must cause their written appearance to be entered and their written answer or other lawful pleading to be filed in the office of the Clerk of said Court at Cambridge in said County, and further that they must defend against said petition according to law, if they intend to make any defense, by posting an attested copy hereof in a conspicuous place on the land described in the petition and by publication of an attested copy hereof in the Newton Graphic, a newspaper published in said Newton, once a week for three successive weeks, the last publication to be fourteen days at least before the said first Monday of July.

By the Court, (Hammond, J.)
Fred A. Beals, Jr.,
Assistant Clerk.

Annual Meeting Of Lucy Jackson Chapter, DAR

Reports and election of officers and delegates engaged the attention of members of the Lucy Jackson Chapter, D.A.R., at the Annual Meeting May fourteenth held at the Chapter House in Newton Lower Falls.

A large number were present and the reports of the many activities in which the Chapter is engaged showed all to be in a flourishing condition.

Report of the Treasurer, Mrs. Charles W. Blood, disclosed a very substantial balance for the Chapter in all departments of work.

A notable list of knitting done by Chapter members from May, 1944 to May, 1945, is as follows: twenty-nine scarves, twelve helmets, seventeen Sea Boots, seventy-seven sweaters, seven pairs gloves and seventeen pairs socks. Four members were awarded pins given by the Foundation for five-hundred points credit.

Following the business meeting a lecture on "Landmarks of Colonial Virginia" with accompanying colored lantern slides was given and enjoyed.

Refreshments were served by a committee of ladies with Mrs. Charles S. Lynde as Chairman and Mrs. Marvin S. Giles in charge of table decorations.

A recent gift to the Chapter of a beautiful table cover of Italian cut work and embroidery was used for the first time. A large center piece of tulips and snapdragons combined with silver and glass appointments made a most attractive table.

On the afternoon of June twelfth a Garden Bridge Party will be given at the Chapter House. Tickets may be obtained from the Regent, Mrs. Frank S. Larkin.

LAND COURT
Case No. 8843, Misc. In Equity
Middlesex, ss.
To Phyllis Eldon, of Bronxville, in the State of New York; Mildred T. Spalding, of Cambridge, in the County of Middlesex; and said Commonwealth; any and all other heirs, legatees and devisees there may be of Ida M. Taylor, late of Newton, in said County of Middlesex:

GREETING:

Whereas a suit in equity has been begun in our Land Court by Mary Elizabeth St. George, of said Newton, representing that she is the owner of a parcel of land on Elmhurst Road in said Newton conveyed to her by deed of Ida M. Taylor dated May 5, 1926, recorded with Middlesex South District Registry of Deeds in Book 4966, Page 414, and that as a part of the purchase price of said land, the said plaintiff executed and delivered to said Taylor a mortgage note dated May 5, 1926 for $6000.00, duly recorded with said Deeds in Book 4966, Page 415; that said note has been paid out no discharge was ever executed, and praying that said mortgage be declared to be a cloud on her title;

WE COMMAND YOU, if you intend to make any defense, that on the first Monday of August next, which Monday is the return day of this subpoena, or within such further time as the law allows, you do cause your written appearance to be entered and your written answer or other lawful pleading to be filed in the office of the recorder of said Court at Boston, in the County of Suffolk and said Commonwealth, and further that you defend against said suit according to law, if you intend to make any defense, and that you do and receive what the court shall order, adjudge and decree therein.

Hereof fail not, at your peril, as otherwise said suit may be adjudged, and orders and decrees entered therein, in your absence. And it appearing to the Court upon the suggestion of the plaintiff that some of the defendants are unknown and they cannot actually be served with process, it is ORDERED that the plaintiff give further notice of this suit by publishing a true and attested copy of this order in the Newton Graphic, a newspaper published in said Newton, once a week for three successive weeks, the last publication to be one month at least before the first Monday in August next.

Witness, JOHN E. FENTON, Esquire, Judge of our Land Court, the eighteenth day of May, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and forty-five.

All Newton Music School Spring Concert

The Thirty-fourth Annual Spring Concert of the All Newton Music School took place at the Newton High School on Wednesday evening, May 23. A large audience of interested parents, friends, and music lovers filled the main floor of the auditorium and gave the young students and their teachers enthusiastic applause for a demonstration of fine musicianship of the highest standards.

There were over a hundred students of all ages grouped on the large stage when the curtain rose, and the sight was most impressive. The large choral group from Theory, Sight-reading, Voice, and Musicianship Departments was accompanied in the opening numbers by more than 50 players from string and wind departments. All during the program, the intent interest and alert response of the young musicians to their splendid leaders, gave ample evidence that all take their music study seriously.

Announcement was made that the Luke-Seaver Scholarship for violin study at the All Newton Music School during the school year 1945-1946 has been awarded to Nancy Turner. Mary Morton of the piano department will present a diploma recital on Friday, June 8 at 3 p.m. to which any

Newton Centre Improvements Discussed at 'Town Meeting'

Association Members Disagree on Fishing at Crystal Lake

Crystal Lake and adequate parking facilities for Newton Square were major topics of debate at the "town meeting" of the Newton Centre Improvement Association in the Newton Centre Woman's Club Monday night.

With Otis D. Fellows, Association president, acting as Moderator, nearly 250 Newton Centre residents, Mayor Paul M. Goddard, aldermen and city officials debated plans for future improvement in the Centre.

Carl A. Sheridan, Framingham Republican and newest member of the Governor's Council, was the principal speaker. He told the meeting that the purpose of the Council was to examine all state contracts, approve expenditures by the Executive Department and pass on the Governor's appointments.

"After the General Court passes appropriations," he said, "the Governor lets the contracts after getting the approval of the eight members of the Council. We are the check and balance between the Legislature and Executive Department."

"While the Council meets with the Governor only once a week—on Wednesdays—actually we put in many more hours each week making studies of various proposals for

Hundreds of valuable gifts are on hand and hundreds of others are promised for the giant Penny Sale to be conducted Thursday, June 14th by Our Lady, Help of Christians Parish on the Parish grounds in the rear of the High School at Washington and Adams Streets, Newton. Some idea of the magnitude of this mammoth affair may be gained from the announcement that a committee of over three hundred parishioners will be required to conduct it.

Many attractive displays have been arranged in the windows of leading merchants throughout the area. They include a display of Kenwood blankets, silk puff, towels, luncheon sets, glassware, etc. at Grover Cronin's in Waltham; a three-piece mahogany bedroom set at Kane's Furniture Store in Waltham; a five-piece Dina Cook maple kitchen set at Gray's Furniture Co., Waltham; a desk type solid walnut electric sewing machine.

MISS ESTHER WALTHER

On May 31, 1945, the resignation of Miss Esther Walther, executive secretary of the Newton Community Council, becomes effective. After that date she assumes her new duties as executive secretary of the American Epilepsy League, Inc., with headquarters in Boston—a position that carries with it a well-merited promotion and wider opportunities. While the Newton Community Council and the City itself will miss her, Miss Walther's many friends will be glad to learn that her outstanding personality and remarkable ability have earned nationwide recognition of her talents.

As a child, Miss Walther lived in Newton and attended the public schools.

The Test Is Coming

Before the blessed day when "Johnny comes marching home again" in force from the battlefields, it might be well for all of us to remember that a whole generation has grown up aware of two facts—depression, and war.

Within that generation are the boys who have been fighting for us. Since 1929 a state of emergency has been our normal mode of life, and always the idea of security has been planted in the larger idea of a great central state, with government spending compensating for the weakness of human nature.

There is something alluring about that idea. It makes work an outdated concept—it makes wishing its own reason for having. It makes mediocrity the general standard, and initiative a high crime in the eyes of those who lack it.

But, like too many alluring ideas, too many dreams, it collides with reality and it smashes headlong into the fundamental principles, upon which this land these boys have been fighting for, was made great.

These young veterans of the depression and war years must learn that private enterprise, and only private enterprise, can make real prosperity. The test of our system will come with the war's end.

Time For Industrial Peace!

If war has taught the nations of this world anything, it is that the price of peace, however high, is the one purchase price humanity must pay if it is to survive in the future.

It is past time that the lesson be applied to the domestic affairs of our country, as well as to international relationships.

There will be no prosperity worth the name in the United States after this war—no jobs for returning veterans, no employment effective enough to provide well-being for our working force or for management—unless there is first industrial peace between management and labor.

That harmony must be—in fact, can only be—created by labor and management on a voluntary basis—and soon! Our people, our fighting men, are fed to the teeth with the incessant squabbling that has disrupted production for the past decade.

This squabbling is not the fault of rank and file union members. It is, however, an indictment of irresponsible labor leadership.

The solution to these labor-management difficulties—in which every farmer, worker, housewife and businessman among us has a stake—can only come from labor and management themselves.

Men and Women Needed in Hospitals

"Men and women are urgently needed to fill attendant positions at the U. S. Veterans' Administration hospital, West Roxbury," it was announced here today by William A. Foley, Director of the First Civil Service Region.

Mr. Foley pointed out that sick and injured servicemen can only be cared for properly if government hospitals charged with the care and treatment of our soldiers are adequately staffed.

Mr. Foley said that while these jobs may not be the most attractive that are available today and while the salaries offered may not be especially remunerative, they do present an excellent opportunity for anyone with a sincere desire to help hospitalized servicemen and to make them feel that their care and attention are matters of public concern.

Politics With Color

by P. W. C.

(The opinions expressed in this column are the writer's own, and do not necessarily reflect the opinions or policy of this newspaper—Editor's Note).

President Truman

There was a very significant item in Bill Cunningham's daily column a few days ago. After commenting on the general approval of our new President's performance up to date, he referred to his conversation with Joe Martin, G.O.P. leader in the House, in connection with some pending legislation. Martin made it clear that Mr. Truman is making rapid strides in the art of getting along with any and all Democrats. The result, of course, is that there will soon be few, if any, disgruntled Democrats. Mr. Martin needs a good many unhappy members of the opposite party in order to either block unsatisfactory legislation or to put across legislation which the G.O.P. high-command desires. It all boils down to this: voting will be very largely along party lines for the next few months. This definitely weakens the Republican position in Congress.

Our President is not only bringing about greater harmony in his own party, but he is also creating more national unity than we have heretofore had. This is due in part to his obvious policy of bringing Republicans into the fold whenever possible. The late Mr. Roosevelt, unfortunately, did not see fit to draft men like former President Herbert Hoover, Alfred M. Landon or Wendell L. Willkie and put them to work during the first phase of the current war. Witness, now, the various moves made by Mr. Truman. Mr. Hoover has already conferred with the Chief Executive on some lunch about the food situation in Europe and elsewhere. It is a good guess that Mr. Hoover will shortly be found in the front lines of the terrible battle against starvation throughout ravaged Europe. Where could a better man be found? Again, we are told that the President has extended a cordial invitation to both Mr. Landon and Gov. Dewey to come to the White House AT THEIR CONVENIENCE. There seems no reason to doubt that both men will accept Mr. Truman's suggestion. No topic for discussion has been mentioned as yet and no definite date set. That is precisely where Mr. Truman is smart. He has created the right atmosphere.

Finally, let me quote the words of a prominent local Republican, who was asked his opinion of the new President's performance to date. "Well," said he, "it seems to me that Mr. Truman is already doing a great many of the things which Gov. Dewey would have done had he been elected last fall. He is saving money, cutting down the bureaucrats and making a lot of moves which will result in turning back over government into the hands of the people and into the three branches of our government, executive, legislative and judicial. That is as it should be and I am mighty glad."

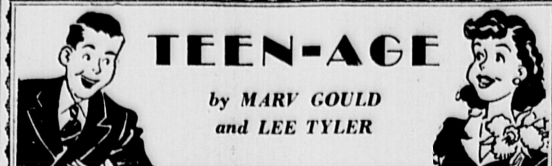

Our Congress reminds me of some of the younger generation. It is sometimes difficult to understand all its gyrations. In one breath they start yelling for higher salaries and increased expense accounts, which, incidentally, have already been rushed through that august body. In the next breath as many as possible leave this country for junkies to Europe and other places. We are told that the bulk of the expense of these trips is borne by the Congressmen. How come? Furthermore, it seems to me that Congress has enough work ahead of it to warrant close attention to duty at this time. One observer has stated that U. S. Senators are harder to find in Washington than in New York. This is not a healthy situation (Congressman Clason of Massachusetts is one of the junketers.) Mayor of Boston.

What must people from other cities think of dear old Boston? Here we are, seriously worrying about the strong possibility that Congressman James M. Curley will be elected Mayor for a fourth term next fall. Mr. Curley, incidentally, has obtained a postponement of his trial on most serious charges on account of ill health. Despite this fact, widely publicized in the press, Mr. Curley now advises the citizens of Boston that he is in tip-top shape, never better, and that he is good for another twenty-five years, provided that he is elected. Moderately to be sure, he has now paid up all the money due the city of Boston and his record, locally, is quite clear. One might think, however, that the smell would linger on. It doesn't seem to. There are still thousands of Boston voters who are ready and willing to mark a cross against their hero's name whenever it appears on the ballot.

How are you going to beat a man like this? Obviously, by uniting behind that candidate, the most possible opposition candidate. That is the trouble. Who is the strongest candidate and how can he be persuaded to run and fight off the savage and ruthless attacks which he well knows will be hurled at him by this timorous and ever resourceful politician? Men like Henry L. Shattuck and Henry J. Smith would undoubtedly make splendid Mayors. However, they would have a very hard time getting enough votes to defeat Mr. Curley. On the other hand, there are hundreds of men who would love to make the race who would NOT make good Mayors. Many of these gentlemen could not be elected either. Frankly, I am worried that Mr. Curley may return to office. Poor Boston! P. W. C.

TEEN-AGE

and LEE TYLER

Well, what do you know one of N.H.S. well known seniors has been acclaimed the star of the Boston Television Show. Little did he realize that his book is considered among theatrical producers as a promising young dramatic star. The Trojans Club of Brookline is planning to start a canteen for the teen age youth of that city. The new canteen is to be similar to our own Newton Student Canteen. . . . Bob Moore has been working at the crematory of the Newton Cemetery. (Bob always did like to play with matches). . . . Newton High won the State Class A Championship Track title last Saturday by a margin of 15 1/2 points. Though they were seriously handicapped, Bill Gould was absent from the meet as he had to take his Maritime entrance exams. Fred DeAngillis competed in the match even though he has a sacroiliac back condition. Bob Garrity, Senior Class President, won his race even though he has an injury to his left leg. . . . Bob Barry, formerly of the Hockey and Baseball teams, has left school to enter the Navy. . . . Computations on behalf of Newton's teen age youth are sent to our new Chief of Police, Nicholas Vedecko. We realize that he is a man who has helped and is still helping to keep Newton a cleaner, better, healthier place for teen age youth. . . . Most seniors have turned in their books and are waiting anxiously for Graduation June 9. The only students who will be spending S Blocks in Building III after next week will be unhappy ones. . . . Newton High's baseball team played last Tuesday's game with their arch rival, Braintree, at Big League stadium. . . . We are very privileged to be the first ones to report that Dick Hurter has at last sold his now famous sport coat for $3. (He has been trying to sell it since last February). . . . Very solemn and appropriate Memorial Day services were held for the entire student body of Newton High School last Tuesday. . . . The Civil Air Patrol has been looking for recruits of High School age from 15-18 years old. Tony Esposito tells us that Dick Hurter's brown coat isn't worth $3.

S-Sgt. Beal Home On Furlough

Marine Staff Sgt. Francis G. Beal, 19, of Newtonville, a turret gunner with a torpedo bomber squadron, has returned for furlough and reassignment, following action in two Pacific theatres.

Beal completed 75 missions and logged 410 flying hours. Based in the Solomons, his squadron struck at airfields and shore installations at Rabaul, and subsequently, from bases in the Marianas and Iwo Jima, the Marine unit protected sea lanes against possible Jap attacks on Allied shipping in daylight patrols.

Although his plane frequently encountered heavy anti-aircraft fire, he escaped injury.

The son of Mrs. Doris M. Beal of 30 Highland avenue, Newtonville, he attended Newton High School. Prior to enlisting in October, 1942, he was employed by the Brae Burn Country Club. He was promoted to his present rank in February, 1945.

ic schools. Later she went to Mount St. Mary's Academy in New Hampshire. After her graduation from Perry Normal Kindergarten School, she did volunteer settlement work in Boston for two years. During her school holidays she travelled quite extensively in Europe with her family.

It was in 1937 that Esther Walther became a member of the Newton Community Club, then under the executive leadership of Liscomb Bruce. She soon built a permanent place for herself in that organization. Always willing to do more than the job called for, she continually increased her responsibilities. Her tireless energy kept her forever looking for more things to do and earned for her, in 1942, the appointment as executive secretary of the Newton Community Council. Always tactful, always smiling and ever ready to devote herself wholeheartedly to every worthwhile cause, she made firm friends of all with whom she came in contact. In her eight years in Newton, Miss Walther has contributed tremendously to the civic and social welfare of the City. A person of charm and intellect, she has literally lived in and for the work that she did.

To wish her all success in her new work, an informal reception was held at the Newton Community Council headquarters on Thursday afternoon, May 31st. As a testimonial to her cheerful personality and to her remarkable efficiency, the regard, affection and esteem in which she was held will be made in behalf of the many people with whom she has worked so closely. Among those in attendance were Mr. and Mrs. William B. Plunkett, Mr. and Mrs. Neil Leonard, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gores, Charles Floyd, Brooks Potter, Nelson Hooper, Miss Adelaide Ball, Mrs. Harry Middendorf, Robert Loomis, Mrs. John L. MacNeill, Mrs. Arnold Ernest, Mrs. J. M. Bacon, Mrs. Grace Lawrence, Mrs. Mary Ball, Miss Roberta Kellogg, Mr. and Mrs. A. Robertson, James Reynolds, Harold Carver, Rev. M. Russell Boynton, Clarence Mease, Mrs. F. Hopewell Underhill, Wendell Berry, Richard Carter, Rev. R. P. McClintock, Mrs. Edgar S. Burkhart, H. J. Pettengill, Philip O. Ahlin.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Shirley, Dr. Homer Anderson, Mrs. Theron B. Walker, John Bierer, William V. M. Fawcett, Frank A. Day, C. R. Cabot, F. S. Bacon, Miss Dorothy Simpson, Mrs. John F. Brown, Frank Richardson and Benjamin Bowen.

Boy Buys Bond With Earnings

Donald J. state improvements, examining contracts and going over bills before giving them Council approval. We want to hear from the people we represent," Councillor Sheridan continued, "not through petitions, but from individuals. Your laws, your thinking on vital matters are important proposals, especially in the matter of expenditure of state funds."

After Recreation Commissioner F. Ewing Wilson had explained the recreational facilities available to children in the Centre, Association secretary Raymond C. Baker said that the Association's recreation committee had made a study of the playgrounds. He made three specific recommendations, one dealing with the expenditure of $300 for the July 4 celebration and another for an expenditure of $200 to familiarize children and parents with the facilities available for the recreation of Newton Centre. Both of these proposals were approved.

However, a proposal to stock Crystal Lake and open it for fishing to Newton residents brought a divergence of opinion. On the motion to approve stocking the lake the membership was equally divided and no action was taken.

Paul H. Pierce aroused considerable interest in his report as chairman of the Association's planning committee. He had a large map in colors, showing the various business, industrial and residential areas and pointed out the areas where a motion picture theatre should be constructed in the Centre. During his discussion, it was moved that the Mason School at Beacon and Center Streets be abandoned and the area made available for a central parking area. This motion did not carry, although considerable interest was evinced in the project.

Herbert J. Kellaway also opened considerable discussion in the matter of having the ice house property on Center Street purchased by the city for the purpose of adding it to the Crystal Lake park area. Although Scott Watins of Pine Crest Road vigorously opposed such purchase, the meeting went on record as favoring the purchase.

Other speakers were Alderman Louis A. Myers of Newton Post-War Planning committee; Hans W. Lundstrom, who spoke on the fire; Chief of Police Nicholas Vedecko and Fire Chief John L. Keating; Street Commissioner John D. Haughey; Ward 6 Alderman Carroll J. Hoffman, and President of the Board of Aldermen Joseph B. Jamieson.

The following officers were re-elected: Otis D. Fellows, president; Melville D. Liming, vice president; Raymond C. Baker, secretary, and Lucius C. Chandler, treasurer. Directors for three years were as follows: Walter I. Muldoon, Paul H. Pierce and William H. Rice.

"Nothing over a Penny" seems to be the slogan. Even the washing machine, radio, set, electric iron, hope chest, kitchen set, etc. all go for a Penny each. As a further lullaby of bounty, an attendance prize of $1000 value will be awarded. Free admission is another unusual feature. The gala event will get under way at 8:00 p. m. It is confidently expected that on Thursday, June 14, the largest crowd ever to attend a similar affair of this kind will be on hand when the curtain rises.

Hon. Leverett Saltonstall has been elected a vice-president of the American Peace Society.

The Waban land sale will be continued on Saturday, and persons who buy lots there, will have fully as safe an investment, to put it mildly, as those who take stock in any of the Southern land booms. It is said that several houses are to be put up on this tract at once.

The employees of the Gamewell Co. are now all employed at the new factory at Upper Falls, where the company have increased facilities and room to meet the demand of their increasing business.

Ten thousand or more wheelmen attended the Waltham races, yesterday, to see the famous Zimmerman and the other scorchers. In the one-mile open Murphy won by a fluke, Porter of Newton being a close second.

Bicycling is becoming such a popular sport now that the largest factories cannot fill the large orders on hand, for weeks. They are taking orders with the understanding that a delay of six weeks or more is necessary. Every one seems to be riding a bicycle, and the proper caper is to get in line with the rest.

Shelves have been placed in the delivery room of the Free Library, where the new books will be placed, so that they can be examined by those who wish. This will be a very popular feature as a desire has often been expressed for something of the kind.

The new Central Church, Newtonville, was dedicated Tuesday evening.

Up to the time he was taken prisoner he had made ten missions, the first of which was over Berlin and lasted 9 1/2 hours. His plane which had at first been named "Princess Pat" was rechristened "Princess" Patches" after it had been badly shot up and repaired.

Lt. Haffermehl, Liberated, Returned Home

First Lt. George T. Haffermehl, 24, of 340 Cabot street, Newtonville, has returned home, after being liberated from a German prison camp where he spent fourteen months.

On his 19th mission on March 18, 1944 Lt. Haffermehl's plane, a B-24 Liberator bomber was attacked by Nazi fighter planes near the Swiss border, and Lt. Haffermehl and his crew were forced to bail out when their ship caught fire.

During his internment in prison camps Lt. Haffermehl was moved twice, once to get away from the oncoming Russian forces and the second time to get out of reach of the Yanks. He was liberated on April 29 by the American forces and arrived at the French Coast on V-E Day, embarking a few days later for home.

Lt. Haffermehl is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Haffermehl of 47 Atholstone Road, Newton Centre. He is married and has a 13 months old daughter, Lee. Mrs. Haffermehl is the former Beverly Beard. Lt. Haffermehl's brother, Pfc. Alden B. Haffermehl is ill in a hospital in France.

After graduating from Newton High School in 1939, Lt. Haffermehl attended the Wiggins Airway School in Norwood. He entered the service three years ago and went overseas in October 1943, serving as a pilot. He has been awarded the Air Medal and three Oak Leaf Clusters.

Dining With Jane and Bill

Junior—Say mother, what does I-O-D-I-N-E mean?
Jane—Where do you see that?
Junior—Here on the salt box, Mum. I'm getting some things ready for our Scout hike.

Jane—Well, it simply means that iodine has been added, I guess.

Junior—But I thought iodine was for cuts, what's it doing in our salt?

Jane—Iodine is also a mineral needed by the body. Doctors tell us that it is needed by the thyroid glands which are on each side of our windpipe.

Junior—Why do we need it? What does it do?

Jane—If we don't get enough, there is often a swelling of these glands causing what is called goiter. But it's only in certain regions where the soil doesn't contain iodine that there is a real problem in getting enough. You see near the coast there is some iodine carried to the soil by salt spray, from the ocean, but inland the soil may be poor in iodine. Oh, and all kinds of seafood are good sources of iodine, too.

Junior—Me for New England then!

Jane—Well, that's the advantage of iodized salt, it makes sure we get enough iodine no matter where we live. It doesn't cost any more than ordinary salt. All we have to do is to read the label on the box to make sure we are getting iodized salt.

NOTE—About 50% of the table salt now sold contains iodine. Iodized salt looks the same, tastes the same, and costs the same as ordinary salt. If we choose iodized salt we are assuring ourselves of an adequate supply of iodine for the body needs.

Sub Officer Decorated for Gallantry

At a ceremony at the San Diego Naval Repair Base, Lt. Comm. Andrew M. Wales, 26, son of Mr. and Mrs. Quincy W. Wales of 21 Sylvan avenue, West Newton, was decorated for gallantry in action as officer in a submarine that sank more than 30,000 tons of Jap shipping and damaged 10,000 tons more.

He was awarded a Gold Star, in lieu of a second Silver Star Medal, by Rear Adm. George H. Fort, commander of the Pacific Fleet Amphibious Forces Training Command. He had previously won the Silver Star and commission for other submarine service.

Lt. Comm. Wales is married and with his wife resides in San Diego, Cal. He attended Harvard University and was formerly employed at the Lockheed Aircraft Company, Burbank, California.

He entered the Navy on May 24, 1943, while a student at Newton High School, and received his training at Newport, R. I.

Choose Delegates To Elks' Convention

The meeting of Newton Lodge of Elks on last Thursday evening was preceded by a supper and entertainment.

The supper was served under the direction of James Burns, chairman of the House committee and the entertainment was in charge of Joe Champagne. Rose Rochelle played the accordion. Members of the lodge entertained as follows: a quartet consisting of Walter Kearn, John Keefe, Charles Burgess and William Thompson sang "Down by the Old Mill Stream"; Walter Kern sang "When Irish Eyes are Smiling"; William Thompson, "Moonlight and Roses"; Alfred Guzzi, "O Sole Mio"; and Champagne did a military dance with Miss Rochelle at the conclusion.

Capt. Omata Pescosolido, who just returned from Europe, was introduced by Roy S. Edwards and presented a Nazi flag to the lodge. It was voted to hang the flag in the social quarters. Capt. Pescosolido joined the lodge while in service two years ago and this was his first meeting.

A letter was read from Alfred G. Kerr, now at the Naval Hospital in Corpus Christi, Tex. Estimated Leading Knight Nicholas Veduccio reported for the social and community welfare committee. It was reported that the house committee donated to the Newton Student Canteen, and has purchased $2,500 worth of Bonds. Proposed to membership were Lawrence Sparks, Philip Lembo, Homer P. O. Dill and Antonio Farina.

Secretary Thomas Coppinger presented a past exalted ruler's button to John Keefe in behalf of Grand Exalted Ruler James R. Nicholson. It was voted to procure 25-year buttons for John Darcy, Fred Burns and Walter Kearn. Exalted Ruler R. John Henderson conducted the meeting. Delegates to the annual meeting and war conference of the Massachusetts Elks Association to be held in Gloucester on June 23 and 24, are as follows: Nicholas Veduccio, Kenneth A. Stiles, Thomas L. McEneaney, James G. Chandler, Charles E. Burgess and William Higgins. Alternates are George King, Patrick Donahue, Leonard E. Francoeur, James T. Burns, Dr. Charles Vee, and Frank B. Dibble.

O. P. A. Issues New Rules for Obtaining Canning Sugar

Price Administrator Chester Bowles announced a four-point plan which he said was aimed at "some chiselers (who) are stooping to falsifying their applications in an effort to get sugar they know they won't use in canning."

This is the new sugar program: 1—Everyone applying for home canning sugar must hereafter sign this pledge:

"I agree that I will use the sugar applied for here for home canning purposes only. 'If, for any reason, I should not use it for canning I will return the equivalent in sugar stamps to my local war price and rationing board."

"I further agree that I will furnish a report to my local board of the number of quarts of food canned with this sugar and the amount of sugar actually used in canning this food."

"I understand that my report will become a part of my record and will be considered in further issuances of home canning and other sugar rations to me."

2—Local boards in areas where fruit and vegetable crops are not now available for home canning will suspend issuance of ration stamps for this purpose until the canning season starts in these areas. This will apply particularly to the Northern sections of the country.

3—Issuance also will be suspended in many other areas to give local boards a breathing spell, so they can process more carefully the applications on file. This move is intended also to give district officers an opportunity to recalculate monthly quotas for home canning.

4—A special staff of OPA investigators will undertake a "vigorous campaign" against the diversion of home canning sugar to bootleg liquor or illicit bottling of drinks.

Capt. Blakeney Downs Second Jap Bomber

Marine Capt. John W. Blakeney, III, son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Blakeney Jr. of 447 Brookline street, Newton Centre, shot down his second Jap dive-bomber in three weeks while flying a dusk patrol with his Hell's Belles squadron off Okinawa. Blakeney downed one of 13 bagged by his squadron when it intercepted a Jap bombing mission.

Capt. Blakeney is married and his wife, Mrs. Rita M. Blakeney, resides at 35 Washburn street, Newton. He is a graduate of the Newton High School and of Boston College. He flew combat patrol in the Marshalls several months before joining in the Okinawa campaign a few days after Yontan was captured by the Marines.

S-Sgt. Hennrikus Awarded Bronze Star

Staff Sgt. Edward G. Hennrikus, husband of Mrs. Joan Hennrikus of 16 Hibbard road, Newton, and a former member of the Newton Fire Department, was recently presented the Bronze Star Medal by Gen. Fox, assistant division commander of the 102nd Infantry Division with the Ninth Army in Germany.

The citation accompanying the award reads in part: "During his unit's engagements with the enemy, Hennrikus performed his duties as a section leader in a battalion aid station in a highly commendable manner."

"He worked in advance of the section in order to make reconnaissance for new locations and medical support to closely follow foot troops at all times. On numerous occasions when the air station could not be brought forward, due to enemy interference, SSGT Hennrikus cleverly improvised advance stations to give treatment to the wounded. The initiative and devotion displayed by this enlisted man reflects highest credit upon himself and the military service."

the Newton Cemetery, wreaths were placed by the veterans' and civic organizations and Senator Saltonstall addressing the gathering spoke of the recent tour he had made of Nazi concentration camps as a member of the Congressional investigating committee, citing the evidence of the German atrocities as proof that the 201 Newton men who have given their lives in the present conflict had not died in vain. Among these 201 heroes was Senator Saltonstall's own son, Marine Sgt. Peter B. Saltonstall, who was killed in action on Guam last summer.

Following the exercises at the cemetery which were held in memory of the city's hero dead of all wars, the marchers retraced their steps along Walnut street to the Newton City Hall where the Chief Marshal reviewed the parade and it then moved along Homer street to Commonwealth avenue where it was disbanded, after passing the War Memorial Building.

sister, Mrs. Sibley presiding at the refreshment table, later to be relieved by Mrs. D. Brewer Eddy and Mrs. Walter McGill.

Mrs. Eddy, who is the chairman of this group, introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. Louise Dyer Harris of Newtonville, well-known not only as an active worker in her church and clubs, but also as a writer of both prose and verse. Her selections for the afternoon were chosen from two of the volumes of her works, "Pen-Grins" and "More Pen-Grins" and included "Welcome Soldier," "The Wood-Carver," "One Forenoon," "Hats" and "Grandmothers Are All Alike."

Among the village chairmen present were Mrs. Dan Dutch and Mrs. S. Douglas, Waban; Mrs. Fred Hardy, Mrs. Edwin Rogers and Miss Ethel Woodberry, West Newton; Mrs. Ernest Drew, Auburndale; Mrs. Ralph Conant, Newtonville; Mrs. Sterling Loveland, Mrs. Edgar Burkhardt and Mrs. Mortimer Prescott, Newton; Mrs. Josiah Goddard, Wellesley; Mrs. E. A. Allen, Newton Centre and Mrs. Ernest Cobb, Newton Upper Falls.

Also included were Mrs. Theron Walker, president of the Hospital Aid Association of which this group is an auxiliary, Mrs. Francis Williams, business manager and Mrs. Walter McGill, chairman of the Coffee Shop, the newest addition to the Association.

With the volunteer workers who serve under the above chairmen, the guests numbered about sixty. The Shop which is located at 795 Washington street, Newtonville will still be open through June and July, closing as usual for August. Donations are needed and will be collected on Wednesday mornings by calling Big. 8123 or Las. 1426.

S-Sgt. Barbo Commended

Staff Sgt. Salvatore J. Barbo of West Newton was commended by Maj.-Gen. Geoffrey Keyes, Second Corps commander, for heroic achievement in combat on the Fifth Army front in Italy.

Barbo was commended just prior to the beginning of the Allied offensive which resulted in unconditional surrender of all German forces in Italy.

Barbo is a platoon sergeant in the 172nd Chemical Company, which was assigned the mission of establishing a smoke screen to cover a vital supply route. The road needed to supply Yank infantrymen, was less than 2000 yards from enemy observation.

Setting up their equipment, Barbo and his comrades moved from position to position under constant barrage of artillery and mortar fire. Their truck, moreover, had to make new tracks, and there was always the danger of land mines.

Several drums of fog oil were placed by shell fragments and shells landed as close as 25 yards from the men. Remaining cool throughout the operation, the Yanks completed their mission and cut off enemy observation to such an extent that accurate shelling of the road was impossible.

His mother, Mrs. Lucia Barbo, lives at 1383 Washington street, West Newton.

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Kennedy Dinner Hosts to Clothing Committee

The members of the Newton Committee of the United Clothing Collection were guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Kennedy at a dinner last Friday evening at the Braeburn Country Club. The committee under the leadership of Mrs. Kennedy, chairman, had been active in the Clothing Collection Campaign in Newton in which more than 50 tons of used clothing was collected in the city. The campaign was in progress during the month of April.

Committee members who attended the dinner were: Mrs. Paul M. Goddard, Miss Adelaide B. Ball, Rupert C. Thompson, Roy S. Edwards, Philip O. Ahlin, H. J. Pettengill, Richard M. Fennelly, Orville O. Clapper, Benjamin F. Lewis, Warren O. Oliver, and Dwight Colburn.

Also one of the committee but unable to attend was Harold B. Gores. A touching letter of regret from the absent member was read. Many incidents which occurred and situations which arose during the clothing drive were recalled. The exchange of "bon mots" and pleasantries completed a very enjoyable evening.

Nearly 4½ Millions Paid By Savings Banks Vacation Clubs

Savings banks will pay the largest Vacation Club account in many years this month when more than $4,436,000 will be paid to 74,996 depositors, it was announced yesterday by Kenneth McDougall, Executive Manager of the Savings Bank Association of Massachusetts. Last year Vacation Club payments were $2,700,000 to 46,287 members.

Most savings banks will pay their Vacation Club depositors during the coming week, and will also open the 1945 Clubs. The average Vacation Club payment is $59, and it is expected that a substantial number of payments will be used in part for the purchase of War Bonds in the 7th War Loan.

Why the Biggest Job in town carries no pay!

WHAT is the biggest job in your town—in anybody's town, between May 14th and June 30th?

It's that of the man or woman who will ask you to buy extra War Bonds in the 7th War Loan.

It carries no pay because the people who are doing this work are good Americans. In addition to buying extra Bonds themselves, they're willing to give their time to a job that's as important as anything outside the battle lines.

It's important—and it's big. Making our quotas in the 7th War Loan is a man-sized job for everybody.

Uncle Sam needs 7 billion dollars from individual Americans in the 7th! That's a bigger quota than ever before. It's bigger because this is really 2 loans in 1—last year, by this time, we had bought Bonds in 2 Loans instead of one.

And it's bigger because the need is bigger. We're building up a whole new air force, with new jet-propelled planes and even bigger bombers. We're building more tanks, mortars, and everything for the increasingly bitter struggle with Japan. And we're paying the mounting cost of victory—taking care of wounded men who are arriving in this country by thousands every month.

So—be ready when one of these War Bond workers comes to you. Open your door, your heart, your purse—for the 7th War Loan.

Help America to make its quota—by making yours!

Pfc. Collins Hospitalized In Marianas

Mr. and Mrs. John L. Collins of 24 Lincoln street, Newton Highlands have received word that their son, Pfc. Francis M. Collins, who was wounded at Okinawa receiving shrapnel wounds in one leg and one arm, has been hospitalized in the Marianas.

Pfc. Collins attended the Sacred Heart School and before entering the Army nearly three years ago had been employed by Brigham's, Inc. He went overseas nearly a year and a half ago.

Three of his brothers in the service are Cpl. Richard P. Collins in the Pacific, Pvt. John J. Collins, Jr. in North Carolina and Pvt. Thomas Collins in Austria.

Lieut. Bertsch Reported Safe

Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Bertsch of 32 Newell road, Auburndale have been notified by the Newton Chapter, American Red Cross, that their son, Lt. Martin L. Bertsch, 23, had sent a cable through the International Red Cross, that he is now in American hands.

A navigator-bomber on a Flying Fortress, Lt. Bertsch, was on his 15th mission when he was brought down over Magdeburg, Germany on September 12, 1944. His mother has since received a letter from him dated December 14 from Stalag Luft 1, Barth, Germany.

Lt. Bertsch was graduated from the Newton High School and attended Boston College. He entered the Army on February 2, 1943, and was commissioned at Selman Field, Georgia, on January 15, 1944, and arrived in England last June. He has received the Air Medal with an Oak Leaf Cluster.

THE FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST

The subject of the Lesson-Sermon to be read in The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts, and in all of its branches, on Sunday, June 3, will be "Ancient and Modern Necromancy, alias Mesmerism and Hypnotism, Denounced."

The Golden Text, "When the enemy shall come in like a flood, the Spirit of the Lord shall lift up a standard against him" is from Isaiah 59:19. Other Bible citations include, "Truly my soul waiteth upon God: from him cometh my salvation . . . God hath spoken once; twice have I heard this; that power belongeth unto God" (Psalms 62:1, 12).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, "The maximum of good is the infinite God and His idea, the All-in-all. Evil is a suppositional name. As named in Christian Science, animal magnetism or hypnotism is the specific term for error, or mortal mind. It is the false belief that mind is in matter, and is both evil and good; that evil is as real as good and more powerful. This belief has not one quality of Truth" (p. 103).

THE FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH IN NEWTON

Newton Centre
On Sunday morning, Rev. Charles N. Arbuckle, D.D., pastor of the First Baptist Church in Newton Centre, will preach on "Christian Salvation."

IMMANUEL BAPTIST CHURCH

Newton
This Sunday, June 3rd, will be Communion Sunday. The pastor will preach a sermon, "The Man Who Counted the Cost," based upon the life of one of the disciples. The Youth Fellowship will meet at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the church to start out for an outdoor meeting.

Sunday, June 10th, is Home Coming day, in commemoration of the 85th anniversary of the church. One of the friendly parts of this day's program will be the Home Coming day dinner served at the church after the morning worship.

Pfc. W. R. Prescott Killed in Germany

Word that their son, Pfc. William R. Prescott, 22, a paratrooper engineer with the 82nd Airborne Division, Engineer Battalion, had been killed in Germany on May 1st has been received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert G. Prescott of 278 Lake avenue, Newton Highlands.

Pfc. Prescott was graduated from the Newton High School and attended Northeastern University for two years before entering the Army. He had served for three years in the Army and had been overseas for more than a year.

Besides his parents he leaves two brothers, Donald R. Prescott, third class petty officer in the Navy who is stationed in Washington, and Oliver R. Prescott of New York, also a sister, Mrs. Harold S. Roberts of Arlington, Virginia.

Graduates from Regis College

Miss Mary Elizabeth Gill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry G. Gill of 15 Parkview avenue, Newtonville, was graduated from Regis College at impressive exercises held Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Gill is a member of the Sodality, St. Francis de Sales Club, I. R. C. Dramatic Club, Regis Herald and Mt. Regis.

The commencement exercises opened Sunday at 10 o'clock at the Cathedral of the Holy Cross, Boston, where a pontifical mass was celebrated by Archbishop Richard J. Cushing for the graduating class.

Class day exercises were held at the college Monday morning at 10 o'clock at the time Miss Gill, who was chosen as the class poet, read her ode, "Through A Window."

The conferring of the degrees by the Archbishop took place Tuesday afternoon on the spacious college campus in Weston.

Miss Gill attended the Newton schools and Boston University.

Newton High School
News

As a result of the election May 22, the following officers have been chosen for next year: Associated: President, Champe Fisher; Boys' Vice President, Jack L. Clark; Girls' Vice President, Nancy C. Beach; Clerk, Arvin C. Teschner; treasurer, Gim Pon Fong. Senior Class: President, Robert B. Scanton; Secretary, Gim Pon Fong; Treasurer, Mary G. Norris. The contribution of the students and faculty to the National Children's Fund of the Junior Red Cross were $328.35. This fund is used to provide medical and recreational supplies as well as school material to the children of the liberated countries.

The Newton High School faculty contributed $52.00 for a gift to the canteen. Two heating units for the school and a lamp were suggested by the Student Canteen Committee. The clock has been installed by the Trade School boys, who are also making the floor lamp.

Rotary Club

The guest speaker at the Rotary Club meeting last Friday was Nelson Churchill, well-known news commentator for the Yankee network, introduced by Ted Leonard. Mr. Churchill gave an excellent picture of the importance which radio has assumed in our daily lives. If many people object to the commercialism and advertising of radio, it should be borne in mind that the American standard of living is built upon the American conception of advertising, which includes commercials in radio programs. It was Mr. Churchill's opinion that there is much room for improvement in these commercials, but that it would be a grave mistake to eliminate them entirely and turn radio into a Government subsidized field; this would only serve to make radio flat and uninteresting.

The Newton Archers

The Newton Archers held the second handicap tournament on Sunday, May 27th. The east wind made chilly shooting. The group was small but there was a bit of fun along the line.

The winners of the handicap trophies were: Field, Victor LeMay, 68-320-553-873; Men, Herbert Carter, 75-389-433-822; Women, Dorothy Matthews, 52-217-503-720.

The winners of the straight score trophies were: Men, Juds A. Turner, 88-522; Women, Catherine Baley, 75-389-433-822; Juniors, Allen Billingsley, 42-18.

The next tournament will be held on June 16th. It is one of the regular six gold shoots. The men and women will shoot the double American Round and the juniors will shoot the double junior American Round. The usual cups will be awarded and merchandise prizes will be given for the first three places.

Newton Free Library

At the annual meeting of the Massachusetts Library Association held at the Hayden Auditorium of Boston University on Friday, May 25, 1945, Mr. Harold A. Wooster, Librarian of the Newton Free Library, was elected President of the Association, for the forthcoming year. During the past year, Mr. Wooster was Vice-President and Chairman of the Program and Planning Committee and a member of the Committee on Book Censorship Legislation. He had previously served a term as Secretary of the organization which includes approximately one thousand librarians.

Community Nursery
Annual Meeting

The Annual Meeting of the Community Nursery School will be held Thursday, June 7, at the School, St. Mary's Episcopal Church, Concord street, Newton Lower Falls. Dr. Alice McKinnon, the psychiatrist of the Newton Schools, a young, very alive, and interesting speaker, will entertain. She will be glad to answer questions regarding children and their behavior. Refreshments will be served. All parents are cordially invited, as well as any who may be planning to enter their child in the school next fall.

School will commence in early September at approximately the same time as the public schools, and will be in session, with vacations for nine and one half months. A child upon entering school must have passed the two year, nine month birthday before the first of October.

Inasmuch as this is a Cooperative School, parents are to be asked to spend, in rotation, a certain number of hours each month. If this is not possible, some other service is to be asked—such as acting as hostess at evening meeting of parents, telephone duties, etc. It is felt that parents and children alike would gain more from such cooperation. Each parent is to be assigned to a definite committee under a board member.

It is with great regret that the resignation of our head teacher, Mrs. Frederick Wilder, is announced. She is to be succeeded by Mrs. James R. Truden who comes well recommended by the Advisor, Mrs. Stone. She is a graduate of Simmons, has taken the intensive course at the Boston Nursery Training School, and at the Beaver Country Day School. Mrs. McCormick, who has been at the school for two years, will act as Mrs. Truden's assistant.

Newton District
Nursing Association

In keeping with its educational policies the Newton District Nursing Association invites, from time to time, members of Chest agencies or representatives of city departments to speak at their monthly meetings; and the May meeting, held at the Claffin School in Newtonville, was given over to a most interesting and enlightening talk on Nutrition by Miss Phillips.

Miss Phillips demonstrated her talk on foods necessary for growth and repair to maintain a healthy balance by showing convincing charts. In the absence of the president, Mrs. John E. Brown, the first vice president, Mrs. Horatio Rogers, presided and called for reports from several chairmen.

In her report of the work of the nurses for April Miss Hilga S. Nelson, Executive Director of the Newton District Nursing Association, spoke of the considerable increase in services over the same month last year and the shortage of nurses. She also mentioned some studies in Rheumatic Fever made by the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company. One interesting point brought out is that Rheumatic Fever is the leading fatal disease of children from five to nineteen years of age and from all indications seems to be on the increase. If the patient recovers, heart disease usually follows. It is very important that children be protected as much as possible from acute streptococcal infections of the ear, nose and throat. What seems at first to be just a simple sore throat if neglected may terminate in Rheumatic Fever.

Newton Council of Church Women

At an open meeting to be held at Trinity Church, Newton Centre, on Monday, June 11th at 2 p. m. Mrs. M. H. Lichter will speak on "About What?" All women who are interested are cordially invited.

The Seventh Loan is on! Now is the time to clinch V-J day.

Recent Engagements

Rev. Dr. and Mrs. M. Russell Boynton of 70 Summer street, Newton Centre announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Mary Margaret Boynton to Ensign Robert Clouston MacPherson, USNR, son of Mrs. Madeline Clouston MacPherson of 121 Cedric road, Newton Centre.

Miss Boynton, a graduate of Abbot Academy, is attending Wheaton College. Mr. MacPherson who was graduated from Rivers Country Day School, completed his V-12 training at Williams College and received his commission at Northwestern University.

Miss Greer attended Mary Washington College in Virginia, where she was a member of Sigma Tau Chi sorority. Mr. Aston is an honorably discharged veteran of World War II.

Dupee-Lord

On Tuesday noon, May 29, Miss Laura Woolsey Lord, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Lord of 22 Shorecliffe road, Newton, became the bride of Charles Analdo Dupee III. The ceremony was performed at the bride's home by Rev. Ray A. Eusden, minister of Eliot Church, with members of the family and relatives present.

Mr. Dupee is a graduate of Smith College in the class of 1944 and during the past year has been engaged in Red Cross work in Chicago. Mr. Dupee is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin, where he also received a master's degree. He is a member of the faculty of the University of Chicago and is research director of the Chicago Round Table.

Following the ceremony the wedding party were entertained at luncheon at the Hotel Statler. After a brief honeymoon in New Hampshire Mr. and Mrs. Dupee will make their home in Chicago.

Frank A. Day
Junior High School

Friday's Memorial Day assembly, at the Junior High School, was dedicated to all men of all races who have given or are giving their lives to make a war-free world. Introduction to the Flag Salute was given by Betsy Breed and Joan Nims. The speaker for the day was Lt. Col. George H. Lusk, Gen. Staff Corps, U. S. Army Air Force. Lt. Lusk is now an editor with Allyn and Bacon having returned to inactive service. He spoke about the real heroes of this war, not only those on the battlefield, but those who are in the home front faithfully performing the routine daily tasks so essential to victory. Anna Pellegrini read "Soldier at Rest." The program ended with Barbara Curtis playing "Taps."

The social event of the week was the Freshwell Day given by the Ninth Grade by the Eighth. Baron Hugo's orchestra played for the large crowd that attended. Contributions for the National Children's Fund of the Red Cross amounted to $50.

Bond and stamp sales on Thursday came to $646.20. New star bond salesmen are: Jane Beach, Agnes Boyajian, Marion Burke, Edward Murphy, Joyce Seymour, Robert Gifford, and Sally Lou Fawcett.

The city of Newton under the guidance of its local committee and with the help of many volunteers has collected, sorted, packed and shipped 100,019 pounds of clothing for liberated countries. We are just proud of our part in this noteworthy achievement.

Newton Centre
Garden Club

On Monday, June 4th at 10:30 a.m., the Newton Centre Garden Club will hold its Social Meeting of the year at the Newton Centre Woman's Clubhouse.

Mrs. Frances Warren Mitchell will speak on "Keeping the Garden Upkeep Down."

Club members will bring a sandwich for a 12 o'clock luncheon when coffee and dessert will be served by the hospitality committee.

After luncheon there will be an opportunity to visit the Newton Centre Branch Library Garden which the Club maintains through the efforts of Mrs. Donald MacPherson and her committee.

Smith College
Club Picnic

Following its usual custom, Newton Smith College Club will make a supper picnic the occasion of its annual meeting on Wednesday, June 6, on the grounds of Mrs. Donald M. Hill, Jr., 24 Solon street, Newton Highlands. The members will gather there at 6 p.m., bringing their box suppers, and coffee and dessert will be served by the club. In case of rain, however, there will be no picnic, but dessert will be served indoors at 7:15.

The business meeting will then be held, including election of officers for 1945-46. Mrs. John N. Eaton will give a report from Smith College instead of the usual councilor's report due to cancellation by the government of the annual Alumnae Council.

Mrs. E. Graham Bates, Program Chairman, will then conduct spotlight interviews with the following interesting members who are active locally in varied fields of endeavor: personal work, Mrs. E. A. Minard; education, Mrs. C. C. Greene; government OPA work, Mrs. M. Taylor Lyndon; defense work, Mrs. Frederick D. Goode; writing, Mrs. E. J. Carleton; volunteer service, Mrs. F. Brittain Kennedy; summer camps, Miss Lois Mann; music, Mrs. Osborne E. Brown.

JOHN UMINA

Funeral services for John Umina, late member of the Newton Police Department, were held from his home, 46 James street, West Newton on Monday morning. A solemn requiem mass was celebrated in St. Bernard's Church by Rev. John J. Crane, S.T.L., pastor assisted by Rev. Francis J. Sullivan, deacon, and Rev. John A. Saunders, sub-deacon. A large detail of members of the police department attended the services led by Chief Nicholas Vedeucio. A police detail led by Sgt. Bartlett Cullen served as pallbearers. A delegation was also present from the Filicide Society, Waltham with prayers by Fr. Saunders.

Patrolman Umina died on Thursday, May 24, following an illness of two weeks. He was in his 40th year. Born in Italy, the son of Stefano and Josephina (Santa Maria) Umina, he came to this country at the age of three. He had been a member of the Newton Police Department for four years, and was a member of the Filicide Society and the Aeolian Society.

He is survived by his parents, his wife, Mrs. Catherine (Rando) Umina; daughter, Josephine; three sons, Stephen in the Navy, John and Anthony; and three sisters, Mrs. Frank Caruso, Mrs. Corino Povvy and Miss Alice Umina.

Funeral services were held from her home on Wednesday morning. A solemn requiem mass was celebrated in St. Bernard's Church at 9:30. Burial was in Calvary Cemetery, Waltham.

Equity No. 13459

To Mary P. Reeve of Newton in the County of Middlesex and to the signatories to a certain memorandum of agreement dated December 1, 1914, between Samuel J. Elder et al., Trustees of the Newton Boulevard Syndicate, and Edward W. and Florence A. Pope et al., their heirs, devisees, grantees or beneficiaries claiming under them or under the Trustees of said Newton Boulevard Syndicate.

Whereas a petition in equity has been begun against you in our Superior Court within and for the County of Middlesex, wherein the plaintiff, Rose Shapiro, of said Newton, alleges that a cloud exists upon her title to the land and building at the corner of Nobscot Road and Commonwealth Avenue, being numbered 273 on said Commonwealth Avenue, said Newton, in that a deed to said property was made by said Pope and Mary P. Reeve to Joseph S. Donovan and Grace E. Donovan recorded in Middlesex South District Deeds in Book 3990, Page 213 conveyed the property subject to the restrictions mentioned in said deed and "subject to the further restrictions of a memorandum of agreement between Samuel J. Elder et al., Trustees of the Newton Boulevard Syndicate, and Edward W. and Florence A. Pope et al., dated December 1, 1914," and that the deeds subsequent thereto, including the deed to the plaintiff Rose Shapiro conveyed the property subject to restrictions of record and that the inquiries of the plaintiff have disclosed that no such agreement dated December 1, 1914, hereinbefore referred to was ever filed of record and that the inquiries of the plaintiff have disclosed that the restrictions in said agreement were never imposed for the benefit of any other lots in the vicinity and that no person has ever brought court proceedings to enforce any violation of said agreement.

And the plaintiff prays that this Court decree that the words "subject to the further restrictions of a memorandum of agreement between Samuel J. Elder et al., Trustees of the Newton Boulevard Syndicate, and Edward W. and Florence A. Pope et al., dated December 1, 1914," appearing in title deeds are no longer valid, in force or in effect.

Upon the foregoing petition it is ordered by the Court that the plaintiff notify the signatories to said agreement, their heirs, devisees, grantees or beneficiaries claiming under them or under the Trustees of the Newton Boulevard Syndicate, that on the first Monday of July next, which Monday is the return day of this notice, or within such further time as the law allows, they must cause their written appearance to be entered and their written answer or other lawful pleading to be filed in the office of the Clerk of said Court at Cambridge in said County, and further that they must defend against said petition according to law, if they intend to make any defense, by posting an attested copy hereof in a conspicuous place on the land described in the petition and by publication of an attested copy hereof in the Newton Graphic, a newspaper published in said Newton, once a week for three successive weeks, the last publication to be fourteen days at least before the said first Monday of July.

By the Court, (Hammond, J.)
Fred A. Beals, Jr., Assistant Clerk.
